AN IDEAL LOCATION

Canopy Creek in Palm City enjoys one of the most desirable locations in Southeast Florida. The beautiful waterways and preserves of Martin County attract boaters, anglers, hikers and nature lovers. First-class marinas, charming Treasure Coast towns, fresh farmers markets, vast uncrowded beaches and beautiful equestrian facilities are easily reached by roadways with little traffic. The town of Stuart, just minutes from Canopy Creek, features a quaint waterfront district, a lively performing arts scene, and eclectic shopping and dining options that spurred readers of Coastal Living magazine to vote Stuart “The Happiest Seaside Town” in 2016.

Children attending Martin County schools are enrolled in one of the top-rated school systems in the state. The area also has numerous private and parochial schools, youth sports programs, and recreational pursuits for every age and interest.

Getting from Canopy Creek to work, school and activities is fast and convenient. I-95 and the Florida Turnpike are just minutes away, and all of the shopping, dining and entertainment of Palm Beach Gardens is less than 30 minutes from your door.

CHERISHED SPACE

This is a neighborhood that delivers fun and relaxation in style. Strike out on your own for some quiet contemplation or gather the family for a scenic hike or bike ride along the extensive system of nature trails, walkways and bridges. There are miles of trails and acres of lakes and preserves to explore within Canopy Creek.

The community clubhouse, The Creek Club, is the spot for social camaraderie, recreation and special events. Play a game of pick-up basketball. Plan a play date at the Tot Lot. Play doubles with your neighbors at the lighted tennis courts. Swim laps or unwind in the resort-inspired pool and spa. A spacious patio is another venue for gatherings, while the outdoor fireplace is perfect for cool winter evenings.

The 5,500 square foot Creek Club features a catering kitchen and a gathering room, ideal for hosting large parties or small groups. The Fitness Center features showers, changing rooms and a kids' playroom where children can enjoy toys, videos and games while their parents work out.

HOME COMFORT

Kolter Homes' Executive and Estate home collections are designed to blend with Canopy Creek's serene, natural surroundings. Offering one- and two-story designs and up to six Bedrooms, the floorplans of Canopy Creek provide incredible flexibility. As needs change, so can your home. A den becomes a home office or teen space. A spare bedroom is transformed into a music room or playroom. A bay of the 3-Car Garage is the perfect workshop.

Formal Living and Dining spaces, Gourmet Kitchens, spacious Great Rooms, and inviting Outdoor Living spaces open up endless entertaining possibilities. A formal dinner party, a graduation pool party or a neighborhood open house can all be hosted with comfort and ease.

The outdoors present new areas for living. Each Canopy Creek home sits on a minimum half-acre homesite, allowing ample room for a personal backyard oasis. A pirate ship treehouse, a bougainvillea-draped gazebo, a waterfall pool and spa, an herb and vegetable garden—at Canopy Creek you can live life outdoors your way.
