Where will we take you?

Take me there by ROCS Travel

We do Travel with Passion

Travelling with ROCS is a great opportunity not just to see the world but to see a world of possibilities. We take care of all of the little details, so you can take it all in, find your own path and share our sense of discovery.

From quick breaks to epic journeys, our trips cover the world from all angles. It's about making every moment count. At ROCS, that's what we do best.

Amazing Places to Stay

Hand-picked Hotels

Whichever way you choose to travel, we'll hook you up with some special places to stay. From an Ocean Oasis Bungalow at the W Retreat and Spa in the Maldives to a Roman Villa in Italy or a night on a traditional Junk boat in Vietnam, you can travel your own way. You can even plan your trip around festivals and events, such as New Year's Eve in Disneyland or the Shopping Festival in Dubai.

Unrivalled Value

You can't do all that we do for less.

Compare ROCS to travelling on your own and you'll be surprised. Booking independently, hence online isn't all it's cut out to be. Hidden costs and taxes, dodgy accommodation, over-inflated peak season prices, taxis and locally guided tours can all end up costing way more than you think. What's more, you have to sort it all yourself. We've done the math and compared a typical ROCS Holiday to a day doing the same on your own. You can't get close to the same quality of accommodation, amazing food experiences and exclusive inclusions for the same price. What's best, our qualified ROCS team are here to share their exclusive knowledge, to make your trip hassle-free and show you a jaw-droppingly, eye poppingly good time. It's all part of the ROCS Service.

Only ROCS Gives You More

See more. Do more. Get more.

We've compared typical third party packages to those that ROCS offer.

When you travel with ROCS you see more, get more and save more too. They can't do all that we do for as little as we do it – see for yourself why ROCS is the best bang for your buck. The same applies to our ROCS Travel Tours – more must-see sights, more activities and more amazing places to stay. Our tour days are full with outstanding properties in the heart of the cities. But don't just take our word for it, ask fellow travellers to tell you in their own opinion what makes ROCS different.

4 DAY NORTHERN SICILY SPLENDORS | 26 - 29 DEC

VISITING

Palermo, Monreale, National Park Madonie Mountains, Gibilmanna, Gratteri, Castelbuono, Mondello, Cefalu, Forum Shopping Mall

Day 1 Malta - Palermo - Monreale

Meet the tour manager at Malta International for your flight to Palermo. Upon arrival we will start our tour by driving to Monreale where one can see the magnificent Norman Duomo with the imposing "Cristo Pantocratore". This church is covered with mosaics with scenes from the Old Testament. Drive to Palermo for a visit to the Palazzo dei Normanni (entrance fee not included). From here one can follow on foot Via Vittorio Emanuele towards Via Maqueda. Visit the Cathedral which dates back to 1184, I Quattro Canti, The church of St Joseph dei Teatini and Piazza Pretoria. Further down on Via Vittorio Emanuele one can stroll along 'Via Roma' which is famous for its shops, Teatro Massimo and the Politeama Garibaldi theatre. Transfer to your 4* Mercure hotel for check in.

Day 2 National Park Madonie Mountains - Gibilmanna - Gratteri - Castelbuono

Breakfast and the tour today will lead you to the National Park of the Madonie Mountains. First stop will be at Gibilmanna, which means 'gibil' a mountain of manna. The name Manna comes from a sweetish substance that is collected from local Mountain Ash trees in late summer. Here we visit the Sanctuary and the Baroque Chapel of the Virgin Mary. Later drive to Gratteri which is a typical laid back Sicilian village. It is surrounded by beautiful pine, oaks woods and sites such as Pizzo Dipilo. The city boasts areas of historical importance to Sicily. Although probably founded by the Romans, as a coin discovered at the area seems to confirm, the town design betrays clear Arab-Medieval features. Here we stop for a Sicilian typical lunch (not included). Proceed to Castelbuono, famous for the old Castel built by the Ventimiglia family, and the famous chapel of St Anna inside. St Anna is patron saint of Castelbuono (entrance fee to the Castel not included). Later walk in the picturesque streets and taste of some typical pastries and manna.

Day 3 Mondello - Cefalu - Forum Shopping Mall

Breakfast and drive to Mondello. The road which curves behind the beach makes a pleasant stroll. Up at the far end of the bay, the 'centre' of the town, a waterfront piazza rather blighted by advertising boards for eateries, is useful for eating and shopping.

The most historic sight is the old stone watchtower which predates the beach resort. It's worth wandering up as far as the harbour, though, where small fishing boats bob up and down and old men fish from the jetty. The symbol of Mondello is the striking Art Nouveau building on a pier in the middle of the bay, the Charlestown. Dating back to the more elegant heyday of the resort, this has been restored and sits in yellow glory over the blue waters of the bay. Proceed to Cefalu which is notable for beautiful sunsets, unpretentious charm, and a very appealing blend of ingredients for an Italian seaside holiday. Sandy beaches, a picturesque historic town on a rocky headland, some high culture in the shape of a fine Norman Cathedral, decent transport links, Sicilian food add up to make the town one of Italy's most attractive seaside destinations. Unlike the modern beach resorts and developed fishing villages which dot Italy's coast, Cefalu has some grandeur in its past, it was important enough that one of Sicily's Norman rulers, Roger II, would build a glorious cathedral here. While its later history was less distinguished, there are some substantial and elegant buildings in the town, as well as reminders of Sicily's varied influences, not just Norman and Byzantine, but also Arab, Spanish and finally Italian. Drive to Forum Shopping Mall. A stunning state-of-the-art architecture, iconic design and over 120 shops Forum Palermo offers a truly unique shopping experience.

Add 2400 parking spaces, kids play centre and there's even a cinema to complete your perfect day out. Clothes, accessories, shoes, sports wear, underwear, electronic products, but also treatments such as nails, make-up, facials and solarium can be all found under one roof.

Wherever you are in Forum Palermo, you are never too far from somewhere to sit, drink or eat. There is a good range of cafes (sip your espresso at Segafredo or Lavazza), bars, pizzerias, fast food places (try Old Wild West) and restaurants (Rossopomodoro and Rossosapore serve up authentic Neapolitan cuisine) giving you plenty of options when you are looking to drop your bags and take a load off.

Day 4 Palermo - Malta

Breakfast and day at leisure for personal sightseeing and shopping. Transfer to Airport for your flight to Malta.
