

ROCS

world holidays 2016

Welcome

Dear client,

When my family and I decided to launch ROCS Travel in the summer of '97, I was young, threadbare, and desperate to explore the world.

Seventy of you bravely decided to travel with us following my participation on the Saturday afternoon travel slot on TV. It was the time when we launched our first Tour to The West Coast of America. A 21 day exceptional journey that saw us through the fabulous Californian Coast embracing the American dream and assimilating the ever so popular Tom Cruise and his claim to fame - Top Gun.

Almost twenty years on and you've continued to choose ROCS Travel ever since. You have followed us during our Tista' Tkun Int's days, whilst you gave us the opportunity to showcase the world most attractive destinations, and then joined us on tour to these far flung destinations around the globe. Never before where fabulous countries to the likes of South Africa or the Indian Ocean ever promoted in Malta and it was ROCS Travel who gave you the opportunity to venture out of borders of the European Continent.

You boldly packed your bags and joined us to wherever we were going so as to discover some of the planet's most amazing destinations such as the outstanding Australasian Continent, The Philippines, India, China, Sri Lanka and Vietnam to name a few.

Today thanks to you, we lead the way in most of the travel destinations we promote. Many of you trust ROCS Travel blindly due to our brand reputation. Such trust is also corroborated by declared factual figures which tally to over 80% market share on each destination we opt to promote. You have even managed to help us win The Emirates Airline Top Passenger Sales Agent Award for 18 consecutive years too. Hard to believe yet 20 years have passed and we have to simply thank you for keeping ROCS Travel in your lives and rate it as your number one favourite travel company in Malta when thinking of your ultimate holiday destinations.

You boldly packed your bags and joined us to wherever we were going so as to discover some of the planet's most amazing destinations

For 2016 we assure you that we will give you more of what has been making you return to us. Launching a range of 10 new brochures including a new outstanding collection of The Best of The Med Islands which ROCS Travel will offer exclusively in the Maltese Islands in Summer '16. To add to this our flagship long haul Signature Journeys for those who yearn to travel with ROCS year on year.

Whilst I truly thank you for your custom throughout the past years, I invite you to join us once again this year. I assure you that it will be simply a pleasure to have you join with us once again this year.

Happy travels,

Rachel Vella

ROCS TRAVEL

VEL?

Travel is in our DNA. We live it, breathe it, love it, and we want you to feel the same way. Ever since our chairman, Charles Vella set up the company in 1972, our mission has been to create holidays and travel experiences that deliver more than what has been asked for. We believe it is our people, now available in 3 locations in Malta, who help us achieve this. People who keep their ears to ground, who anticipate what you are looking for before you are aware of it yourself and who have the contacts to make things happen.

With so many options available, it can be difficult to know where to start. That's where we come in. Whether you know exactly what you want, but not how to get it, or whether you are looking for inspiration and ideas, our team are here to help guide you through the process of finding the perfect holiday. We welcome the opportunity to show you what we can do.

EXPERIENCE THE ULTIMATE HOLIDAYS WITH ROCS TRAVEL

Travel in a style that suits you...
At one end of the travel spectrum is the lure of an adventure or exploring a different culture, new experiences, learning and enlightenment. At the other it's all about chilling your boots and recharging the batteries, bathed in sunshine, cocktail in hand. And of course there's a whole host of variations and combinations in between. We offer three ways to travel that cover most options. You'll see that the holidays listed throughout this brochure broadly fall into these three categories but rest assured, we can tailor-make any trip to your individual requirements.

These categories are Tailor-made, set departure and Group Tours, the options are set out here for you to explore and throughout the brochure you'll see how each holiday is classified.

CHOOSE ACCOMMODATION TO SUIT YOUR STYLE... AND BUDGET

We also recognise that everyone's definition of luxury is different. For some, it is five star international hotels, fine dining and air-con all the way. For others luxury is the privilege of discovery, solitude or insight often accessed in more remote areas where the accommodation is more rustic. At ROCS Travel our definition of luxury is simply getting exactly what you are looking for.

SAVE
Great value accommodation that nonetheless delivers something a bit special -typically independent boutique hotels which ooze style, character and a contemporary ambience. While they may not offer 24 hour room service and a superfast business centre, who cares? You're on holiday!

SPEND
This is what we'd describe as 'traditional luxury', accommodation with an international flavour where you can expect most of the 5-star whistles and bells such as sumptuous accommodation, fine dining, round-the-clock concierge service, spa and swimming pools.

SPLURGE
The hotels which fall into this category take luxury to an unbelievable level; while we don't pretend these are the common-or-garden option, there are times when it seems appropriate to splash out on an experience so sublime, you'll dine out on it for years and your friends will be green with envy.

Whether you are looking for a unique tailor-made trip, a relaxing beach holiday, a small group journey with like-minded travellers, or a private villa or chalet to rent, or even buy, we'll look after you every step of the way.

an interview with RACHEL VELLA
Director, ROCS Travel

Rachel ROCS Travel has been Malta's Top Passenger Sales Agency to Dubai and of Emirates Airline for the past 17 years now. You have also just returned from Dubai and visit Dubai very frequently. What makes you promote this destination with so much conviction?

Well as you correctly said I really travel to Dubai a lot and can honestly say that I loved this city from the very first day I visited. 18 years later I must admit that every time I visit this city never ceases to amaze me. It is simply fantastic. Dubai is one of few cities that can guarantee it all – great weather, outstanding hotels, unique family fun attractions, kilometers of amazing white beaches, world-class shopping and superb cuisine. This glamorous hot spot is ever growing and can be reached in just 5 flying hours from Malta to Dubai.

Some Maltese people may have a different perspective of Dubai and hence are not fully aware of what a great destination Dubai really is, do you agree?

Due to my job I can say that I have seen many great cities around the world, and believe me when I say that Dubai is truly mind-blowing. It is an ultra-modern city which I love, yet it offers an incredibly eclectic mix of things to do. In a single day you can experience everything from domed mosques, rugged mountains, endless deserts to sandy beaches, palatial hotels, and fabulous family attractions to superb shopping malls. Nightlife in Dubai has improved dramatically over the years too, with trendy bars, fashionable clubs and superb dine and dance restaurants open to the public in many of the hotels. One has to experience the city to appreciate how great it really is and once people visit they will keep on returning time and time again.

Why does Dubai continually attract the retail shopper to its shores? What makes it really great?

Dubai is truly a shopper's paradise. I would go as far as saying that it is the very best in the world. It offers hundreds of fascinating shopping malls within minutes from each other; world-famous brands are all here together with the ever so popular traditional souks. The Downtown Dubai Mall which has been acclaimed as the worlds' largest has just recently been declared as the

EMIRATES AWARDS ROCS TRAVEL AS MALTA'S TOP PASSENGER SALES AGENT 1998 - 2015

Emirates has once again awarded ROCS Travel as the top Passenger Sales Agent in Malta for its performance in 2014/15. ROCS Travel is one of the leading leisure travel companies in Malta. Earlier this year, the travel agency was appointed to represent Emirates Holidays in Malta with a dedicated office in St Anne Street, Floriana and also in Rotunda Square, Mosta. Emirates Senior Vice President Commercial Operations Mr Thierry Aucoc presented the award to ROCS Group Director Ms Rachel Vella in the presence of (from left) Emirates Malta Manager Mr Paul Fleri Soler and ROCS Group Chairman Mr Charles Vella. Emirates, global connector of people and places, had inaugurated destination Malta in March 1998 and currently operates daily scheduled flights between Malta and Dubai.

most visited place on earth. There is nothing quite like it actually. Just to put the readers in perspective, the Eiffel Tower is visited by 7 million tourists a year, Times Square in New York is visited by 42 million whilst the Dubai Mall has managed to surpass every other attraction in the world, with a record breaking 80 million visitors per year. This Mega Mall offers more than 1200 shops, some 300 dining outlets, unique family attractions such as one of the world largest aquariums, an Olympic-size Ice Rink, the fabulous Kidzania and Sega Republic - a huge indoor theme park to name a few. For those who then prefer to experience the outdoor attractions, Downtown Dubai offers the world's most spectacular dancing fountain together with Burj Khalifa - the tallest standing structure in the world.

Some people may be concerned about the fact that in Dubai one can only shop with perhaps nothing else to do, is this really the case?

Dubai today offers plenty of alternatives even for the most discerning travelers, from museums and art galleries, golf courses to world-class water sports, from sand-skiing to dune driving, from the world's richest horse race to a major destination for international events to name a few. The outstanding array of hotels found in Dubai is also a huge attraction. Nowhere on this planet will one find so many great hotels in one city, making it the ideal destination for those celebrating special events such as honeymoons or wedding anniversaries.

Once opting to travel to Dubai, the Maltese have the opportunity to travel on one of the largest aircrafts coming to Malta. What should one expect?

Our belief is that Emirates Airline is truly unique and really offers the ultimate in flying experiences. You will find people who speak your language, with onboard entertainment like no other. The award winning airline offers a wide bodied aircraft on a daily basis from Malta to Dubai. From June the Maltese will also have the opportunity to travel directly to Dubai on an Airbus 777. All passengers are offered generous baggage allowance of 30kgs in economy class, 40kgs in business class and 50kgs in first class. What more can one ask for!

In the past year ROCS Travel has also been appointed to represent Emirates Holidays in Malta. Another great achievement for ROCS, plus a quality brand for the Maltese public to experience.

That's right last March, ROCS Travel were appointed to represent the Emirates Airline's Tour Operating brand - Emirates Holidays in Malta. Emirates Holidays offers quality and affordable holidays to more than 148 Emirates Airline destinations worldwide.

Our Retail Outlets in Floriana and Mosta offer a truly experienced and professional travel team backed up by a call centre which supports both the retail and trade business. Our opening hours are Monday to Friday from 9am to 6pm and Saturday from 9am to 1pm.

DUBAI

Flavours

In Dubai, witness the marvel of the true Arabian Civilization

A sophisticated society that welcomes all, Dubai's rich culture has historical elements ranging from Bedouin life with its traditional arts and crafts to ancient sites and archaeological finds are a must see.

Dubai grew from the area around the Dubai Creek and became a port on the trade route between Mesopotamia and the Indus Valley. Hundreds of ancient artefacts have been found at sites around the emirate and are housed in the archaeological section of the Dubai Museum.

The roots of modern Dubai, however, can be traced back to the 1830s. Settled by the Al Maktoum dynasty, an arm of the Bani Yas tribe, the emirate grew from a small fishing village on the Shindagha peninsula to the modern metropolis it is today. But Emiratis have deep ties to the city's rich and colourful history, which is being preserved and promoted with well-deserved pride.

We invite you to behold the charms of such a city.

Cyprus
in your heart

The Island of Love & Beauty
CYPRUS

The Jewel of the Med

Lying on the fault lines of east and west, the picturesque landscape of Cyprus will capture your heart in more ways than one. Said to be the 'Island of Love', this destination holds a rich history that adds to the character of this popular wedding and honeymoon destination.

With warm sun, sparkling sea, welcoming people and wonderful scenery, Cyprus offers visitors a superb holiday destination packed with unforgettable experiences, extraordinary sights and exquisite Mediterranean cuisine, plus a generous dose of romantic ancient legends to spice up those lazy days by the sea.

Cyprus known as the 'Jewel of the Mediterranean' and legendary birthplace of Aphrodite, the ancient goddess of love and beauty, certainly lives up to the exacting standards of its divine patroness. A stunning Mediterranean island steeped in legend, myth, beauty and romance that enjoys more than 340 days of sunshine a year, Cyprus is attracting visitors from across the world. Enchanted by the island's endless stretches of golden sands, secluded bays and rocky coves, today's tourists are also drawn to Cyprus for its fascinating history and culture, its exquisite Mediterranean cuisine and its glorious mountains and verdant countryside that prove that Cyprus is much more than just a 'sun and sea' destination.

Offering something for everyone, regardless of interests, age or budget, Cyprus describes itself as the year-round island, where each season brings something new and wonderful for visitors to discover, from swimming in the warm blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea, to rambling in pine-scented forests, skiing on the snowy peaks of the mountains, cycling through the countryside and wandering around the ancient Greek temples and magnificent Byzantine churches.

Cyprus offers visitors a superb holiday destination packed with unforgettable experiences, extraordinary sights, exquisite Mediterranean cuisine and a generous dose of romantic ancient legends to spice up those lazy days by the sea.

CAPTIVATING HISTORY

The island is like a large open air museum packed with evidence of its chequered past, a mosaic of different civilisations and cultures. In Nicosia, visit the old quarter surrounded by a Venetian sandstone fortress with a moat and heart shaped bastions, where Mosques and palm trees add an oriental atmosphere to the old city. Visit St John's Cathedral with its frescoes and adjacent museum of marvellous Byzantine icons, and the Cyprus Museum, where you can see the best collection of archaeological artefacts on the island, including a first century AD Roman statuette of Aphrodite of Soli.

Cyprus' long and winding history offers visitors a journey of discovery paved with ancient archaeological treasures. The ancient city-kingdoms of Kourion and Amathus, and the Mosaics of Paphos, are considered among the finest mosaic floors in the eastern Mediterranean. Other must-see historic sites include the Neolithic settlements of Choirokoitia and Kalavassos-Tenta, the Tombs of the Kings and the famous Sanctuary of Aphrodite, the Goddess of Love, who legend claims was born on this island.

MEDITERRANEAN DELICACIES

Cypriot cuisine is famous for its delicious Mediterranean qualities. The island is the home of halloumi cheese and meze, a multi-course meal of olives, salad, seafood, cheese, chicken, sausage, and kebabs that deserves to be shared and savoured 'siga siga' (slowly, slowly), preferably at an open-air taverna at vine-shaded tables.

Cyprus is also one of the world's oldest grape-growing and wine-making regions, with its fruits of the grape ranging from delicate whites and full-bodied reds to the rich sweet amber-coloured dessert nectar known as Commandaria. This is one of the oldest wines in the world, representing an ancient wine style documented in Cyprus back to 800 BC and has the distinction of being the world's oldest named wine still in production, with the name Commandaria dating back to the crusades in the 12th century.

DIVERSE FLORA AND FAUNA

All year round Cyprus' air is redolent with the scent of blossom, be it the heady fragrance of musky mimosa, balmy jasmine perfumed nights or the sweetly sharp aroma from the abundance of citrus trees. With nearly 2000 flowering plants (including 20 rare species of orchid), 371 varieties of birds including flamingos, imperial eagles and griffon vultures, and a fascinating diversity of animals including sea turtles, snakes and lizards - not to mention the elusive moufflon (a rare wild mountain sheep found only in Cyprus), the island is a haven for any nature lover.

Cyprus offers excellent dive sites and facilities, with one of the best wreck dives in the world, the Zenobia, situated off Larnaca

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES FOR ALL SEASONS

Cyprus offers a host of energetic pursuits to engage the visitor. Becoming increasingly popular as a destination for golfers, Cyprus offers first-class facilities with three professional courses on magnificent locations, and the development of several new courses in the pipeline.

Spectacular pine clad mountains in the centre of the island offer walkers and cyclists welcome respite from the heat. Breathe in the bracing pine scented air whilst admiring the series of Venetian stone bridges and waterfalls that pepper various hiking trails in scenery that looks as if it has been lifted from a book of fairy tales. In winter months, skiers can test the slopes on Troodos whilst the rest of the island wear short sleeves and bask in winter sun.

Cyprus offers excellent dive sites and facilities, with one of the best wreck dives in the world, the Zenobia, situated off Larnaca. Other popular dive sites include Ayia Napa, Paphos and the Akamas Peninsula, where divers are often able to see artefacts such as Roman pottery on the seabed.

DISCOVER AND EXPERIENCE

Cyprus offers so much diversity and entertainment that you won't waste a minute of your time on the island. From lounging on balmy beaches to discovering ancient settlements, hiking across forest paths or relaxing over a glass of Commandaria, there's a whole world of amazing experiences to fit in to your visit. Add to that the famed Cypriot hospitality guaranteeing the warmest of welcomes by the locals, whether you're exploring a mountain trail, a rural village or a city centre shopping street, and it's easy to understand why most visitors start planning their return trip to Cyprus before they've even left the island the first time.

Columbia Beach Hotel is tucked away on the south coast of Cyprus, in a setting of unspoilt countryside and sits alone at the centre of the quiet two kilometre Blue Flag beach on the sheltered Bay of Pissouri.

The Hotel ambles gently from the crystal clear waters of the Pissouri Bay following a valley of vineyards and orchards. The landscaped grounds allow the well-appointed rooms and suites to enjoy breathtaking sea views, many of which are panoramic. Rooms are styled to reflect the environment around the bay of Pissouri, with fabrics and furnishings which are a subtle blend of Mediterranean blue and the mellow colours of the cliffs that frame the area. While the architecture is gentle, the facilities in the rooms are high tech and state-of-the-art.

THE BEST BEACH IN THE WORLD
(WINNER - 1st PRIZE BY TRIP ADVISOR 2013)

THE PELAGIAN ISLANDS

Summer in the

PELAGIAN ISLANDS

The Tropics of the Med

WELCOME TO THE PELAGIAN ISLANDS!

The Trip Advisor travellers have declared that the beach of Rabbits (La Baia Dei Conigli) Lampedusa is not just a beautiful beach, but also the most beautiful beach in the World! It is a true marvel, in a dreamlike setting, surrounded by a magical atmosphere with incredible marine life and water whose clarity and whose shades of blue attract visitors and tourists from all over the world, and all this in just than half an hour airplane flight from Malta.

ROCS TRAVEL INTRODUCES THE PELAGIAN ISLANDS

The Pelagian Islands are a true gem in the med, just a mere 25 minutes flight from Malta and one finds himself in paradise.

It is so convenient for us Maltese, that it is quicker to get to this destination than to our sister islands.

The Pelagian Islands enjoy a limited number of tourists hence apart from the month of August, the islands are never really over crowded.

On the other hand they are still a very much loved tourist destination due to their magnificent coasts, outstanding award winning beaches and unique beautiful scenery. Many refer to The Pelagian Islands as the Tropics of the Med.

For those who love the sea, The Pelagians offer some of the clearest waters in the world.

THE BEST BEACH IN THE WORLD JUST 25 MINUTES AWAY

Taking their name from the Greek for 'high sea', the Islands in Italian referred to as Le Isole Pelagie, are closer to Malta than their political and administrative home of southern Italy. Belonging to the Sicilian province of Agrigento and situated 150km west of Malta, this group of three islands comprises of Lampione, Linosa and the largest of the three, Lampedusa.

In 2002 the islands became the "Protetta Isole Palagie Nature Reserve" due to the nesting sites on Lampedusa and Linosa of the rare loggerhead sea turtle which today are an attraction and draw people from all over the world. Whales and dolphins are also seen here, together with an abundance of flora and fauna. People have a vast selection of outdoor activities to choose from including fabulous boat trips round the islands, together with the opportunity of chartering small boats whereby one can enjoy bay-hopping to all the beautiful beaches that adorn the islands.

Lampedusa - the 13 km long island has had quite a bit of bad press some years ago due to the arrival of many Africans seeking refuge, but don't let this cloud your judgement. If you are considering visiting these beautiful islands, this is a problem of the past and today totally free from immigrants.

ROCS Travel together with its partners will be offering direct flights from June to October 2016 to The Pelagian Islands. These flights come with truly attractive accommodation and excursion rates. Needless to say that food is typically Italian and hence absolutely delicious, therefore with such beautiful sea and amazing beaches this new destination will undoubtedly be a natural choice for those who are after an enjoyable summer break.

WHY THE PELAGIANS THIS Summer

It is one of the most-frequented destinations of sun-worshippers, scuba-divers and nature lovers, and it is the last trace of Italian terrain. The good news is it's just a 25 minutes flight away from Malta.

The Pelagian Islands, the glorious, sun-bleached islands, now accessible with direct flights from Malta.

SEE

The island's northern and western coast is rather high and inaccessible, while its eastern and south eastern shores boast magnificent, sandy beaches. From the smallest and most hidden to the largest and most crowded, The Pelagian beaches are numerous and welcoming. First off, the splendid coves of Cala Pisana and Cala Uccello open onto the glistening sea, while the Calas Spugna and Maluk lie on the island's east. Cala Greca, rather, is quite minuscule and covered in whiter-than-white sand; and one of the secrets on this island is Cala Galera, accessible by passing through the island's characteristic low, rocky gullies on the water. See the beach on the so-called Dead Sea, where the water is super calm, and the same-named Grotto; also remarkable are the spectacular and buzzing Cala Francese and the famous Guitgia Beach, the beach with the nearest hotels and accessible with public transport. From here you can also reach Cala Croce and the beach on Cala Madonna, along with Porto N'Tone, a tiny beach with fine, white sand, ideal for families with children. On the island's southern side, Cala Pulcino and countless nearby grottoes can be found.

DO

A private charter small boat ride around The Pelagians is the best way to appreciate the beauty of its beaches, coves and tiny harbours.

The sea's clarity and the brilliant seafloor, abundant with flora and fauna, thrill scuba-divers and snorkelers, who can choose from a wide array of diving spots, both day and night. A rather easy immersion is that in search of the underwater statue Madonna del Mare, 46 feet deep and surrounded by burrows for octopus and sargo fish. Their neighbours include dentex, groupers and more sargoes that make their home around this boulder that resembles a large panettone (the Milanese Christmas sweet). To swim through the expanse of green Neptune Grass, it is necessary to make a pit-stop at Punta Parrino, the point protecting the rest of the island from the waves and wind. An underwater excursion at Taccio Vecchio is also rather moving for the fact that you can see the homonymous grotto and plenty of parrotfish! In the same zone lies Punta Cappellone, inhabited by tuna, sargo, dentex, grouper and greater amberjack; meanwhile, the eastern shallows host superb exemplars of the loggerhead sea turtle that you can witness yourself, tide-permitting. The north, rather, is the site for lobster, dentex, rockfish and grouper burrows, and where sperm whales can be sighted in April. If you are more of a land lover, you can walk the trails that run up to the island's foremost three peaks: Monte Rosso, featuring a cultivated crater, Monte Nero and Monte Vulcano.

BE SURE TO...

Visit The BEST Beach in The World (Winner - Trip Adviser 2013) Rabbit Island known by the Italians as La Isola dei Conigli, one of the prettiest beaches in all the Med zone; the Island is protected, given its loggerhead sea turtle population that lays its eggs here. This work of nature is absolutely captivating, and can be reached even by non-swimmers - it is only 328 feet from the Lampedusa coast, over a stretch of water just a little over 3 m deep. Attempt to get to the other side of Rabbit Island if you want to spot its submerged natural arch, colonized by orange madrepores, colorful sponges, red shrimp, and rockfish and moray eel burrows.

SURELY CANNOT MISS...

During the hottest nights of the summer, make an effort to attend the many celebrations happening on the island's beaches, including bonfires, spaghetti cookouts and barbecues, and musical performances.

Taste the fish cous cous, a mix of African and Sicilian flavors; the Pelagian's version add shrimp, lobster and seafood, and accompany it with delicious chilled white wines.

Flavours

What travellers have to say about The Pelagian Islands

“To me, travel is an escape from everyday life; and a Pelagian Island escape is exactly what I found.

One of my fondest memories started while riding around the main island of Lampedusa. I was on a rented moped, the weather was spectacular, and the scenery was unforgettable. My partner and I were stopped by a sign that showed boat rentals around the island. Since it was early in the day, we chose to rent one. Never in my life could I ever have imagined the views from the ocean looking back upon the island. It is something I hope to never forget.”

The Charms of Northern
SICILY

More than an Island

DISCOVER SICILY AND DISCOVER THE WORLD.

The world's first multicultural society, the island is Italy's (and Europe's) most historically cosmopolitan region, having been ruled by Asians, Africans and Europeans.

Sicily is black and white and a million shades of grey. There's no other place on Earth like it. Visiting Sicily is like visiting over a dozen countries in one! A unique place full of art, archaeology, history, folklore and breath-taking scenery. And, of course, great food.

Sicily is the largest of the Italian islands, separated from the Continent by the Strait of Messina and surrounded by the Ionian, the Tyrrhenian and the Mediterranean Seas.

It is one of the pearls of Southern Italy and can be discovered, understood and experienced through a series of itineraries dedicated to areas of interest ranging from nature to history and traditions.

Nature seems to have endowed all its wonders to this land: mountains, hills and above all the sea, with its incredible colours, its crystal-clear water and the beauty of its seabeds, in no way inferior to those of other seas.

Here, the Mediterranean Sea, with its many little islands scattered around the coasts of Sicily - The Aeolians, Egadi and Pelagie Islands, Pantelleria and Ustica - offers unique and the intense sceneries, scents and flavours of uncontaminated nature.

Last but not least, its great volcanoes are symbols of the irresistible beauty and vitality of this incredibly charming region.

Fascination for this region grows with treasured archaeological sites that tell the story of the ancient origins of Trinacria (ancient name for Sicily).

THE NORTHERN COAST

The Province of Palermo stretches out in northern Sicily and looks out over the Tyrrhenian Sea, with a tract of splendid coast opening out into the Carini Gulf, Palermo and Termini Imerese.

The seafront is fascinating for its fantastic colours, ranging from intense blue to the green of vegetation, along with the contrasting dark hues of rocks against white beaches of finest sand.

Mondello stands out as the beach most frequented by local people, whereas Cefalù is a monumental city with cosy beaches; finally, Sferracavallo, an ancient fishing village, has become a haven for scuba-diving.

Against the open sea of Palermo, one can distinguish the skyline of Ustica Island, made up of the remains of a group of former volcanoes, rich in naturalistic beauty with coves, caves, and archaeological findings.

The terrain here is prevalently mountainous and includes the Madonie Range that extends toward the Pollina and Imera Valleys, part of which runs into the coast. This environment is protected by the Madonie Regional Park, offering spectacular panoramas and a great variety of landscapes, from the rough rocky mountains and cliffs diving straight down into the sea, up to the hilly expanse of the interior.

Besides the beauty of nature, renowned localities and marvellous artistic treasures from different eras make this territory special and unique, a popular tourist spot well-known among visitors.

From the Solunto ruins to the archaeological area of Monte Jato, from Monreale to Palermo, the entire territory is bursting with art treasures, enchanting landscapes and traces of ancient civilization.

Palermo shines in the center of the Gulf bearing its name, a city with a rich past that in ancient times was the melting pot of European and Arab civilization.

The Province is full of highlights, including the historical villas punctuating the Bagheria area, the epicurean attractions, traditional folkloristic celebrations and relaxing holidays by the sea. Palermo and its Province are a traveller's mecca for all seasons and all demands.

WHAT TO DO

The undisputed ruler of this ancient and beautiful land is undoubtedly the sea, that can be enjoyed in so many different ways: relaxing on one of the many coastal beaches, exploring the wonderful seabed's, or windsurfing and kite surfing with the waves and the wind.

The splendid coast, with its beaches and rocky expanses is a tempting invitation to spend a relaxing vacation by the sea, or even a high-adrenaline vacation for the more adventurous, with opportunities to sail and practice a variety of water sports. Some parts of the coast and the Island of Ustica are ideal for scuba-diving and boat excursions to some of its awe-inspiring caves.

The protected areas and nature reserves offer an infinity of routes for walking or trekking the Madonie Highlands.

The Termini Imerese and Sclafani Bagni thermal spas offer treatments and therapies for regeneration, beauty and wellness.

The local calendar is punctuated by events like the Feast of Santa Rosalia in Palermo (July) or the Targa Florio International Rally of Sicily (July).

Countless sagre (food fairs) and festivals are dedicated to typical products: in Gangi, a characteristic country fair is held, dedicated to the wheat stalk and evoking the customs of the Italians' peasant past. In Cerda, visitors can attend the artichoke country fair, and in Isnello that of tuma cheese and ricotta (July).

Among the most typical events, we highlight the carnival of Termini Imerese and the Estate Cefaludese, a summer celebration in Cefalù.

WHAT TO TASTE

The exuberance and warmth of the island of Sicily is evident in its food as well, which tells of Sicilians' passion and care for good food and genuine flavours.

Countless tasty delicacies and high-quality wines make those from Palermo Province proud of their excellent cuisine.

Typical starters are the arancini and the pani ca' meusa, a roll of bread stuffed with veal entrails.

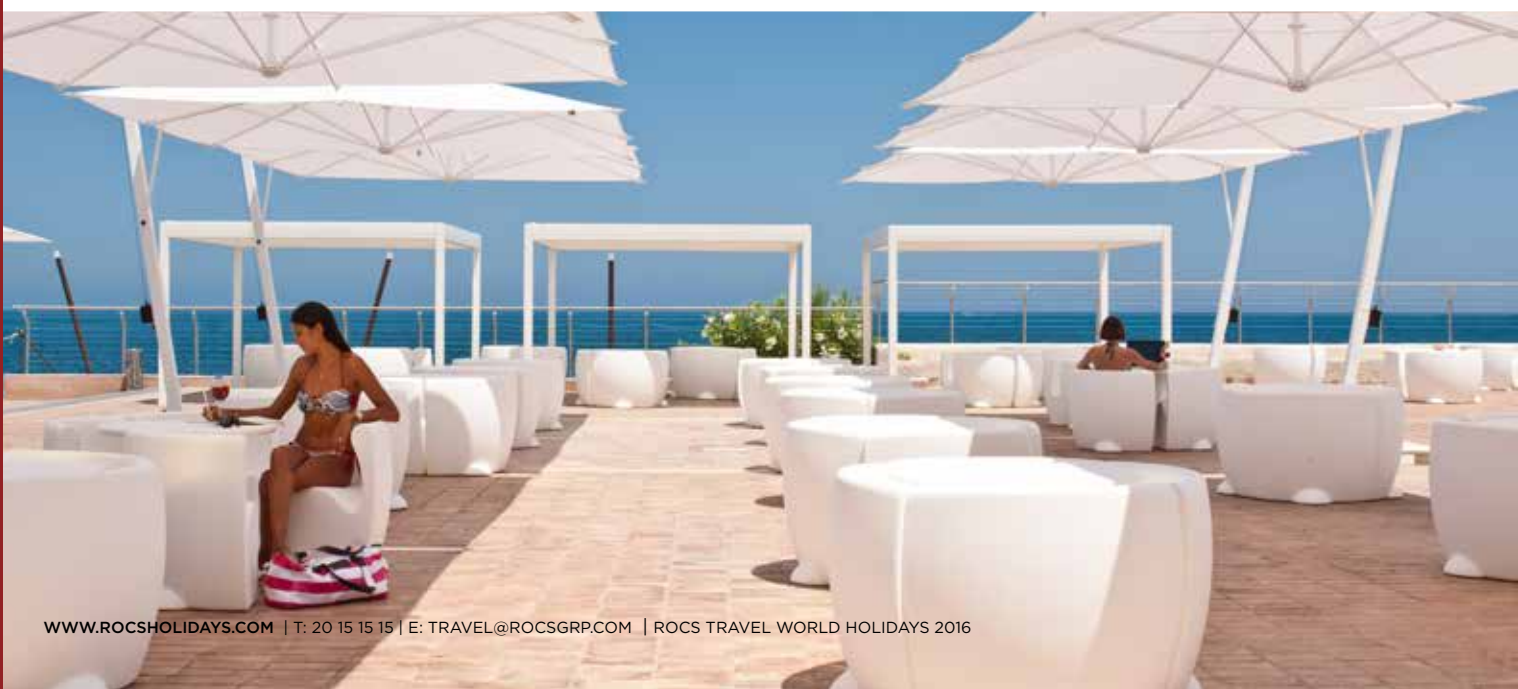

Other unforgettable dishes include the pasta with sardines; baked anegetti al forno and sfinciuni tuna; the cchi mascolini pasta; spaghetti alla carrettiera, a fish soup typical of Ustica; and fish broth with attuateddi pasta.

Fish-based dishes stand out among the second courses: beccafico sardines, tuna with onions, tuna with ragù sauce, and hake cooked the Palermo way.

Lamb and mutton meat are the specialties of the Madonie area.

As for desserts, the spectrum is wide: martorana fruits, cassate, cannoli and mostaccioli.

As for outstanding wines, try the Corvo di Casteldaccia and the Partinico.

On the edge of the town, sun-drenched Via dei Mulini winds its way up among olive trees and orange groves that skirt the stream and the small canal that, for centuries, have fed the water mills that follow one another along the ridge. Today, three of these mills lie within the hotel's gardens. Cool Mediterranean gardens, in the centre of the Gulf of Cefalu, to the west the Santa Lucia promontory, crystal-clear water and cliffs reddened by sunsets, to the east the "Rocca", the symbol of the town, which rises above the 12th century Norman Cathedral. In spring you might feel dazed by the fragrance of the jasmine and the pittosporum and by the melodies coming from the gurgle of the stream, from the foliage of the poplar trees and from the birds that populate the garden. From this enchanting spot you can see the palm trees and centuries old carob trees growing in front of the Norman Cathedral, which is silhouetted against the intense azure of the Tyrrhenian Sea. The buildings, the colour and material of Sicilian landscapes, with their vernacular architecture and simple elements, remind you of the predominant styles of the island's history.

SICILY

Flavours

The Capital of Sicily

Artistic delights abound at every corner, maybe most strikingly in the spectacular mosaics in the Palatine Chapel in Palermo and the Duomo of Monreale.

Palermo, the regional capital of Sicily, is one of those cities with its own very distinct, almost tangible atmosphere, a place of mystery where reality often outperforms the traveller's imagination and preconceived stereotypes. It is a buzzing Mediterranean centre whose 1 million inhabitants are a fascinating cocktail of apparently conflicting characteristics. Visiting Palermo is still somewhat of an adventure in a world where so many places have become tourist-friendly to a fault. You won't find many restaurants with menus translated into 5 different languages, you may have trouble communicating in English in many places, and some parts of the old town centre have remained untouched since they were bombed during the war. There are many back streets that have only just opened up to those from without and it is still often difficult to obtain any information worth having. However, this is also a stimulus to those who wish to embark on a little adventure, to discover things for themselves, to dig into the very fabric of the city and to try to understand what really makes Palermo (and its people) tick.

The often faded grandeur of many of Palermo's wonderful palaces and churches in the centre gives way to popular areas whose way of life doesn't fully belong to the 21st Century. This is particularly true of the markets, whose Arabic origins are still evident today thanks to their noise, smells, colours, narrow labyrinthine streets, the splendid array of food and other goods on display and the general 'souk' atmosphere.

Santorini

CALDERA CRUISE FROM €39 PER PERSON

Santorini's caldera is one of the Mediterranean's greatest natural marvels. The caldera was caused by a massive volcanic implosion thousands of years ago. It destroyed much of what was then one island, leaving in its place four islands: Santorini, Therasia, Nea Kameni and Palia Kameni. This catastrophe explains why Santorini itself has such sheer cliffs and why the islands form a circle.

SIMPLY SANTORINI TOUR €40 PER PERSON

Live the high life in the island's highland villages with this excursion into what many locals feel is a vanishing Santorini. This tour will bring you to Mesa Gonia, a tiny village that's surrounded by vineyards and is home to the island's oldest church, the 11th century Panagia Episkopi, a work of Byzantine brilliance that is seriously photogenic. From there, we will make our way to Pyrgos, which was once Santorini's capital.

APHRODITE SANTORINI SUNSET CRUISE €62 PER PERSON

Sail into the heart of the volcanic caldera of Santorini to experience a red hot sunset that will linger long in the memory. This stunning cruise aboard a traditional Greek caique sailboat will hug the western coastline of Santorini before following a sea route between the two volcanic islets. It destroyed much of Santorini, leaving four islands with often sheer cliffs.

Mykonos

SIMPLY MYKONOS TOUR FROM €35 PER PERSON

A pearl in the Aegean Sea, with blue skies, picturesque whitewashed houses, beautiful beaches... everywhere. Starting the city and island tour by walking the small and narrow streets, we have many possibilities to take nice photos in the early morning. We will, of course, see the famous windmills and find Petros The Pelican, the mascot of Mykonos.

MYKONOS SUNSET CRUISE FROM €39 PER PERSON

Complete your holiday experience with a cruise into the beautiful sunset of Mykonos. Admire the breathtaking colour combinations of the sunset while you are surrounded by nothing but the deep blue sea and enjoying the relaxing atmosphere on the ship.

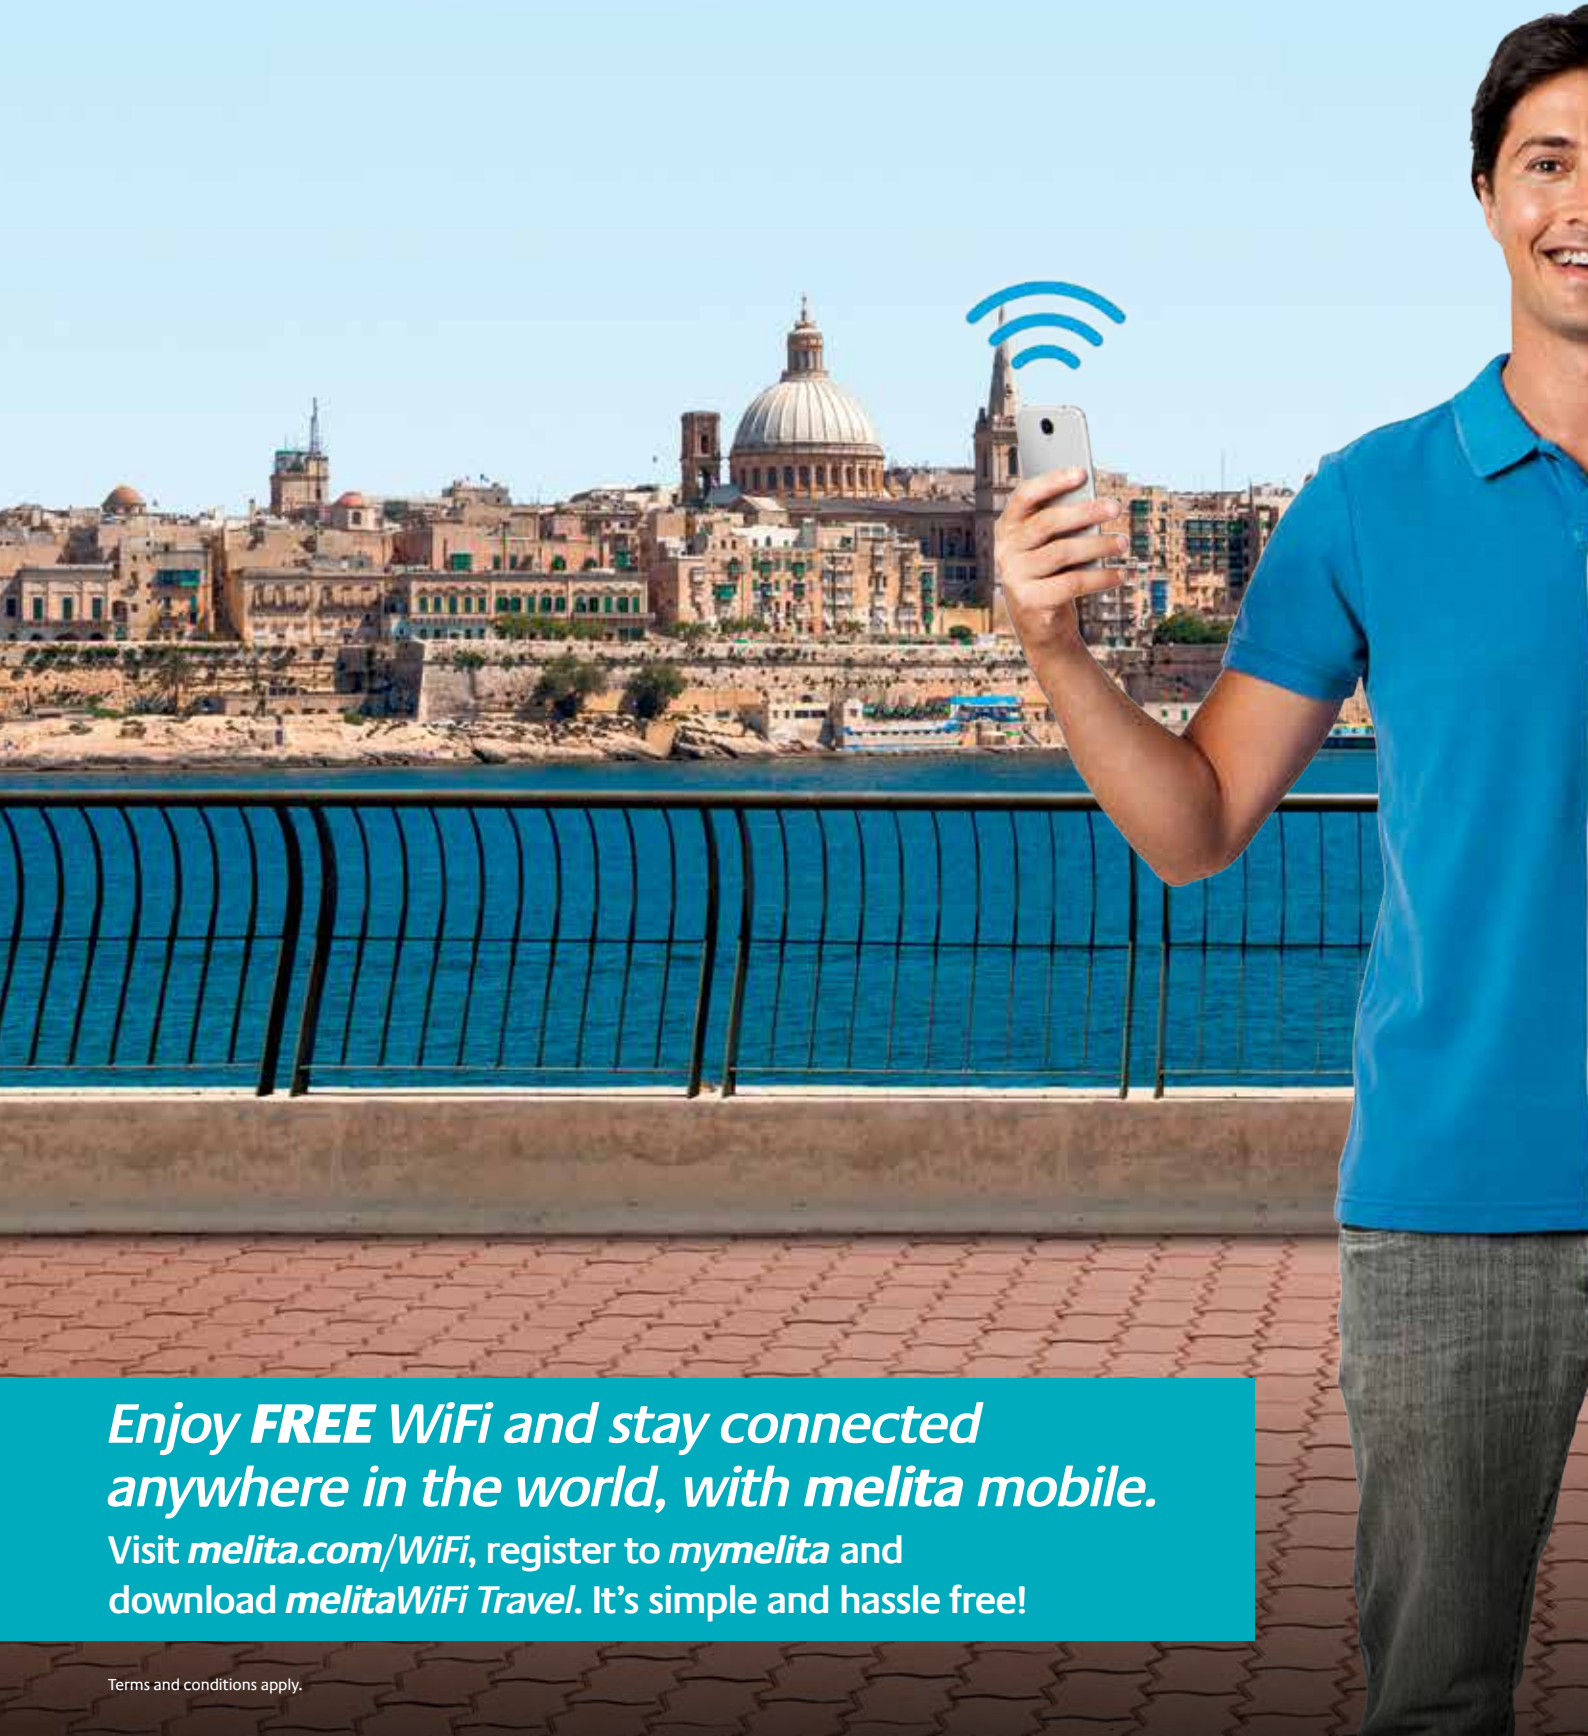

TINOS ISLAND TOUR FROM €58 PER PERSON

A visit to Tinos has become something of a pilgrimage, a virtual act of faith, for anyone staying in Mykonos. This island, some 45 minutes away by ferry, is home to one of the most famous and sacred churches in Greece, the Panagia Evangelistria, an awe-inspiring shrine atop a hill dominating Tinos town. The Renaissance-style church was built where a nun found an icon buried at a spot revealed by the Virgin Mary.

5 REASONS TO CHOOSE THE ROCS TRAVEL TOURS

There are so many benefits to letting someone else take on all the details that come with having The Perfect Trip. More and more travellers choose to Go Guided with ROCS Travel;. Here is why they never look back.

THE ROCS TRAVEL STRESS FREE SERVICE

Ever wanted to travel the world but were not sure how? Putting together a comprehensive journey can be an overwhelming task given all the details with airlines, accommodations, transportation, meals, sightseeing and more. Leave behind the stress of planning and let ROCS Travel's innovative tours make your travel dreams come true.

THE ROCS TRAVEL CULTURE

Visiting a destination gives you a taste of the local culture. But imagine actually becoming part of that culture. Staying overnight in an authentic hotel in the Swazi Kingdom...feeling the fresh waters of the Niagara Falls... or rolling a dough with an Italian chef to make the perfect pizza. It's not just about all the iconic spots that will make for the best photos, it's about diving into another world with ROCS who have tried and tested it all so as to make sure that you are guaranteed the very best of memories.

THE ROCS TRAVEL TOUR MANAGERS

On Day 1 of your trip, you'll meet a friendly person who sure does know a lot about your tour and the destinations you're visiting. This highly skilled professional is your tour manager...and from the moment you meet this key player on your tour, you'll know you're in good hands. With their rich travel backgrounds, as well as their useful information about language, currency, and all things local, you can relax and enjoy the ride.

THE ROCS TRAVEL PRODUCT TEAM

Our product experts are probably on the road right now — scoping out the best of our worldwide destinations. They go, take it all in, and find the moments they love best. You just need to choose which itinerary best suits you. Their job is to make sure that your Guided Tour is extra social. They look after putting together a cast of characters: including your most ideal tour manager, a great driver, knowledgeable local guides and much more that goes on behind the scenes.

THE ROCS TRAVEL DIFFERENCE

Look Beyond The List Price. On the surface, tours from various operators may appear the same. The price may appear to be better. Yet make a careful measure of the inclusions vs. options. A low "starting at" rate does not always make for up good tour. You may spend much more money in the long run when your account for all the extras that we at ROCS consider to be part of the experience.

A competitor's advertised price indicates land and air, but customarily excludes extras. A ROCS Travel Tour generally includes all tours and daily experience from morning to evening, we have noted that other tours generally do not.

Our advertised price includes all necessary inclusions, so that you will not be surprised with additional charges when it's time to check out.

Northern Sicily Splendors

DAY 1 - MALTA - PALERMO - MONDELLO

Meet the tour manager at Malta International for your flight to Palermo. Drive to Mondello which is more than just a beach resort, it's an education in Sicilian custom, rituals and adolescent bonding. The road which curves behind the beach makes a pleasant stroll. Up at the far end of the bay, the 'centre' of the town, a waterfront piazza rather blighted by advertising boards for eateries, is useful for eating and shopping. The most historic sight is the old stone watchtower which predates the beach resort. It's worth wandering up as far as the harbour, though, where small fishing boats bob up and down and old men fish from the jetty. The symbol of Mondello is the striking Art Nouveau building on a pier in the middle of the bay, the Charleston. Dating back to the more elegant heyday of the resort, this has been restored and sits in yellow glory over the blue waters of the bay. Transfer to your 4*hotel for check in.

DAY 2 - MONREALE - PALERMO

Breakfast and today we will start our tour by driving to Monreale where one can see the magnificent Norman Duomo with the imposing "Cristo Pantocratore". This church is covered with mosaics with scenes from the Old Testament. Drive to Palermo with a visit to the Palazzo dei Normanni (entrance fee not included). From here one can follow on foot Via Vittorio Emanuele towards Via Maqueda. Visit the Cathedral which dates back to 1184, I Quattro Canti, The church of St Joseph dei Teatini and Piazza Pretoria. Further down on Via Vittorio Emanuele one can stroll along 'Via Roma' which is famous for its shops, Teatro Massimo and the Politeama Garibaldi theatre.

DAY 3 - NATIONAL PARK MADONIE MOUNTAINS - GIBILMANNA - GRATTERI - CASTELBUONO

Breakfast and the tour today will lead you to the National Park of the Madonie Mountains. First stop will be at Gibilmanna, which means 'gibil' a mountain of manna.

The name Manna comes from a sweetish substance that is collected from local Mountain Ash trees in late summer. Here we visit the Sanctuary and the Baroque Chapel of the Virgin Mary. Later drive to Gratteri which is a typical laid back Sicilian village. It is surrounded by beautiful pine, oaks woods and sites such as Pizzo Dipilo. The city boasts areas of historical importance to Sicily. Although probably founded by the Romans, as a coin discovered at the area seems to confirm, the town design betrays clear Arab-Medieval features. Here we stop for a Sicilian typical lunch(not included). Proceed to Castelbuono, famous for the old Castel built by the Ventimiglia family, and the famous chapel of St Anna inside. St Anna is patron saint of Castelbuono (entrance fee to the Castel not included). Later walk in the picturesque streets and taste of some typical pastries and manna.

DAY 4 - CEFALU - FORUM SHOPPING MALL

After breakfast proceed for an orientational tour of Cefalu which is notable for beautiful sunsets, unpretentious charm, and a very appealing blend of ingredients for an Italian seaside holiday. Sandy beaches, a picturesque historic town on a rocky headland, some high culture in the shape of a fine Norman Cathedral, decent transport links, Sicilian food and sunshine all add up to make the town one of Italy's most attractive seaside destinations.

Unlike the modern beach resorts and developed fishing villages which dot Italy's coast, Cefalu has some grandeur in its past, it was important enough that one of Sicily's Norman rulers, Roger II, would build a glorious cathedral here. While its later history was less distinguished, there are some substantial and elegant buildings in the town, as well as reminders of Sicily's varied influences, not just Norman and Byzantine, but also Arab, Spanish and finally Italian. Drive to Forum Shopping Mall.

A stunning state-of-the art architecture, iconic design and over 120 shops Forum-Palermo offers a truly unique shopping experience.

Add 2400 parking spaces, kids play centre and there's even a cinema to complete your perfect day out. Clothes, accessories, shoes, sports wear, underwear, electronic products, but also treatments such as nails, make-up, facials and solarium can be all found under one roof.

Wherever you are in Forum Palermo, you are never too far from somewhere to sit, drink or eat. There is a good range of cafes (sip your espresso at Segafredo or Lavazza),bars, pizzerias, fast food places(try Old Wild West) and restaurants (Rossopomodoro and Rossosapone serve up authentic Neapolitan cuisine) giving you plenty of options when you are looking to drop your bags and take a load off.

Until the 2nd century, in fact, the early Christians didn't have their own cemeteries but were buried alongside the pagans in communal burial grounds outside the city along the main consular roads. It is also the Roman basilica assigned to the Patriarch of Alexandria, and the second largest church in Rome. Later we will proceed to Navona Square, a typical Baroque square and The Pantheon which is the most complete ancient building in Rome and one of the city's most spectacular sights. Gems of Japan & Treasures of South Korea

DAY 1 - MALTA - JAPAN

Meet the tour manager at Malta International Airport for your flight to Japan.

DAY 2 - TOKYO

Upon arrival you will be welcomed and transferred to your 4* Grand Pacific La Daiba.

DAY 3 - TOKYO

Breakfast and proceed for full day city tour of Tokyo visiting the Meiji Jingu Shrine, drive through the Imperial Palace Plaza which comprises the moats and spacious plaza between the east side of the Imperial Palace and the Marunouchi office buildings. On the north side of the plaza stands a fountain commemorating the marriage of the Emperor and Empress. To the south is a bronze of Kusunoki Masashige, a 14th-century samurai loyal to the emperor. Sensoji is the oldest and most impressive temple in Tokyo. The main hall was first built to house a tiny golden statue of Kannon, the goddess of mercy, that had been repeatedly hauled up in fishing nets despite being thrown back into the river. The statue was enshrined in the main hall where it ostensibly remains today -- a sight too holy to be seen. The temple was destroyed in the air raids of March 10, 1945, and the present building is a 1958 reconstruction.
Meals: Breakfast.

DAY 4 - NIKKO

Breakfast and full day tour of Nikko. First visit will be The Toshogu Shrine which is the main attraction of Nikko. The Shinto shrine is dedicated to the kami (spirit) of Ieyasu who founded the Tokugawa Shogunate, a military dynasty that ruled Japan from 1603 to 1867.

To create a worthy shrine for the shogun, 15,000 craftsmen worked for two years, using 2.5 million sheets of gold leaf. The enshrinement of Ieyasu's spirit is reenacted twice each year in the Procession of the Thousand Warriors.

One of the most famous elements of Toshogu is the Sacred Stable, where a white imperial horse is kept (a gift of New Zealand). The stable's fame derives from the original carving depicting the three wise monkeys, "Hear no evil, Speak no evil, See no evil." Other famous carvings at Toshogu include a sleeping cat and an odd rendering of an elephant by an artist who had apparently never seen one.

Drive to Kegon Waterfall the almost 100 meter tall most famous of Nikko's many beautiful waterfalls. In fact, it is even ranked as one of Japan's three most beautiful falls, along with Nachi Waterfall in Wakayama Prefecture and Fukuroda Waterfall in Ibaraki Prefecture. Kegon Waterfall is also a popular autumn color spot. Later drive through Chuzsen-ji Lake.
Meals: Breakfast.

DAY 5 - TOKYO - KYOTO

Breakfast and full day tour of Tokyo visiting Mt. Fuji, Lake Kawaguchi, Kubota Ichiku Art Museum, Ooishi Park, Mt. Tenjo Park & Mt. Kachikachi Ropeway and the Springs of Mt. Fuji (museum included). Mount Fuji is the highest and most popular mountain in Japan, and is considered to be one of the most beautiful conical volcanoes in the world. The base of Mt. Fuji, which forms an almost perfect circle, stretches 35 to 40 km from east to west and the same distance from north to south. The volcano has not been active for more than 250 years, but apparently there was a time when smoke rising from its crater was a familiar feature of the landscape. After lunch transfer to Mishima train station for transfer to Kyoto. Check in at the 4* New Miyako Hotel.
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

DAY 6 - KYOTO

After breakfast depart for full day tour of Kyoto visiting Nijo Castle, built by Ieyasu, the founder of the Tokugawa Shogunate, in 1603, is a World Heritage Site and its Ninomaru Palace is designated a National Treasure on account of its splendid architecture and magnificent interior decoration. Ieyasu built the castle as his Kyoto residence, but its greater significance was as a symbol of Tokugawa power in the Kansai region. The palace is an example of "shoin-zukuri" style. The interior is decorated with wall paintings by the Kano school. The floorboards of corridors creak underfoot. Called "bush warbler boards,” as they warned of the approach of an assassin.

After drive to Kinkakuji the Temple of the Golden Pavilion which is a famous structure dating from the Muromachi Period and was listed on UNESCO's World Heritage List in 1994. It is the popular name of Rokuon-ji (Deer Park Temple), a temple dedicated to the Buddhist Goddess of Mercy. Ashikaga Yoshimitsu (1358-1408), the third of the Ashikaga Shoguns, built a retirement estate there in 1398. After his death the grounds were turned into a Buddhist temple for the Rinzaï sect. The only building to remain standing of Yoshimitsu's estate was the Golden Pavilion. The upper stories are covered in gold leaf and the roof is topped by a bronze phoenix. The reflection of the temple shimmers majestically in the waters of a rock-studded pond.

Proceed to Heian Shrine, it has a relatively short history, dating back just over a hundred years to 1895. The shrine was built on the occasion of the 1100th anniversary of the capital's foundation in Kyoto and is dedicated to the spirits of the first and last emperors who reigned from the city, Emperor Kammu and Emperor Komei. A giant torii gate marks the approach to the shrine, around which there are a couple of museums. The actual shrine grounds are very spacious, with a wide open court at the center. The shrine's main buildings are a partial replica of the original Imperial Palace from the Heian Period, built on a somewhat smaller scale than the original.

Meals: Breakfast.

DAY 7 - NARA PARK

Breakfast and proceed for full day tour of Nara and Uji.

Nara, the oldest capital of Japan was the cradle of Japanese arts, crafts and literature. Buddhism first flourished here under the strong patronage of successive Emperors. Walking through the city's quiet streets is like strolling through the pages of history. Here, you can find the peace of mind and spiritual contentment.

Today's Temple, completed in 752, houses one of the largest bronze statues in the world. The temple is approached through an imposing gate supported by eighteen 25-meter-high pillars. It was built in the eighth century. Blown down by a typhoon the gate was rebuilt. It is a National Treasure, as are two wooden images of the Deva kings in its exterior niches. The present Hall of the Great Buddha, is the world's largest ancient wooden structure and a National Treasure. The Great Buddha, a National Treasure, was cast in bronze in eight sections over three years. The 16 metre high figure is seated on a huge bronze pedestal 20.7 meters in circumference.

Meals: Breakfast.

DAY 8 - OSAKA

After breakfast depart for city tour of Osaka. A water city that affords cruising pleasures and sightseeing. Osaka castle-the symbol of Osaka with its over 400 years of history fusing the old and new, with towering skyscrapers abounded cherry blossom trees and soundings waterways. A sight to be enjoyed in any season. The Osaka Castle was built in the end of the 16th century by Toyotomi Hideyoshi, a well-known warlord who brought the whole country under his rule in the late 16th century. It has been burned down in a series of battles in the 17th century, and reconstructed later. Once again it was destroyed by fire, its donjon only reduced to ashes this time, and was reconstructed at last early in the 20th century. Prices and amounts quoted in the brochure/information sheet are valid at the time of publication. Both the Company and the customer/s agree and acknowledge that at the time of the booking the actual price of the chosen Holiday may have varied from the price quoted in the brochure/information sheet, in which case, the price will vary accordingly. Once the booking has been made and deposit paid, the cost of the customer/s Holiday cannot be revised except in the case of currency exchange rate fluctuations and / or variation of dues, taxes and/or levies and / or fees chargeable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports and airports and / or transport cost variations, including the cost of fuel.

A service charge of 3% of the cost of the Holiday will be levied and such amount will be included in the final invoice together with the taxes.

Prices for children are applicable for children under 12 years of age when sharing with two adults.

3. STANDARDS ASSURANCE AND ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITY

The information and descriptions contained in the brochure/information sheet are based on information provided by hoteliers and other service providers themselves. Hotel rooms and ship cabins are always small, sometimes even very small. Charichelon Co. Ltd works with hotels having single or twin / double bedded rooms. Triple or quadruple bedded rooms are never available. A third or fourth person wanting to share a twin / double bedded room, will most probably be either given a small extra folding 'camp' bed or a bunk bed or sofa bed, which will make accommodation quite uncomfortable. In America, three or four persons wanting to share a room will invariably be given just two matrimonial beds, (separate beds for each person are not available). When two persons book a room for two, the Company reserves the right to provide either two separate beds, or a large matrimonial bed. All rooms provided are not air-conditioned and fans will not be provided, unless otherwise expressly and clearly specified on the brochure/information sheet. Breakfast is only provided when specified and when provided is always continental unless otherwise expressly and clearly specified. Lunches and dinners are invariably served on a three-course basis. No choice of food will be provided; neither can changes be accepted (e.g. having fish instead of meat). Portions served are moderate in size. When buffet meals are provided a choice is available. Drinks, including water during meals, are always to be paid extra. Use of items from the mini-bar and telephone calls are chargeable to the customer. Local charges to the customer may also apply in relation to a TV in the room and safekeeping services, but kindly confirm at hotel reception. Unless otherwise clearly and expressly specified, all entrance fees to museums and shows, boat, metro or cable car trips are always subject to an extra charge. All optional excursions are subject to an extra charge and unless clearly and expressly specified only include transportation costs by coach, any entrance fees are subject to an extra charge and exclusive of any local guides' fees. For convenience, prices are clearly marked in the brochure/information sheet. The Holiday price only includes those items listed as included in the price. It is important to bear in mind that brochures and information sheets are printed months in advance and the situation may arise where an advertised facility, service, excursion or entertainment is not available during the customer's particular Holiday. For instance the seasonal nature of the facility, service, excursion or entertainment, bad weather, natural calamity or any other act of God, essential maintenance or cleaning, legislation or enactment of new legislation, or religious or state restrictions may affect the actual availability of particular facilities, services, excursions or entertainment. Similarly, itineraries may have to be changed sometimes at short notice, due to weather, road or traffic conditions, mechanical breakdowns, police activity as well as any other circumstances beyond the relevant party's control. Coaches or other means of transport used are not air-conditioned and do not have onboard toilet facilities, unless expressly and clearly specified in the brochure/information sheet. Swimming pools may only be operational during the summer months, and if still open in the winter months, may only be heated in colder weather at the discretion of the hotelier. The general standard of hygiene, public utilities, drainage, plumbing and services in general may not be of the same standards as applicable in Malta. Each group tour organized by the Company will be accompanied by either a Maltese or English speaking tour leader who will be responsible for the implementation of the programme. The tour leader, except in the case of an emergency, is under no circumstance responsible for carrying out work over and above the official programme and is not obliged to accompany members of the group tour organized by the Company around shops, flea markets or theme parks.

Cruise companies reserve the right to change the itinerary due to bad weather or industrial action, in which case neither the cruise company nor Charichelon Co. Ltd. are liable to pay any form of compensation or damages for the missed ports or the change of programme or itinerary.

Even though such occurrences are unlikely, the Company feels that it should act diligently towards its customers by informing them of such possibilities accordingly. Whilst the Company has taken all reasonable steps to ensure that proper arrangements have been made for the Holidays promoted in the brochure/information sheet, the Company has no control over the provision of services to the customer/s by other supplier/s.

4. CHANGE OF HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS

(a) Prior to departure date

It is the aim of the Company to promote Holidays, which ensure customer satisfaction. Although unlikely, circumstances may require the Company to alter the customer's Holiday arrangements and the Company reserves the right to make such alterations at any time. For instance, flight timings may change or be revised, hotels may be overbooked or close down or the Holiday itinerary may have to be changed. If any changes have to be made, the Company will inform the customer/s or his/her travel agent as soon as is reasonably possible prior to departure. Where the Company is constrained prior to departure to alter significantly an essential term of the agreement with the customer, it will notify the customer as quickly as possible in order to enable him/her to take the appropriate decisions and in particular to withdraw from the agreement without penalty or to accept a provision in the agreement specifying the alterations made and their impact on the price, if any. Of his part, the customer will inform the Company and his chosen travel agent, if any, of his/her decision as soon as possible.

(b) Throughout duration of Holiday

Occasionally, due to unforeseen circumstances a hotel or some other Holiday arrangement/s may have to be changed throughout the duration of the customer's Holiday, in which eventuality the Company will use its best endeavours to maintain the overall standard of the Holiday arrangements.

5. CANCELLATION OF HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS

The Company may occasionally have to cancel the customer's Holiday arrangements, for various reasons, including but not limited to the minimum number of persons required for a particular Holiday to take place not being reached (the minimum number of persons to operate a tour is 30; for group departures a minimum number of 10 adult customers is required). The Company reserves the right to cancel the customer's Holiday under any circumstance, in which eventuality, the Company will refund all the money paid by the customer/s to the Company or offer the customer/s the possibility to purchase an alternative Holiday of comparable standard, if available. The Company shall where possible, inform customers of such cancellation in writing at least 14 days before the scheduled departure date.

In the remote event that the customer's Holiday has to be cancelled, unless for reasons beyond the control of the Company, the customer's travel agent or other supplier of services the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if due care had been exercised, including but not limited to industrial action, natural disasters, terrorist activities, breakdown of means of transportation and further except in the case of a cancellation of a Holiday due to the minimum number of persons required for that particular Holiday to take place not being reached and where the customer is informed in writing within 14 days before the scheduled departure date, the Company will refund to the customer/s all money paid to the Company by the customer/s together with the following amounts per person due by way of compensation:-

14 days before departure or more - nil

8 - 13 days before departure - €25

0 - 7 days before departure - €50

Where the customer withdraws from the agreement pursuant to the Company being constrained prior to departure to alter significantly an essential term of the agreement or where the Company for any reason other than the fault of the customer, cancels the Holiday prior to the agreed date of departure, the customer is entitled:

- (i) to take a substitute Holiday of equivalent or superior quality if the Company is able to offer him/her such a substitute and pay any difference in price; or
- (ii) to take a substitute Holiday of lower quality if the Company is able to offer such a replacement and to recover from the Company the difference in price between that of the Holiday purchased and the replacement Holiday; or
- (iii) to have repaid to him/her as soon as possible all the monies paid to the Company under the agreement.

6. YOUR FLIGHT & VOUCHERS

Details of airlines the Company anticipates utilizing are set out in the brochure or information sheet. The Company reserves the right to make arrangements and substitute for alternative airlines and/or aircraft if necessary. Flight timings are subject to alteration and confirmation. The Company's reservation system will provide the latest timings as advised to it. The customer/s is kindly requested to check his/her flight tickets upon receipt, as they will indicate the final timing for his/her flight. Certain flights may be subject to intermediate stops en route and as the circumstances giving rise to such intermediate stops are not always notified to the Company prior to the departure date, the Company is not always in a position to inform the customer/s in advance. All flights are non-smoking. Flights are subject to the necessary authorizations, permits and licenses being granted by the relevant authorities in Malta and overseas. Should the customer's flight arrangements be changed or cancelled as provided in this clause or clauses 4 or 5 of this Agreement, the Company shall not be held liable for any damages, additional costs or consequential loss arising, directly or indirectly, from any independent contract arrangements between the customer and any third party.

The customer is also requested to check his/her hotel vouchers, excursion vouchers and/or any other vouchers relating in any manner to the Holiday upon receipt. It is the customer's responsibility to check all documentation including booking forms, invoices, airline tickets, accommodation vouchers, transfer vouchers etc...

7. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

Transport of any kind is subject to the terms and conditions of carriage of the company providing that trip or journey. Such terms and conditions are likely to particularly include or make reference to the provisions of the law of the country of the carrier (airline, coach, ship etc.) and/or be the subject of international conventions with government/s, any of which may exclude or limit the liability of the carrier.

8. Health and Vaccinations

Health facilities, hygiene and disease risk vary worldwide. The customer should take health advice about his/her specific needs as early as possible and ensure that vaccinations and preventive measures, such as malaria tablets, are taken early enough prior to departure in order to be fully effective by departure date. We strongly advise customers to consult their family doctor as early as possible.

9. BOOKING FORM AND DEPOSITS

The customers' booking form specifying all the customers' names as set out in their passports, must be accompanied by the appropriate deposit. No deposit is payable for infants under two years of age at the time of outbound travel. The person signing the booking form confirms that he/she has the authority of all other persons specified in the booking form to effect the booking on their behalf and that such persons grant their authority to the said booking customer to sign the said booking form and accept and agree to this Agreement on their behalf. The person effecting the booking is also accepting this Agreement on his/her own behalf. If the customer/s is booking a late-offer Holiday any information as well as any terms and conditions relative to such offer form an integral part of the customer's agreement. Should the customer/s require any clarifications, he/she may contact the Company or his/her travel agent for assistance.

10. BALANCE OF PRICE

The balance of price is due for payment in full not less than 8 weeks prior to departure (can be earlier for certain Holidays, ask at time of booking). If the customer's travel agent fails to pay the Company the amount due on the customer's Holiday in full (less the applicable commission) by the due date, the Company shall be under no legal obligation to supply the customer with his/her Holiday, so it is up to the customer to ensure that his/her travel agent pays the Company. If for any reason the balance on the customer's Holiday is not received by the Company by the due date, the Company reserves the right to cancel the booking and levy a cancellation charge, as though there had been a cancellation on the part of the customer/s. Payments by credit card are not accepted. No payments by cheque shall be accepted less than 14 days before the scheduled departure date.

11. CHANGE OF BOOKING

Should the customer wish to change his/her Holiday arrangements in any manner, the Company shall attempt to accommodate the customer's wishes. However, in such circumstances, the Company shall not be held liable in any manner for failing in any way to accommodate the customer's particular wishes. A handling fee will be charged by the Company for any change to a booking within 6 weeks prior to the departure date apart from the Company's unconditional right to pass on to the customer any costs incurred which are additional to the standard handling fee chargeable in terms of this clause. Where the price varies according to the number of persons booked into the accommodation and the number of persons requires amendment, the price will be varied in order to reflect the amended party size as specified in the relevant brochure/information sheet. Any increase in the price per person payable as a result of a part cancellation (e.g. for a hotel room under-occupancy- changing from twin room to single room) is not tantamount to a cancellation charge. A separate cancellation charge will be levied in respect of bookings cancelled, in accordance with clause 13 below.

12. TRANSFER OF BOOKING

Where the customer is prevented from proceeding with the Holiday, the customer may in certain circumstances, transfer his/her booking to a person (as transferee) who satisfies all the conditions applicable to the Holiday, provided that the Company is given at least 14 days notice prior to the scheduled departure date, of the customer's intention to transfer the booking. An administrative charge of €50 per person will be charged for every transfer of booking the Company makes. In the case of cruises, the administrative charge for every transfer of booking made by the Company is of €175 per person. The Company shall also charge the customer for any extra costs caused by the transfer of booking. In some cases, airlines or cruise liners may refuse to allow customers to transfer their bookings. Regrettably, in these circumstances, the customer cannot transfer his/her booking. If the customer transfers his/her booking to someone else, the transferee must purchase separate insurance cover. When a booking is transferred, the transferor and transferee shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of the price of the Holiday or, if the price has been partly paid, for payment of the balance, and for any additional costs and expenses arising from such transfer.

13. CANCELLATION OF BOOKING

A cancellation shall only be accepted in writing from the person who signed the booking form or in writing from the customer's travel agent through whom the booking was made.

THE CANCELLATION OF BOOKING IS ONLY ACCEPTED IN PERSON AND ON THE APPROPRIATE COMPANY FORMS.

The cancellation shall be effective from the date it is received at the Company's offices. In the event of a cancellation either in respect of one or all persons named on the booking form, the Company's scale of cancellation charges will be levied, which charges are based on the estimated expenses and losses suffered by the Company consequent to such cancellation/s. The scale of cancellation charges follows for the customer's reference: -

Period prior to scheduled departure date within which written notification of cancellation must be received by the Company

Amount of cancellation charge as a % of the total price of Holiday inclusive of extras but exclusive of insurance premia

61 DAYS OR MORE *DEPOSIT

29 - 60 days 25% or deposit whichever higher

15 - 28 days 50% or deposit whichever higher

7 - 14 days 75% or deposit whichever higher

6 days or less or after departure date 100%

* or applicable deposit amount per person of two years of age and over, whichever is the higher.

Cruises bear a 100% cancellation fee if cancelled less than 65 days prior to the scheduled departure date. If cruises are cancelled between 65 days and 120 days prior to the scheduled departure date, only the deposit is lost. If the cancellation of a cruise is made more than 120 days before the scheduled departure date, no cancellation fees apply. In respect of scheduled services and charter flights, sea passages and coach transportation, the scale of cancellation charges set out above applies only in the event that any air/sea/coach/rail tickets issued are returned to the Company, otherwise a 100% cancellation charge as prescribed in the above table would be applicable in any circumstances. The customer should note that if the cancellation falls within the terms of his/her insurance cover, he/she may be able to claim a refund of his/her cancellation charges from his/her insurance company.

IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

This booking order constitutes an agreement between ROCS Travel and/or Charichelon Company Limited and/or Directions Travel Agency and the client for all intents and purposes of the law. The cancellation policy clauses included within this booking order shall not apply in the case of instant purchase air tickets and or accommodation / transfer services. In such cases, the full fare is payable at the time of the booking and in non-refundable irrespective of whether the said tickets at utilized or not.

14. TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is highly recommended that customers take out the travel insurance policy recommended by the Company for themselves and for those other persons for whom booking customers have booked, or that they arrange for an insurance policy themselves giving comparable or better cover under all sections.

15. THE CUSTOMER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

1. It is the responsibility of the customer who effected the booking to verify and ensure that himself/herself and the person/s on whose behalf he/she is effecting a booking are in possession of valid passports (which are valid for at least 6 months after the customer's scheduled date of return to Malta) and any appropriate visas. All customers are to make sure that they check passport and visa requirements as well as health formalities with the competent authorities well in advance of their scheduled departure. The customer is responsible for any charges, fines, damages and any other claims and liability that may be levied or put forward by any Maltese or foreign authority or entity for non-compliance with the laws and/or regulations in the relevant area and any such amounts will be recharged to the customer.
2. It is the customer's responsibility to verify with his/her doctor as to what vaccinations and inoculations are advisable for the chosen destination.
3. Airline regulations state that women twenty-eight weeks or more into pregnancy at the time of return travel must have a medical certificate revealing fitness to travel.
4. The booking customer shall ensure and be responsible for a reasonable standard of behaviour by himself/herself and by those persons for whom he/she has booked. The Company reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person/s as a customer/s if his/her behaviour is, in the Company's opinion or in the opinion of the airline pilot, hotelier or accommodation proprietor or manager or other person in authority, likely to cause distress, danger, damage or annoyance to other customers, employees, other people or to property. The customer fully and unconditionally understands and agrees that the Company in such circumstances shall not be held liable in any manner, including but not limited to liability to pay any refund, costs, compensation or damages incurred by any person whose behaviour is accordingly deemed to be unacceptable.

5. Any and all children travelling on a reduced price Holiday must be less than 12 years of age at the date of travel. The Company does not normally check passports to verify the dates of birth of a customer, including children. Should a customer booked as a child result to be twelve years or older on the date of travel, he/she will not be permitted to board the plane/ship/catamaran.

16. PARTICULAR CUSTOMERS & CIRCUMSTANCES

Customers with special needs are welcome by the Company provided they are accompanied by an able-bodied companion and do not require special assistance from the Company's personnel or representatives. The Company reserves the right to refuse to accept anyone as a customer if it is felt by the Company that the individual cannot cope with the requirements of the particular tour organized by it and/or who may require services or facilities that the Company cannot guarantee will be available. The Company does not feel that it is possible for it to provide the level of assistance required by a customer with special needs whilst on a tour organized by it without compromising its commitment to other individuals on the tour. Customers are kindly advised to inform the Company before booking if they have any disability or pre-existing medical condition and the Company will be happy to advise them accordingly.

Whilst the Company welcomes customers of 70 years and over, it is a requirement of insurance companies, that prior to departure they receive a letter from such persons' doctors confirming that such persons are fit and well enough to go on the chosen Holiday. We regret that we can only accept customers of 80 years and over, if they are accompanied by a younger and fit person whilst on Holiday.

IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

This booking order constitutes an agreement between ROCS Travel and/or Charichelon Company Limited and/or Directions Travel Agency and the client for all intents and purposes of the law. The cancellation policy clauses included within this booking order shall not apply in the case of instant purchase air tickets and or accommodation / transfer services. In such cases, the full fare is payable at the time of the booking and in non-refundable irrespective of whether the said tickets at utilized or not.

17. DIFFICULTIES/COMPLAINTS

The Company will do its utmost to ensure that its customers have an enjoyable Holiday. However, should the customer have any difficulty or complaint relating to the overseas part of his/her Holiday, the customer must at the earliest opportunity notify in writing or other appropriate form the supplier of the goods or services concerned at the place where the goods or services were supplied and the Company's tour leader or representative or agent in the particular place outside Malta or the Company in order for the matter to be investigated and seen to as soon as possible. Moreover, the customer must notify the Company in writing, of the complaint within 7 days of the date of his/her return from the Holiday. This because of the difficulties of investigating a complaint long after the event. The Company shall not accept any liability in respect of claims received by it in writing after the aforementioned 7 day period and/or which have not been reported as aforesaid to the supplier of the goods or services concerned and the Company's tour leader or representative or agent in the particular place outside Malta or the Company at the earliest opportunity.

18. SCHEDULES, ATTACHMENTS, APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

Any schedules and attachments to this Agreement shall form an integral part thereof and shall be read, construed, understood and applicable as one document. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with Maltese Law and the Maltese Courts/Tribunals shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any claim or dispute under this Agreement.

19. CUSTOMER/S

Apart from the customer making the booking, any and all persons in respect of whom and on whose behalf the customer making the booking has effected a booking in respect of a Holiday, shall also be considered to be customers and all the clauses in this Agreement, including any schedules and attachments thereto shall be applicable in the same manner and to the same extent in respect thereof as they are applicable in respect of the customer who effected the booking.
