TIME TO RELAX

e're so glad you've decided to visit Greater Portland and we want you to have a wonderful experience when you're here. That's why we advise stopping at the Visitor Information Center at Ocean Gateway, on Portland's vibrant waterfront. Our information specialists love to share their knowledge of the region and can give you recommendations and directions to ease your travel planning. Pick up brochures on attractions, restaurants, and accommodations; discount coupons are sometimes available too. But most of all, partake of our hospitality as we welcome and help you feel at home in Maine.

LIGHTHOUSES, LOBSTERS, AND SURF

CRASHING ON THE ROCKY SHORE...

These are the enduring images that come to mind when people think of the classic Maine coast.

Here, in Greater Portland, you'll absolutely experience the quintessential Maine coast...

...plus a whole lot more! Maine's largest metropolitan area is listed time and again at the top of best places to vacation from amid destinations in the northeast, the United States, and even worldwide. Greater Portland hosts a vibrant arts scene, exceptional shopping, gourmet cuisine, and fabulous outdoor recreation, all set amidst a backdrop of stunning natural beauty.

Back coves and portholes. Ferries and festivals. Mansions and microbrews. It seems impossible that a single seaside city could offer so much. And yet, the Greater Portland region is a tribute to diversity and Portland a city of contrasts. Modern buildings brush sleeves with Victorian neighborhoods and young professionals and old salts nod to each other over their morning coffee.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's "City by the Sea," once a trading and fishing settlement, has maintained much of its 19th century architecture, landmarks, and flavor, and its adventurous spirit is now woven into the region's fabric. You'll see evidence of it in its historic homes and, on closer inspection, within its lauded museums, independent art studios, and galleries.

Jutting out into island-studded Casco Bay, Portland offers some of the best water access to neighboring islands, historic forts, and lighthouses in all of Maine. Portland's waterfront is still very much a working port, an integral and thriving part of the local economy, as well as a lively mixture of rich nightlife and cutting-edge cuisine.

Go 10 or 15 minutes in any direction and you'll be surprised you're anywhere near Maine's largest metropolitan area. Set like a jewel in the crown of Casco Bay, Portland is unique in its position as a major cultural center that equally embraces its natural environment. Both surrounding and within Portland, parks and preserves allow access to the tranquil natural beauty that Maine is renowned for. Our neighboring communities invite visitors to feel a part of the warp and weave of local life. Whether you're out for a day of shopping, visiting museums and galleries, or touring historic sites, you're never far from places of pure, scenic beauty; it's one of the reasons we call Portland "Authentic By Nature."

Useful information while visiting Greater Portland

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Table of Contents [p. 3] helps you locate what you're after. In each section find a description of businesses listed by category and an index to streamline your search.

WELCOME CENTER

Call or visit our hospitality specialists—locals who can help you with your trip [p. 5].

POPULATION

Portland: 66,300

Maine's largest and most diverse city, with over 40 languages spoken.

Greater Portland: population of 270,000 (one-fifth of Maine's total population).

CLIMATE

Greater Portland's coastal climate provides milder temperatures in winter and summer than inland regions.

Spring: Average 45° - 60° F.

Summer: Average temp is 68° - 82° F, but can reach into the 90s F.

Autumn: Average 60°-70° F, but can get cooler—be sure to pack a fleece.

Winter: Average 20°- 30° F but can get below 0° and into the 60s.

SNOW

Total average snowfall ranges between 60-90 inches per year, with only 18 days a winter when snowfall is more than 1 inch.

WHAT YOU SHOULD PACK

Summer: Lightweight clothes are comfortable, but bring your favorite bathing suit for the sunny days and a sweater for cooler evenings and refreshing ocean breezes.

Spring + Autumn: Rain jackets and sweaters/ fleeces are advisable.

Winter: Boots (especially L.L. Bean!), flannel shirts, ski + snowboard winter jackets are always in style. While casual dress is prevalent throughout the region, top coats and cocktail dresses are also not uncommon for a night on the town.

SMOKING

TOBACCO: In Maine, public settings indoor and outdoor are smoke-free, including Portlandowned parks, playgrounds, athletic fields, trails, beaches, and open spaces. While 18 is the legal smoking age, patrons in many towns, including Portland, must be 21 to purchase tobacco products. Throwing tobacco litter on the ground is prohibited and results in a $100 fine. [smokefree.portlandmaine.gov]

MARIJUANA: In 2017, recreational use of marijuana became legal, however, smokers have to be at least 21 years old and it is prohibited to smoke in public.

NOTE: Marijuana cannot be purchased at a

NOTE: Marijuana cannot be purchased at a store or club until February 2018, at the earliest.

ALCOHOL

Persons must be 21 years old to buy or consume alcoholic beverages. Hours of legal service are 6am-1am. Photo ID required. OUI laws are strictly enforced.

DIETARY NEEDS

The DINE grids [p. 39-43] identify restaurants that accommodate dietary preferences, including vegetarian and gluten-free meals as well as those with children's menus.

PETS

For pet friendly accommodations, refer to STAY grids. [p. 71, 75-81]

STEP BACK IN TIME

We're proud of our history and keep it forefront with attention to architectural preservation and numerous historical sites open to the public. The Maine Historical Society maintains an extensive collection of artifacts that vividly bring Maine history to life. Adjacent to the Historical Society, in the heart of bustling Congress Street, the boyhood home of poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow is the oldest standing structure on the Portland peninsula. Museum homes invite you to step back in time and gain a greater perspective and respect for the historic forces that continue to influence our lives. Be sure to tour Victoria Mansion, one of the greatest 19th century houses in the country and unlike anything else in Portland.

SHOP ENDLESSLY

With specialty shops for dog lovers, sock collectors, and those who love to cook (and eat!), you'll be tempted to bring home several treasures. Poke through shops and galleries lining the cobblestone streets of the Old Port. Look for hand-crafted items inspired by Maine's natural land and seascapes. Find everything under one roof at the Maine Mall and seek out bargains at Freeport's outlets. Don't be deterred if you get the late night shopping bug-L.L.Bean, the world-renowned outfitter, is open 24/7 year-round for essential gear for all your outdoor adventures.

EAT SOMETHING

Farm-to-table, community supported agriculture, sustainable seafood—in Maine these aren't trends, they're traditions. Maine has an abundance of authentic ingredients; fishermen haul fresh lobster and seafood to the docks every day, and organic farms and dairies support year-round farmers' markets with locally raised meats, vegetables, and herbs bursting with natural flavor. Enjoy views of Casco Bay from restaurants that line the harbor or soak up the ambiance of venues tucked away inside beautifully restored historic buildings. Dine on timehonored seafood and American fare or explore ethnic offerings that fuse modern interpretations with traditional Middle Eastern, Mediterranean, and Asian cuisines for delicious results.

TOD TAHW NEED TO SEE?

We'll keep you as busy as you want to be! Here are some of the top activities our visitors rave about... let us know yours!

Although Maine is renowned for its many miles of rocky coastline, you won't have to give up beautiful sand beaches when you visit—we've got seven sandy seaside playgrounds within a stone's throw of downtown Portland. You can be sun tanning or surf boarding in the afternoon and enjoying a play or live music by nightfall. And many beaches are dog-friendly, allowing your furry friends full romping privileges from fall through spring. Bring or rent bicycles to explore the islands including beaches and secluded coves. Nearby, Old Orchard Beach's seven sandy miles are crowned by an historic pier, boardwalk, and Palace Playland, New England's only beachfront amusement park.

GO AFLOAT

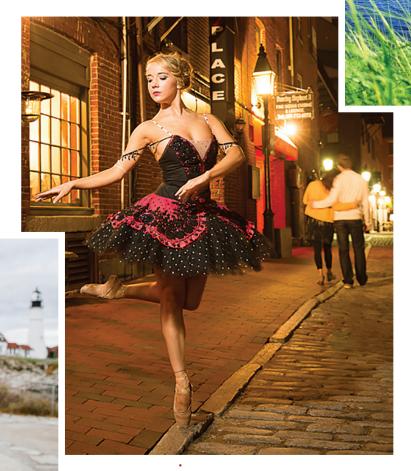

Surf crashing on the rockbound shore, salty sea breezes, seagulls squawking overhead—to really experience Greater Portland in its geographic context, you'll want to venture out to sea. Get up close and personal with seals and lighthouses on a harbor cruise or haul lobsters that you can cook up for dinner. Rent a sea kayak or paddleboard at East End Beach and take off; you can explore the parapets of Fort Gorges, the hexagonal stone structure off the Eastern Prom. Venture to one of the populated islands on the Casco Bay Lines ferry or stay aboard for the round trip excursion. Go whale watching or deep-sea fishing or sail into the sunset on a wooden schooner. See listings for cruises and tours [p. 21-22].

GET TAPPED OUT

Maine is at the forefront of the craft beverage boom, and Greater Portland has some of the most accessible, palatepleasing imbibing opportunities around! For a car(e)free experience, join the Maine Brew Bus or Maine Beer Tours for a behind-the-scenes look at the fermentation process with plenty of samples. The East Bayside and Riverside neighborhoods contain a concentration of breweries and distilleries, making it easy to visit a number at once. As you wind your way through Portland's Old Port, stop into the Sweetgrass tasting room for a sample of their flavored dessert wines. Across the street, Vena's Fizz House offers its own botanicalinfused fizzes, mocktails, and cocktails.

*C PORTLAND YOUR WAY

What's your pleasure? We'll point you in the direction of your interests so you can C's the day!

COUPLES

Close enough for a weekend getaway from Boston and New York, and small enough to be intimate, Portland is perfect for sharing with your best friend or romantic spark. Take a long walk on the beach, savor an elegant meal, enjoy live music at a club, and stroll leisurely back to an in-town hotel or B&B. Consider Portland for a honeymoon and let us celebrate with you. Gay marriage is legal in Maine and LGBTQ couples are warmly welcomed.

CULTURE

The most cultured cityphile will be amazed at all that's going on in Portland and the ease and value compared with larger downtowns. Portland has its own symphony orchestra, professional theatre and dance troupes, even a repertory opera company. Portland Museum of Art has significant holdings of Maine, American, and European works, and the Arts District is filled with galleries that open in a festive celebration the first Friday of each month.

CALM

You can really get away from it all in Maine. While there's plenty to do in the Greater Portland region, you may need to just chill on a beach for a week, or hike some lesser visited paths and rejuvenate yourself surrounded by landscapes and seascapes of incredible beauty. Pamper yourself at a day spa or stay at a full-service resort with a spa. Sit by a cozy fire in winter with a friend. Come see why we say: "Maine, The Way Life Should Be."

COCKTAILS

Our neighbors to the south love to come to Portland for, among other things, Happy Hour. At many of Portland's restaurants, the late afternoon to early evening time slot is an opportunity to try out a new spot with daily specials and bargain beverages; some places even put out a complimentary spread for you to enjoy with your cheap drinks. At Portland's microbreweries, there's something new brewing every season so we recommend repeat visits.

CUISINE

With its farmers, fishermen, and five-star chefs, cuttingedge culinary artistry is now Maine's calling card and foodies are flocking here. You can't walk down the street without bumping into several ways to treat your taste buds! Whether you come to Maine primarily for the beautiful scenery or for the fabulous food, you'll enjoy both, often at the same time. Visit the third week in October for Harvest on the Harbor. Portland's celebration of all things culinary.

COMMEMORATIVE

Like most cities, Portland is sprinkled with statues that honor the accomplishments of its forebears. The prolific film director, John Ford, is so recognized as is poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. For those that like to know a destination from its roots up, historical references are everywhere, such as the 16 markers that comprise the Portland Freedom Trail, a self-guided tour about the Underground Railroad and abolitionist movement.

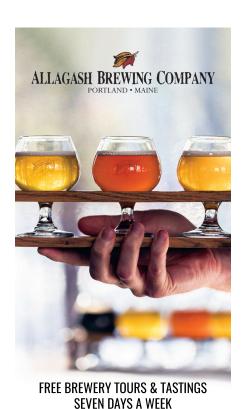

CHILDREN

Don't leave the kids at home! They'll love the hands-on exhibits at the Children's Museum or riding a historic streetcar, steam train, or Model-T at one of the region's transportation museums. Catch a home game of the Portland Sea Dogs (baseball) or Maine Red Claws (basketball) teams. See a moose at the Maine Wildlife Park and let your kids vent their energy running along the beach or playing laser tag. Make family memories in Maine.

CRUISE

Portland has become a popular cruise destination, especially in the fall. If you arrive here via cruise ship you'll likely have several tour options to sign up for before disembarking. But it's easy to spend a half day downtown on your own. Sightseeing tours leave from Commercial Street, and the bustling Old Port is a few blocks away with cafes and boutiques that beckon. For an authentic experience, explore one of the few remaining working waterfronts in the country.

ONLY HAVE THREE HOURS

What to do if it's your first—and possibly only—time in Greater Portland.

While there are six distinctive lighthouses guarding Portland Harbor, Portland Head Light in Cape Elizabeth is the one to see. Beyond its iconic status, it also has the distinction of being the oldest lighthouse in Maine, commissioned by George Washington in 1787. Located in Fort Williams Park, it also has an accessible museum, and is surrounded by extensive walkways and sweeping views that make this an enjoyable visit. [p. 52]

Lobster is not hard to find in Greater Portland, but when on a tight timeline, it's fastest to grab a lobster roll. The quintessential Maine on-the-go meal is easily located at a nearby eatery. Traditionally served on a hot dog bun, it's generally comprised of a couple of claws and tails of lobster meat, a dollop of mayonnaise or drawn butter, with a dash of paprika. But also try some contemporary versions of this classic Maine staple.

Guided tours give you the flavor of the region. Choose a tour based on your interests—from historical sites to breweries there are knowledgeable leaders who share your enthusiasm for the subject. To create your own self-guided tour, pick up brochures and talk to specialists at the Visitor Information Center, and use the business listings in this guide. But in case you have more time for your visit, guided tours tend to be more informative.

ARRIVE

BE WELCOMED at our Visitor Center at Ocean Gateway, get your bearings, and gather information about your interests in the area. Relax after your travels by soaking up the ocean air at the waterside Moongarden. Stroll along the shore enjoying the vistas from the East End Trail, maybe even taking a dip in the cool Atlantic water at East End beach. [p. 5]

DAY

GET ACCLIMATED! Food, beer, wine, history, art, coffee, architecture, light houses, and more—no matter your interest, there is a tour to experience. [p. 21-22]

AFTERNOON

GET TO A LIGHTHOUSE! The six lighthouses here all have unique aspects that make them must-sees. [p. 52]

EAT A LOBSTER! It seems every pub, restaurant, seaside shack, food truck, and cart has a succulant take on our most famous of seafood. Boiled, baked, on a roll or in mac & cheese, there are no bad choices. Pack one to go or ship it to have when you get home. [p. 35, 39-43]

EVENING

INDULGE—Luxuriate with a James Beard Award-winning meal, pub hop through the city, taste various desserts, or enjoy a late-night breakfast. The culinary scene's reputation is fairly earned. [p. 39-43]

CATCH A LIVE SHOW! See a Broadway show, local theatre, symphony, ballet, opera or dance to musical legends.
Regional faves headline outdoor concerts, intimate venues, and local pubs.
[p. 20-21, 44-47]

DAY 2

MORNING

HIT THE GROUND RUNNING! Or walking, or bicycling... Greater Portland has an interwoven trail system that traverses woods, oceanside paths, rivers, and city streets to safely explore the region off the beaten paths. [p. 31]

AFTERNOON

EAT—The culinary scene starts early in the day as many breakfast and lunch spots have national followings, from classic favorites like fish 'n' chips to Portlandcreated "Italians." [p. 36-43]

DRINK—Most area craft breweries, distilleries, wineries, and coffee roasteries offer tours and tastings to quench any thirst. [p. 26-27, 36-37]

BE MERRY—Retail therapy keeps visitors smiling in downtown Portland or Freeport, in the mall, or in boutique shops nestled in surrounding towns. [p. 53-60]

EVENING

DINE—Confirm your reservations for your latest guilty pleasure and relax as one of the area's award-winning chefs rolls out their latest innovation and pairings to dazzle the taste buds. [p. 39-43]

NIGHTLIFE—In Greater Portland, this can mean clubbing in the Old Port, taking in a live band, all-night shopping at L.L. Bean, ice skating, dancing, skiing, a play, billiards, a hidden speakeasy, a comedy show, sitting by the sea, an art museum, strolling a quiet neighborhood, fishing, a beach bonfire, rock climbing, people watching from a bench, and so much more. [p. 18-34]

There's much more to Greater Portland than lobsters and lighthouses.

TGIF—Every Friday night, the Portland Museum of Art is open for free 5pm-9pm. Art Walks, featuring performers, artists, and musicians, take over Portland's Arts District the First Friday of each month. Additionally, the Children's Museum & Theatre of Maine offers discounted admission 5pm-8pm, and the Institute of Contemporary Art is free as well. Many galleries host opening exhibits welcoming patrons with hors d'oeuvres.

The Cobblestone streets of downtown Portland's Old Port are lined with the best of Maine-owned businesses. Rebuilt after the fire of 1866 that destroyed the city, these brick and cast iron buildings create an authentic downtown shopping experience.

Freeport blends high-end retail shopping with an authentic New England village. [p. 55]

Free outdoor concerts in parks and inexpensive pubs exude music nightly. Parks in Scarborough, South Portland, Westbrook, and throughout Portland host open-air shows during the summer, including the Stars & Stripes Spectacular, Portland Pop's July Fourth concert. In Freeport, L.L. Bean features national headliners at free summer concerts on their campus green. [p. 44]

AKERS ASSOCIATES

REAL TORS

DAY 3 MORNING

HAVE BRUNCH—The perfect morning to taste a farm-to-table breakfast at a notable restaurant or a more casual diner. [p. 39-43]

SEAS THE DAY! Kayaking, sailing, fishing, or paddle boarding are great in warm weather. Cooler temps don't deter, however, with year-round water taxi and Casco Bay Lines island service. Holiday polar dips and Parade of Lights are other great excuses to enjoy the harbor in winter. [p. 11]

RELIVE HISTORY-From colonial days to the Industrial Age, buildings from almost every era of the metro area's development are open for tours. Be transported to past periods, time after time. [p. 22-26, 32-33]

EXPLORE THE 'HOOD-Meander the streets around an intriguing neighborhood. The towns of Greater Portland all offer unique aspects that make them worth the visit. [p. 61-63]

DEPART

PLAN YOUR NEXT VISIT. Make your reservation at your favorite places to stay or plan someplace new to experience on your next visit.

GET IT TO GO. Hold onto the taste of Maine by grabbing an Italian or lobster roll for the road. Or ship some live lobster to meet you at home. Local food can also be enjoyed while at Portland International Jetport or on the Downeaster train home. [p. 54, 56, 84]

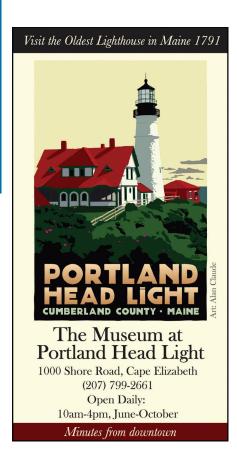

VISIT LIKE A LOCAL

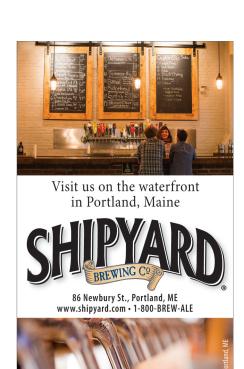

It doesn't take long to feel at home in Greater Portland.

Bayside has become the incubator for popular new breweries, distilleries, roasteries, and studios...even bowling! The former industrial neighborhood is evolving into a bastion of innovation and high tech, not only attracting entrepreneurs and growing businesses, but has captured the attention of the PBA (Professional Bowler's Association) now hosting an annual international tournament at Bayside Bowl.

Brunch in Greater Portland has risen to an art form—the culinary arts, that is! Whether you're craving hearty diner fare or a more refined white-glove experience, the choices are varied and popular. Early risers may be seated right away, but its not uncommon to find a late-morning line indicating it's worth the wait. Reservations are encouraged, but counter space is often available immediately. [p.39-43]

Diverse interests and lifestyles create Greater Portland's lively flavor. Each town in Greater Portland has a unique appeal, and neighborhoods within each town have different vibes that offer different experiences. Enjoy exploring the region to find the places that thrill your soul or soothe your spirit, and visit like a local-or better yet, become one! [p. 61-63]

No visit to Portland is complete without venturing out to one of the nearby Casco Bay Islands. Dine at a fine Portland restaurant, stay in a comfortable hotel, then get out onto the sparkling waters in a number of fun and affordable ways.

Those who make their homes on the populated islands of Casco Bay know just how different their lifestyle is from that of mainlanders. United by their reliance on ferry transportation in all weathers, islanders have created tight-knit communities that support each other but also welcome visitors to experience these special places.

The Casco Bay Lines ferry offers daily trips to seven of the nearby populated islands as well as sunset and moonlight cruises, and a sunrise cruise for early risers. Or speed directly to the island of your choice on the Portland Sea Taxi, a private boat taking up to six passengers across the bay.

HOW TO CHOOSE

Each island has its own unique personality; check out visitportland.com/explore-the-area/casco-bay-islands for a brief overview of each of the islands.

GOOD TO KNOW

You can take bicycles on the ferry (extra fare charged) to ride around the laid back island roads.

Restaurants serve dinner on Great Diamond, Peaks, and Chebeague Islands.

Most ferries don't carry autos, just passengers, except the Peaks Island ferry.

There are no cars on Little and Great Diamond Islands, just golf carts and bicycles.

In 1993, Long Island seceded from Portland to become the first new town in Maine since 1925.

Overnight camping is allowed on Little Chebeague, a state park, and the western shore of Cow Island, both only accessible by private boat or taxi.

The nine-hole golf course on Chebeague Island was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2015.

With access via kayak, taxi or private boat, you can explore the ramparts of Fort Gorges, the hexagonal structure on Hog Island Ledge off Portland's Eastern Prom.

Lady Captain's Ring

The 4-mile Peaks Island Loop follows paved roads that circle the island nearest to Portland, a mere 15 minute ferry ride away. The road is mostly flat with minimal traffic, and periodic benches allow you to stop and enjoy the views to the Atlantic.

Cycle off-road in South Portland on the 5.6 mile Greenbelt Walkway, from the Wainwright Athletic complex, near the Scarborough town line, to Bug Light Park, where Liberty Ships were built during WWII. Along the way, enjoy vistas of the Portland waterfront.

Just west of Freeport, Pineland Farms has over 5,000 acres of beautiful woodlands and fields open to the public. Their 18 mile groomed trail system is perfect for mountain biking. With its rolling terrain, the River Loop is excellent for family rides. Add the Valley Farm Loop for more of a challenge.

KAYAK

Take off from Peak's Island, Portland's East End Beach, or Willard Beach in South Portland for an afternoon or full day exploring the nooks and crannies of Casco Bay and the nearby Calendar Islands.

To explore Scarborough Marsh—an important resting, breeding and feeding grounds for birds and animals—put in at the Maine Audubon Center on Rt 9 in Scarborough. Be careful of the tides which make it more difficult to paddle in a certain direction, depending on which way the tide is flowing.

Paddlers can enjoy a beautiful stretch of the Presumpscot River between Saccarappa Falls and the Cumberland Mills Historic District in Westbrook. The river's calm water makes it an ideal location for all skill levels. You can also put in at Lincoln Street and enjoy 5 miles of splendid scenery between Westbrook and Windham.

HIKE

An easy 1.5 mile trail offering excellent views of Casco Bay circles 100-acre Mackworth Island, connected to Falmouth by a causeway. Generally level with no major barriers to wheelchairs on the main loop. Small side trails follow steep slopes to the shore.

Popular for walking and running, the 3.6 mile Back Cove Trail offers fantastic views of Portland's skyline from a paved path nestled along the water. The loop trail is mostly flat, with a slight rise along the stretch that parallels I-295. Connects to the Bayside and Eastern Promenade Trails under Tukey's Bridge.

Bradbury Mountain State Park in Pownal provides 21 miles of hiking trails ranging from easy to advanced. Although only 485 feet high, the summit offers sweeping views towards Casco Bay and stunning fall foliage. Reward your exertions with a good meal in nearby Freeport.

PUTTING A NAME TO THE PLACE

What's in a name? In Greater Portland, it's no less than America's history.

FORT GORGES, 1858

Named after Ferdinand Gorges who was deeded by Britain as the original landholder of the Casco Bay area in 1622.

FIRST PARISH CHURCH, 1728

The Longfellow family pews are still reserved, and a canon ball from a Revolutionary War attack is mounted in the chandelier.

WADSWORTH-LONGFELLOW HOUSE, 1786

Famed poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow grew up in downtown Portland's oldest building, and its easy to find local inspiration in much of his work. The family home was preserved by his sister.

PORTLAND HEAD LIGHT, 1791

While not named after our first President, George Washington commissioned this first U.S. lighthouse in 1786. The Keeper's quarters were approved by Gov. John Hancock.

PORTLAND, OREGON, 1845

Of the two founders of this western city, Portland, Maine native Francis Pettygrove won the coin toss deciding after whose home the fledgling town would be named. Asa Lovejoy of Boston lost.

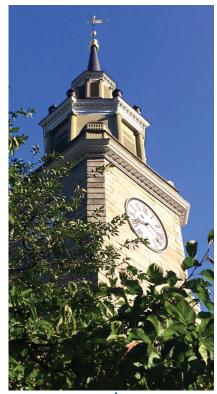

BULL FEENEY'S, 1866

Charles Q. Clapp Building (rebuilt after the Great Fire) houses this pub named for film direcor John Ford—born John Feeney. The Maine native was nicknamed "Bull" for his tenacity on Portland High School's football team. He masked his surname with that of the popular car because of hostility toward the Irish in Hollywood.

LINCOLN PARK, 1866

Lincoln Park, named after the recently slain President, was created as a firebreak after the Great Fire that destroyed the city a third time. The fire was started when Fourth of July fireworks ignited the blaze celebrating the end of the Civil War.

HOTOS, CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: LARRY EMERSON; ROBERT WITKOWSKI/VISIT PORTLAND; CFW PHOTOGRAPHY; ROBERT WITKOWSKI/VISIT PORTLAND; COREY TEMPLETON

WINSLOW HOMER STUDIO, 1884

The famous painter hired innovative area architect John Calvin Stevens to adapt a carriage house into a residence and studio when Homer relocated from New York City.

L.L.BEAN, 1912

Leon Leonwood Bean started an empire by selling what we know today as the "Bean Boot." To capture customers, he stood by his products with an unconditional lifetime guarantee that is still offered today!

GOVERNOR BAXTER SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, 1957

Gov. Percival Baxter donated his summer retreat, Mackworth Island, to the state in 1953, providing a home for this school.

HADLOCK FIELD, 1993

Baseball stars Ryan Flaherty (Baltimore Orioles) and Charlie Furbush (Seattle Mariners) played for opposing high schools in this stadium named after Portland High baseball coach Edson J. Hadlock, Jr. As home to the Sea Dogs (AA Red Sox), fans have cheered players who've advanced and finally won penants for the Boston's Olde Towne Team and Chicago Cubs.

The prospect of a visit to Maine is almost synonymous with the expectation of eating the state's famous crustacean, caught fresh in local waters. And Maine lobster is the sweetest, most flavorful lobster on earth.

The traditional steamed lobster dinner with butter, corn, and clams is served throughout the region alongside new creative ways to savor the delicacy. Lobster rolls have also evolved from the hugely popular toasted flat bun, chock full of sweet mayonnaise-tossed meat, to other varieties featuring flavors like curry, wasabi, or chipotle. Enjoy a lobster roll in a gorgeous oceanside setting, such as Two Lights Lobster Shack or the Bite Into ME mobile eatery at Fort Williams Park, both in Cape Elizabeth. Worried about withdrawal? Several seafood purveyors are happy to send you home with lobsters packed to travel or ship them directly to you. The Maine lobster fishery is a model of resource sustainability, undertaken for generations by the fiercely independent men and women of Maine's coastal towns. Lobstering in Maine is done by a close-knit community of harvesters, and is often a multigenerational family tradition. The stories of their work on the water are as unique as Maine itself, from the origin of lobster boats' names to the way they each fell in love with the lobstering life. Contributing more than $1 billion to the state's economy annually, Maine lobster is not just a culinary icon, but also an economic engine.

DID YOU KNOW

Lobster was served at the first Thanksgiving.

There is no way to tell how old a lobster is because they molt their shells.

The Maine lobster industry has been operating continuously since the turn of the 17th century.

In season, most Maine lobstermen can have up to 800 traps in the water.

Lobster is an excellent source of lean protein that's low in saturated fat and rich in vitamin B12.

In Maine, the length of a lobster's body must be between 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ 4 and 5 inches to keep.

100% of Maine lobsters are hand caught from small day boats.

Lobsterman's Wife's Maine Sea Glass Bracelet

We saw an ad in Uncle Henry's: "100 Pounds of Sea Glass For Sale"... that's all it said. We called. Then we visited. She was delightful. She said she and her daughters, and then grandchildren, had been picking up sea glass on the beaches around her home forever.

The walls in her basement were lined with two types of coffee cans and glass jars. Some with mixed colors, some filled with solid colors. It was beautiful. This was the definitive collection of Maine sea glass. We met her asking price and bought it all.

The bracelet is real silver. The sea glass is securely set in handmade frames. Toggle clasp with adjustable length, fits everyone.

A really pleasant mix of colors. Every bracelet is different. Each bracelet is guaranteed a nice bright blue. (Blue is rare and we have it because it's from a lifetime collection.)

WINTER WONDERLAND

As the weather gets cooler, Greater Portland is just getting warmed up to enjoy the quieter season's many delights.

Mainers don't shy away from the winter weather—they treasure it. You'll encounter ice bars and winterfests in nearly every community featuring chili and chowder cookoffs, ice sculpture competitions, sledding and ice skating, and plenty of marshmallows for your cocoa. As a lowcost alternative for finding great culture, Greater Portland is hard to beat, with a rich profusion of professional theater and dance at a fraction of the cost found in other cities. Enjoy a horse and carriage ride in the Old Port as you take in the city's Victorian legacy. Come embrace winter like a local with performance arts, spectator sports and, of course, snowscapes to keep you glowing. See our many suggestions to combat your winter blahs on pages 53-55.

Top 10 Do-Not-Miss Quiet Season List

> PORTLAND BEER WEEK / NOV 5-11 Lots of events to immerse yourself in our extensive craft brewing scene.

> > HOLIDAY TREE LIGHTING / NOV 24 Start the holiday season with entertainment and merriment in Portland's Monument Square.

> > MERRY MADNESS / DEC 7 With your official wine glass, head into Portland's streets for a festive night of shopping.

MAGIC OF CHRISTMAS /DEC 8-10, 15-17 Portland Symphony Orchestra's popular holiday show at Merrill Auditiorium.

DO TASTINGS

Maine's reputation as a culinary destination with award-winning chefs and restaurants is well deserved. and also includes a vibrant craft beverage scene. It's easy to try our taste with tours designed to experience local food, beer, wine, and spirits popular in Greater Portland. Happy Hours and events like Flavors of Freeport and Maine Restaurant Week expand palates without busting wallets, while also feeding your soul.

DO THE ARTS

For culture lovers, winter is the ideal time to visit Portland—professional theatre and dance troupe seasons are in full swing, packing the colder months with lots of show stoppers. The Portland Symphony Orchestra and Portland Ovations bring world-class performances to beautiful Merrill Auditorium, and the Portland Rossini Club presents classical concerts at St. Luke's Cathedral. First Friday Art Walks, galleries art museums, theatres, and venues stay open all year.

DO HOLIDAYS

Portland's Victorian-era roots are especially evident during the holiday season when horse-drawn carriages roll over cobblestones, street lamps glisten with snowflakes, and Portland Ballet performs its Victorian Nutcracker. Make memories with your kids on a magical voyage from Portland to the North Pole aboard the Polar Express. Listen to carolers as you shop our unique boutiques for special gifts and enjoy enchanting decorations throughout the region. Come to Maine this year and let us light up your holidays.

DO SNOW

In Maine, downhill skiers and snowboarders will find some of the most dependable snow and best skiing in the east. In Greater Portland you can cross-country ski alongside the surf, across golf courses, and through scented pine forests, or on the 15 miles of groomed Nordic trails at Pineland Farms in New Gloucester. L.L.Bean Outdoor Discovery Schools offer "Walk-On Adventures" in cross-country skiing and snowshoeing. Bring snow tubes to enjoy the great hills at Portland's Payson Park.

DO INSIDE

Mainers get energized when snow starts flying, but if the weather has you climbing the walls, you may want to try that out for real. Challenge yourself vertically at Evo Rock & Fitness or Salt Pump Climbing Co-both have activities for kids of all ages. Maine Indoor Karting's track is designed for thrilling speed but there's an indoor mini-golf course for those too young to race. And there's no shortage of bowling lanes for hours of family fun. Try out laser tag at Spare Time Entertainment for heart-pounding action.

DO HISTORY

The Phoenix is an apt symbol for Portland, which rose from ashes like the fabled bird to rebuild after being destroyed several times by fire, the last time in 1866. Greater Portland cherishes its older architecture and history hiding in plain sight. Museum homes exhibit centuries of living history throughout the region, while Maine Historical Society and other preservation efforts honor our legacy to ensure an authentic experience, right down to our cobblestone streets and gas lamps [p. 32-33]

DO ROMANCE

Plan a romantic getaway in February at an inn or an intimate bed and breakfast, and share in the locals' annual amazement when we awake to find our city once again bedecked in paper hearts. Portland has a secret valentine (or two, or three) that has kept the city festooned for more than four decades. Many inns offer special Valentine packages, such as wine and chocolate extras, and you're sure to have a mouth-watering dinner at one of our many awardwinning restaurants.

DO NOTHING

Sometimes the most refreshing break is one in which you strike the to-do lists and just unwind. Stretch your legs on wide expanses of empty beach while the crashing surf washes away your cares. Pamper yourself at a day spa or spa resort and have an elegant meal at an awardwinning restaurant. Curl up by a fireside and read a book while the winds howl outside. As much as there is to do in Greater Portland, we'll spoil you rotten with relaxation if that's your need. Leave the laundry at home.

ONE-STOP SHOPPING

DOWNTOWN

The Old Port's cobblestone streets are lined with one-ofa-kind boutiques featuring authentic Maine-made and imported goods. You'll find shops and galleries occupying revitalized warehouses with exposed bricks and beams; sometimes the stores themselves are as unique as the wares they display. Intriguing shops are interspersed with numerous galleries in the Arts District, running along a stretch of Congress Street, the city's main commercial thoroughfare.

SOUTH PORTLAND

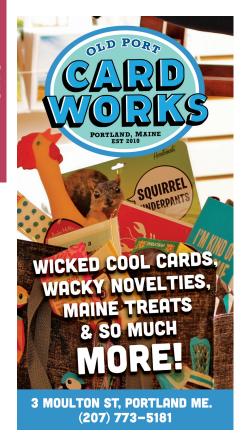

Shop all your favorite brands at the state's largest shopping center. The Maine Mall. With over 140 stores and restaurants, the mall is conveniently located near the airport and several hotels. The surrounding mall area contains many smaller shopping plazas and eateries, and all of it is just 10 minutes from downtown. Across the Casco Bay Bridge from Portland, the small Knightville neighborhood bustles with shops and restaurants, and briny breezes waft over the village.

SCARBOROUGH

Drive down Route 1, south of Portland, for an eclectic mix of shops from crafts to antiques. Don't miss Len Libby Chocolatier where Lenny, the world's only life-size chocolate moose, lives in his natural habitat. While Lenny may not satisfy your craving to see a real moose, the store will certainly indulge your sweet tooth. Route 1 is also your course for Scarborough Marsh Nature Center and Pine Point Beach: stop at Lois' Natural Marketplace to pick up picnic provisions.

FREEPORT

Driving into downtown Freeport, it's impossible not to notice the vast and bustling strip of restaurants and stores, many of which occupy historic buildings. National companies like Tommy Hilfiger and Cole Haan offer great fashion at factory prices alongside a mix of locally-owned boutiques. Whether you are searching for dress shoes or a sundress, you'll likely find a bargain. L.L. Bean's flagship store put Freeport on the map, and it's still the go-to place for outdoor gear.

GET TO KNOW GREATER PORTLAND

Portland is the name you're familiar with, but the 15-mile radius surrounding Maine's largest metro area provides access to the tranquil natural beauty the state is renowned for—as well as great dining, shopping, and outdoor recreation. Our diverse communities, described on the next pages, each accent and complement Portland. So get out and about, and welcome to the neighborhood.

PORTLAND

Portland is a city that works hard and plays even harder, all in a relaxed setting. Though smaller than some of its east coast rivals, this gem of a city has a world-class dining scene, a truly magnificent art museum, and plenty of places to play outdoors. Its small scale, accessible waterfront, fine architecture, and creative vibe have propelled Portland to the top of many national lists of best places to vacation and live.

CASCO BAY + CALENDER ISLANDS

Named because there was once reputed to be 365 of them scattered along the southern Maine coast, the nearby Calendar Islands offer beaches, scenic vistas, and a markedly slower pace of life. Bicycling is a popular way to explore these communities which can be reached by ferry or sea taxi. Enjoy a special dining experience surrounded by the waters of the Atlantic, as the sun sets over Portland.

FREEPORT

Although famous for its world-class shopping, Freeport is also a pictureperfect destination for outdoor adventure. Get a taste of everything from fly-fishing to snowshoeing at L.L.Bean Outdoor Discovery Schools (neither advance registration nor equipment needed!) or head to Wolfe's Neck Woods State Park for woodland hiking trails along Casco Bay. Dine in style and stay at a variety of inns to land even more bargains the next day.

POWNAL

Just inland from Freeport with its many attractions is the small rural town of Pownal, whose town center, Mallett Hall, is listed on the National Historic Register. Pownal is home to glacier sculpted Bradbury Mountain State Park where families, horseback riders, mountain bikers, snowmobilers, and snowshoers enjoy exploring trails, taking in the vista from the summit, or picnicking under lush foliage.

NO. YARMOUTH

A beautiful rural town with spacious open lands and historical character, distinguished by its Christmas tree farms, orchards, greenhouses, and organic farms. Alpacas, sheep, cows, and horses all call North Yarmouth farms home, and residents say life travels at an enjoyably slow pace here. Summertime concerts on the Village Green and Fun Day each fall bring townsfolk together.

CUMBERLAND

Known for top-tier recreation facilities, including the Val Halla Golf and Recreation Center. in addition to miles of trails. The Cumberland Fair features agricultural competitions as well as horticultural exhibits, harness racing, and plenty of food the last week in September. A charming one-room schoolhouse dating from 1853 serves as a meeting place and museum.

YARMOUTH

A traditional New England main street with a beautiful parkway along the picturesque Royal River, a sheltered harbor, and a commercial base on Rt 1—Yarmouth epitomizes the best in Maine communities. In mid-July, the annual Clam Festival is a family-friendly event featuring carnival rides as well as of local food, music, and crafts, and amusement rides.

GORHAM

Home to the University of Southern Maine, this college town welcomes visitors to enjoy their art gallery, attend live musical and theatre shows, cheer on NCAA Division III teams, or just stroll around campus. South Street Historic District boasts a wide collection of restaurants, shops, and historic homes.

FALMOUTH

The first stop north of Portland on Rt 1 is a co-mingling of rural and coastal living. Walk or ski around Mackworth Island with views across the bay to the city. Then head to Maine Audubon's Gilsland Farm for more communion with nature. For a truly scenic drive, turn onto Rt 88, stopping at Town Landing Market to see one of the oldest Coca-Cola signs in America.

WESTBROOK

Combining culture, business, and outdoor fun, this upcoming creative community has a performing arts center, riverfront park, and thriving Main Street. Enjoy summer music concerts and familycentered winter festivals. You can rent kayaks or stand-up paddleboards to explore a beautiful stretch of the Presumpscot River that flows through town.

SO. PORTLAND

One side of town, a transportation and shopping hub vibrates with energy, while on the other side, lighthouses and beaches offer peaceful relaxation. The threemile paved Greenbelt Trail provides walkers and cyclists views of the bustling harbor. At Bug Light Park, learn about the WWII Liberty Ships that were built there, and visit Fort Preble on the campus of at Southern Maine Community College.

CAPE ELIZABETH

Extending 12 miles into open ocean, rimmed by craggy shores and sandy beaches, Cape Elizabeth, a town filled with rich history and striking scenery, marks the entrance to spectacular Casco Bay. Visit Fort Williams, with its beautiful, historic ruins, and one of the bestknown lighthouses in the country-Portland Head Light. Pick strawberries and spend the rest of the day chasing waves at Crescent Beach State Park.

SCARBOROUGH

See the lovely rocky coastline made famous by local artist, Winslow Homer, whose studio has been restored and is available to see via scheduled tours. Scarborough and Pine Point Beaches are covered in soft, comfortable sand, unlike much of Maine's coastline. Explore Maine's largest salt marsh by canoe. Golfing, shopping, harness racing, and camping are all available in Scarborough.

LIVE IN VACATIONLAND

Greater Portland's safe environment, beautiful landscapes, and vibrant arts and food culture combine to create a treasured quality of life—Maine, it will surprise you

You may think Maine is just a vacation spot, but it's not. Greater Portland has been attracting young entrepreneurs who find the progressive region large enough to be interesting, yet small enough to develop a supportive community. Relaxed enough that you can follow your interests, while also developing your career. On Live + Work in Maine's website (liveandworkinmaine.com) you'll meet real people who fell in love with Maine, moved here, and have great jobs. They love the quirky mix of outdoor adventure and city culture. They value the live/work balance they've achieved here. Take the time to listen to their stories and perhaps you'll discover that a move to Maine makes sense to you too. Another invaluable source of information for those considering a lifestyle change is CreativePortland, where you can connect with some of the creative, energetic people who are planting roots in our region.

If you're here for a visit only, the service listings on pages 62-63 may still include something you'll need during your vacation.

DEALS

Before you book your stay, browse through the special packages and overnight rate deals listed on visitportland.com; each deal lets you know how to book to get the savings.

SWEET DREAMS

You'll play all day but when it's time to sleep, you want to feel at home. Whatever your preference or budget, you'll find respite away from home in Maine.

Just as varied as Greater Portland's landscapes are your choices of where to spend the night. From coastal chic to urban elegance, our hotels, inns, and rentals run the gambit. Have your heart set on an oceanside resort with world-class amenities? Check. A rustic lakeside cabin? Naturally. In-town digs with in-room fireplace? Got it. How about a cozy bed and breakfast with knowledgeable hosts to steer you? Done. Wherever you choose to lay your head, you'll experience traditional New England hospitality—we're glad you're here and we're going to show it.

BOOK AHEAD

To ensure your comfortable stay, we suggest making reservations before you arrive in Maine! Room availability can be limited, especially during the peak summer and fall seasons.

ON THE HUNT

The accommodation grids on the following pages will help you narrow down your search; among other things you'll find room rates, property and room amenities, and where there is water access or views.

PET FRIENDLY

Many of our hotels will welcome your fourlegged friends; look for the dot under the "Pets Welcome" column—see grids on the following pages to find out where to stay with your pets.

MEMORABLE STAYS ON ANY BUDGET

The Inn at St John is the bargain stay closest to downtown—in under a mile, you can easily walk to numerous restaurants, galleries, and shops.

Camping is always a popular choice for keeping costs down, but those seeking a roof not made of stars will find a selection of affordable motels just outside of the downtown action. Some provide on-site cottages or kitchenettes and grills, allowing you to cook many of your own meals. And staff are helpful when it comes to suggesting affordable options for local dining.

An easy way to nab a bargain is to visit in the quiet season when prices are up to half of what you'll find during the summer and early fall. Also look for mid-week specials and packages for couples, groups, families or singles; packages may include breakfast or dinner, holiday shopping, or local activity discounts.

visitportland.com/where-to-stay/deals-packages

On our website you'll find a list of budget-friendly accommodations that offer room rates under $150 during peak season, everything from Bed & Breakfasts, to cottages, to hotels and motels. And with everything so close to town, staying off the Portland peninsula isn't a hardship at all—you'll find the same superior hospitality that Greater Portland has become known for.

MAINE BEACHES

Breathtaking coastal scenery and long stretches of sandy beach are studded with charming arts towns and seaside communities Old Orchard Beach is fun for the whole family, with a boardwalk and amusement park. Take in a Broadway musical at the Ogunquit Playhouse, explore history at the Brick Store Museum in Kennebunk, and hop a ride on the Seashore Trolley. Kittery's outlets are the gateway to great shopping in antiques shops and local boutiques south of Portland.

MAINE LAKES + MOUNTAINS

From the colorful wild flowers of spring to the stunning white snowscapes of winter, western Maine is truly a yearround destination. Enjoy some of the best skiing in the East, or canoe, kayak and chill out in crystalclear glacial lakes. For history, visit Poland Spring Preservation Park and Sabbathday Lake Shaker Village. Wind through brilliant fall foliage to try your luck at Oxford Casino or go see a moose up close at the Maine Wildlife Park.

MID-COAST

Featuring some of the most picturesque harbors in Maine, the Mid-Coast's culture and heritage is strongly linked to its maritime history, brought to life at Maine Maritime Museum in Bath. The meandering paths of Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens burst with blooms as the walls of Farnsworth Art Museum and Wyeth Center explode with art. Kids will love the transport ation museums in Alna. Boothbay, and Owls Head. In summer, take in a Broadway-quality show at Maine State Music Theatre.

HIGHLANDS

At the center of Maine is the heart of adventure. Climb Maine's highest peak, Katahdin, in majestic Baxter State Park, the northernmost point of the Appalachian Trail. Fish in 40-mile long Moosehead Lake, renowned for its landlocked salmon, brook trout, and toque. Hiking, snowmobiling, and wildlife watching are some of the most avidly pursued activities in the Highlands. Bangor, the area's commercial and cultural center, hosts worldclass concerts and events on its riverfront, and is home to author Stephen King.

DOWN EAST + ACADIA

With its dramatic cliffs plunging down to the churning Atlantic, Acadia is one of the top 10 most visited national parks. Take in the stunning views from atop Cadillac Mountain, and explore hiking and carriage trails perfect for mountain biking. Nearby Bar Harbor spouts quaint shops and eateries. Downeast's autumn is marked by acres of wild blueberry barrens glowing flame red. Be the first to see the sunrise in the US at West Quoddy Light in Lubec.

KENNEBEC VALLEY

Fly fishing flourishes in summer, scenic travel shines in fall, and winter is a wonderland of snow sports and ice fishing. Combine a visit to the Maine State Museum with an afternoon trolling antiques stores and artisan shops. The Colby College Museum of Art and Waterville Opera House are cultural gems. Thrill on a guided whitewater rafting trip or pursue Maine's iconic mammal on a moosewatching trip. Hike a mile to see Moxie Falls, the highest waterfall in Maine.

AROOSTOOK COUNTY

The Crown of Maine provides an unparalleled back woods experience. ATV and snowmobile riders love "The County's" thousands of miles of wilderness trails. Notable paddles include the Allagash Wilderness Waterway and the easternmost section of the impressive Northern Forest Canoe Trail. At the southeastern end of Aroostook County is the Grand Lake chain of lakes, and further north visitors will encounter world class hunting, fishing, and boating on the St. John River.

Distances from Portland to major towns in Maine are listed on the State map on page 87.

PLANES, TRAINS, NO AUTOMOBILES

It's easy to navigate Portland and the surrounding vicinity without a car, so try leaving yours behind.

Many hotels include a complimentary shuttle from the airport, and some even bring their guests into town and pick them up after a night out—be sure to ask.

You'll save hours of driving time from Nova Scotia by taking the CAT high-speed ferry for just $5\,1/2$ hours.

Train riders coming from New York or Connecticut make a simple connection from Boston's South Station to catch the Amtrak Downeaster from North Station.

The accessible Metro bus offers a robust schedule including the airport, the Maine Mall, and connections to other municipal bus systems at Metro's Elm Street hub.

Concord Coach buses you to Maine from Boston's North Station or Logan Airport, and twice daily from NYC.

Metro's Breeze offers express bus service between the Portland Transportation Center, downtown, and the towns of Falmouth, Yarmouth, and Freeport to the north.

Hop a Casco Bay Lines ferry or Sea Taxi to explore the nearby populated islands. Your bikes can come too!

Portland Trails maintains a 70-mile network of bicycle and pedestrian routes throughout the region. Maps and extensive trail info at trails.org.

Bicycle rentals are available on Portland's waterfront between the Casco Bay Ferry terminal and Ocean Gateway Information Center. Gorham Bike & Ski will deliver bikes to the train/bus station, hotels, or location of your choice. You can arrive with bicycles via train or bus, and bring them on the local Metro bus once here.

Get an overview of the area on a trolley, fire engine, or duck boat tour. Or step aboard one of the cruise boats lining the waterfront for a breezy look at Casco Bay.

And when you just can't get to a certain landmark or attraction without a car, take a private customized tour with Maine Day Trip and leave the driving to them.

Once here, you will find the region easy to navigate with very little traffic.
