At only 45 years old, the United Arab Emirates, is a young and vibrant country. In the last 15 years, UAE has become world famous with its avantgarde architecture – Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, Burj Khalifa, Palm Jumeirah and Dubai Water Canal to name a few. Getting around Dubai has become very easy with the Dubai Metro, Dubai Tram and Dubai Ferry across Dubai Creek and Dubai Water Canal to Palm Jumeirah and Dubai Marina. A holiday in Dubai can easily be combined with a few nights in Ras Al Khaimah or Fujairah. Both emirates are about an hour's drive from Dubai and offer excellent beaches and desert experiences in serene surroundings. Abu Dhabi, built on a series of islands, is home to Ferrari World Abu Dhabi and Yas Waterworld Abu Dhabi on Yas Island.

Gold Souk

Dubai Opera

Deira

Wander one of the city's oldest districts, dating to around 1841. Once just a sleepy waterside village, Deira soon took over the original settlement of Bur Dubai in scale and is still a cornucopia of ethnicities mixed with tourists. Check out the souks, where gold is among the cheapest in the world. You can cross the Dubai Creek between Deira and Bur Dubai in an 'abra' (water taxi) for just AED2.

Bur Dubai

Sitting on the south side of Dubai Creek, the oldest part of the city dates to the 1900s, with sandy coloured buildings, museums and minarets. Here you'll see Al Fahidi Historical Neighbourhood with its charming car-free, narrow streets and houses topped with wind towers, or barajeel. You can find out more about Dubai's history with a look inside the Dubai Museum or browse the rainbow of fabrics, clothes and slippers in the Textile Souk.

Sheikh Zayed Road

Named after the much-revered first president of UAE, this is where life has spread out to from the Creek, and has been the epicentre of development, amassing a collection of skyscrapers each more audacious than the next, such as Jumeirah Emirates Towers. Technically, it's just part of the highway running across the whole of UAE, but it's also where you'll find most of the city's hotels, restaurants and shops.

The Palm Jumeirah

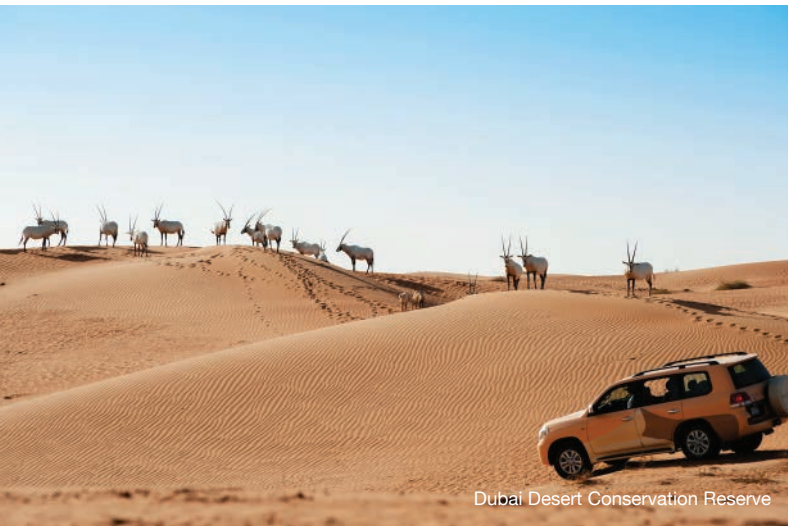

This ambitious artificial archipelago, created using land reclamation, was one of many projects that put Dubai on the map, with its crescent-like 'fronds' extending out from a 'trunk' that runs the length of the central section – all the way from the mainland up to Atlantis, The Palm. The 5.4-km Palm Jumeirah Monorail also runs from the Gateway Towers at the base to Atlantis. The Palm is home to many thousands of private homes, and numerous hotels by some of the world's leading brands, such as Fairmont, Sofitel, Jumeirah, One&Only, Waldorf Astoria and Anantara.

Downtown Dubai

The anchor of this district is Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building, opened in 2010, boasting a staggering 828 metres to its name. Inside the Burj is the first-ever Armani hotel, while other attention-grabbing attractions of this area are The Dubai Mall and Dubai Fountain. While Dubai Opera, the iconic Dhow-shaped building is the centre for culture and performing arts in Dubai and is the recent addition to Downtown Dubai.

Business Bay

Similar in nature to Manhattan, New York, Business Bay is set within a network of roads and pathways and offers spectacular views of Burj Khalifa and the new Dubai Water Canal. Bay Avenue Mall within Business Bay offers an outdoor promenade with a variety of al fresco dining options, from where some of the best views of Burj Khalifa can be enjoyed. Looking ahead Business Bay will comprise of separate areas called The Marina, The Park and The Pier, all of which will include an events arena, floating restaurants, five palm-tree-lined marinas and UAE's first 'water homes'.

Al Barsha/Mall of the Emirates

Al Barsha, the residential area surrounding the mall, offers affordable accommodation and local dining options close to many of Dubai's key attractions.

Dubai Marina

Sophisticated, skyscraping, and buzzing – Dubai Marina is designed to evoke Riviera-style living in a contemporary setting. This attractive and central place to play and stay in Dubai is a waterfront development built around a 3.5 kilometres canal. Along its banks are Dubai Marina Mall (with around 140 stores); The Address Dubai Marina hotel; Pier 7 Dubai Marina – which boasts seven restaurants, each on its own floor and with a unique atmosphere; and many amazing yachts.

Jumeirah Beach

One of the original homes of tourism here in the emirate, Dubai's main beach area is lined with excellent hotels, such as the iconic wave-like Jumeirah Beach Hotel. Also here is Kite Beach, a great public beach that hosts many events and is popular with residents.

Jumeirah Beach Residence

This area combines casual outdoor living with top-notch shops, restaurants and the beach. The Walk at JBR, has a 1.7km stretch of shops and restaurants and more recently has also been joined by THE BEACH, with even more options formed around a pedestrian esplanade.

Desert

No trip to Dubai would be complete without a desert safari. Hop into a 4x4 and leave the city behind as you head into the wilds of the desert – go dune 'bashing' or camel-riding before sunset, then enjoy remote Bedouin-style camps with fireside tales and delicious dinners.

5. Changes or cancellations

5.1 By You

Changes

5.1.1 If, after your contract with us has come into existence, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, we will endeavour to accommodate these changes but it may not always be possible to do so. All amendments are subject to availability.

5.1.2 Any request for changes to be made must be made in writing from the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent. You will be asked to pay an administration fee of approximately USD25 per booking. You will also be required to pay any increase to the cost of your holiday as a result of your amendment.

5.1.3 Any change to a confirmed booking requested less than 14 days before departure will be treated as a cancellation of your original booking and cancellation charges as detailed in clause 5.1.9 below will apply.

5.1.4 Certain travel arrangements may not be amended after they have been confirmed and any alteration could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements.

Cancellation

5.1.5 You, or any of your party, may cancel your travel arrangements at any time. Written notification from the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent must be received at our offices. Cancellation will take effect on the date we receive such written notice.

5.1.6 Since we incur administration costs in cancelling your travel arrangements you will be required to pay the applicable cancellation charge up to the maximum shown in the table in clause 5.1.9 below.

5.1.7 Certain travel arrangements may not be cancelled after they have been confirmed and any cancellation could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements.

5.1.8 If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges from your insurer.

5.1.9 The following cancellation charges apply for cancellation of services. The processing fees set out below are IN ADDITION to any supplier imposed cancellation, or amendment charges:

5.1.10 Separate cancellation charges may be applicable for certain arrangements (e.g. train journeys, cruises, safaris) and during peak periods (e.g. public holidays, exhibitions and special events, Eid holidays, Christmas and New Year). You will be advised of these at the time of reservation.

5.1.11 Charges for amendments or cancellations are calculated from the date we receive your request or notification.

5.2 By Us

Changes or cancellation

5.2.1 It is unlikely that we will need to make any alteration to your travel arrangements but sometimes circumstances change and alterations have to be made. We reserve the right to change your booking at any time. We also reserve the right to cancel bookings at any time.

5.2.2 If we make a major change we will advise the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent as soon as reasonably possible. A major change is one that we make to your booking before your departure that affects an essential term of your contract. Examples of a major change include (but are not limited to) changes by us to:

- (a) your departure airport,
- (b) your destination area for the whole or major part of your holiday,
- (c) a change of accommodation to that of a lower official classification for the whole or a major part of your holiday, or
- (d) a change of outward departure date (but not a change to flight times or flight or flight routes) or overall length of your holiday of twelve or more hours.

5.2.3 If we make a major change we will offer you the choice of the following options:

- (a) accepting the changed arrangements; or
- (b) accepting substitute arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value); or
- (c) cancelling your booking and receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us for the booking.

5.2.4 You must tell us which one of the above choices you wish to make within 7 days of being informed of the major change we are making, or as soon as reasonably practicable if your departure is less than 7 days from the date you receive notification. If we do not receive notification from you about your choice you are deemed to have accepted the option specified in 5.2.3(a).

5.2.5 We shall not be liable for any changes to or cancellation of a holiday due to events beyond our control. Examples of events beyond our control include, but are not limited to war or threat of war, riot or civil disturbance, political unrest, terrorist activity or threatened terrorist activity, industrial disputes or threatened industrial disputes, strikes, fire, floods and other natural disasters, nuclear disasters, adverse weather conditions, acts of God, acts of government, closure of airports, failure of a carrier, a hotelier or other person to operate services for any reason.

5.2.6 We may cancel a booking at any time when necessary because of events beyond our control, or an over booking which arises from the default or omission on the part of any person such as a carrier or a hotelier providing any services comprised in the booking. We will inform you of any such event as soon as practicable, and at its discretion refund monies paid or, where practicable, offer you a comparative alternative holiday for any booking, so cancelled. We will be under no further liability to you whatsoever in such circumstances.

6. Our liability to you

6.1 Our obligation is to take reasonable skill and care in the performance of our contractual obligations, subject to and in accordance with these Booking Conditions

6.2 The Company is not itself a provider of accommodation, ground services, tours or other activities nor does it control the third parties who provide such services in connection with your holiday.

6.3 We do not accept liability for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description whatsoever which results from (i) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party; or (ii) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or (iii) events beyond our control (as defined in clause 5.2.5).

6.4 Except in the cases of death or injury, our liability is limited to a maximum of the booking price attributable to the person affected. This maximum applies where you prove that no benefit or enjoyment has been obtained. In all other circumstances, we agree to pay compensation that is reasonable and proportionate for the reduction in value of your booking and any loss of enjoyment you prove subject to the above maximum.

6.5 Where properties are not featured in our brochures or other literature or on our website, we will not be liable for any claims that such properties booked at your express request do not satisfy your expectations.

6.6 The terms, conditions and provisions in (or referred to in) the Company's ticket shall apply in respects to the carriage by air of a Client by the Company.

6.7 Your booking may be serviced by carriers, providers of accommodation, car rental companies, catering and other parties who have their own booking conditions of carriage and business and over whom we may have no direct control. Their booking conditions may strictly limit the circumstances in which compensation is payable to you by them and you agree to be bound by their booking conditions. Such booking conditions are available from us upon request.

6.8 Air, sea, rail and road transport and hotel accommodation is subject to various International Conventions that limit the liability of the carriers or providers. International Conventions which may apply include, without limitation: in respect of international air travel, the Warsaw Convention 1929 (as amended) or the Montreal Convention 1999; in respect of rail travel, the Berne Convention 1961; in respect of carriage by sea, the Athens Convention 1974; in respect of carriage by road, the Geneva Convention 1973; and in respect of hotels, the Paris Convention 1962. The carriage by air of passengers and their baggage is in addition subject to the Conditions of Carriage of the carrier concerned.

With respect to Emirates flights, please refer to the Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage, available on www.emirates.com. Where any claim or part of any claim (including for death or personal injury) concerns or is based on any of such travel arrangements (including the process of getting on and/or off the transport concerned where applicable) provided by any air, rail or road carrier, or by any hotel-keeper, the maximum amount of compensation to which you may be entitled may be limited.

6.9 We will not accept responsibility for services or facilities which do not form part of our contract with you, such as any excursion you book whilst you are away, or any service or facility which your hotel or other supplier agrees to provide to you. Such arrangements do not form part of your pre-booked holiday arrangements with us. We have no involvement in such activities or excursions and they are not run, supervised or controlled in any way by us. They are provided by local operators and other providers who are completely independent from us and in relation to whom we have no liability.

6.10 Save as set out above, and as is detailed elsewhere in these booking conditions, we shall have no legal liability whatsoever to you for any loss or damage.

7. Your responsibilities

7.1 You must ensure that you and all members of your party have valid passports, visas, certificates of vaccination and any other documents required to enter any country you are visiting, including transit stops, prior to your departure. We cannot accept responsibility for any failure to comply with passport or visa requirements resulting in any costs or fines being incurred and we advise you to check with the appropriate passport office(s) or consulate(s) in question if you have any queries.

7.2 For your own protection, we strongly recommend that you and all members of your party have comprehensive travel and medical insurance for the full period of your holiday. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs.

7.3 If, in our reasonable opinion or the reasonable opinion of the provider of any part of the services to which your booking relates, your behaviour or the behaviour of any member of your party is disruptive, threatening or abusive, causes unnecessary inconvenience or is causing or likely to cause danger, damage, distress or upset, disturbance or annoyance to others or others' property, we may terminate your travel arrangements without any liability on our part. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.

7.4 It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fit to travel and participate in all parts of the services you have booked and undertaken.

8. Complaints

8.1 We are committed to offering our valued customers the highest standard of product and consistent service delivery. Should you have a complaint, kindly inform the local Emirates Holidays representative or the accommodation management immediately. If the problem is not resolved to your satisfaction any further complaint should be made to us, no later than 30 days after your return from holiday, in writing: Customer Relations, Emirates Holidays, P. 8.2 If you fail to follow this procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint during your holiday and this may affect your rights under this contract.

9.1 We value your feedback. If you would like to share feedback with us about your holiday experience, you can do so by post or email. Please provide as much information as possible, including your Emirates Holidays booking reference and holiday dates where applicable.
