The Greater Mauldin Chamber of Commerce cordially invites you to attend the 2017 Annual Banquet

LETTER FROM THE MAYOR

If you are a new resident or business locating in Mauldin, I would like to personally welcome you to this great city nestled in the Upstate of South Carolina. You will be joining one of the fastest growing communities in the Southeast as our population almost doubled in size to about 25,000 residents in the past decade. Of the 270 municipalities in the state Mauldin is now the 17th largest city.

If you are a new resident or contemplating moving into our city, you have made or hopefully will be making a great choice to relocate here and become a citizen of our great city. We take the responsibility of measuring up to our city tag line of "Expect Great Things" very seriously. We are, according to movoto.com, the "Top 5 Best Places to Live in South Carolina." All of our city employees are ready to serve you as they perform their daily tasks. In a National ranking of the two cities ranked in South Carolina, Mauldin was ranked the 29th best city to retire in, with the City of Charleston ranked 20th.

Our police department is proud of its CALEA certification, and our fire department is one of only 37 of over 600 departments in the state with an ISO rating of 2. We were ranked as the "Safest City in SC" by onlyinyourstate.

com. Our public works department provides Mauldin residents with clean neighborhoods through efficient garbage and recycling collection services along with leaf/limb and debris pickup services. Through structured preventive maintenance programs, our street and sewer departments insure that our infrastructure is performing as it should be.

We are pleased to see positive growth trends with our businesses and residential communities as revenues and permit activity continues to increase. Our most recent financial audit indicated that we are very sound financially and we were upgraded by our bond rating agencies to AA+ by Moody's and A1 by S&P. According to Zippa.com, of the 62 cities ranked in the state of SC Mauldin ranked the fourth most successful city.

Mauldin's recreation programs and facilities are first rate and state of the art. We offer some of the best recreation opportunities of any city in the state with 78 acres of parks in addition to the Mauldin Sports Center that includes a gymnasium, a climbing wall and a full line of fitness equipment and classes. Our senior citizens' program continues to grow each and every year, and our seniors stay extremely active.

Mauldin's Cultural Center, located adjacent to the Sports Center and a stone's throw from city hall, continues to serve as a resource for the community by housing the Greater Mauldin Chamber of Commerce and various civic groups. Our newest addition to this venue is our outdoor amphitheater, hosting several performances including "Beaching Fridays" this year for eight weekends.

Event attendance and building usage continues to set new records for this venue. "Expect Greater Things" as we continue to invest in this facility both internally and externally.

If you are a business opening or relocating in our city, we also welcome you and take great pride in being the most "business friendly" city in the Upstate. Our goal is to make your transition to our city as seamless as possible. We were ranked by nerdwallet.com in the "Top 10 Cities in South Carolina to Start a Business." You will also enjoy the benefits of the city's great working relationship with what we consider the most professional Chamber of Commerce in the Upstate.

Family values are at the core of our community here in Mauldin. We hope that you will agree that we offer a high quality of life where you can "Expect Greater Things!" On behalf of your city council and your employees, we welcome you to the City of Mauldin.

CALL ME TODAY.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Mauldin! “Our Time has Come” is a phrase that can readily be seen in action through the new development happening all throughout the city of Mauldin. From expanding programming at its cultural center, giving residents and business a sense of community, increased quality of life and a defining place, to the burgeoning office mecca along I-385 corridor, Mauldin is a town on the move.

Peripherally, the city continues to expand its commercial, industrial and residential offerings. Brookfield Office Park and the surrounding area has seen its best year to date with the announcement of Morley; launching a new diversified customer service company bringing more than 270 new jobs, Anyone Home Inc. opening a call center and expecting to hire 570 workers over the next five years and TTI, Turbine Technologies Inc., a power systems supplier that will ultimately hire 50-75 people with a focus on hiring veterans. As well, “several projects coming through the pipeline of development” will add another $200 million plus in development and well over 1,000 jobs should they come to fruition”; according to City Administrator Trey Eubanks.

Additionally CUICAR and what looks like the real possibility of landing an industrial unit at Mauldin’s last certified site, thanks to the work of retired economic director John Gardner, peripheral generators of business are coming into their own and impacting the local community in ways beyond business development. More business means more housing and service industry needs.

While the peripheral picture for the city is bright, Mauldin has plenty of infill opportunities within its developing downtown that will drive the landscape for the next several years. There are plenty of developers, residential and commercial, who are beginning to look at the ripeness of the market and drawing their own conclusions. One need look no further than the development of Tropical Grille on North Main to see what kind of impact a $1 million dollar investment will make in the city. A little further up North Main and the final steps of a new 18,000-square-foot federal project will greatly impact the palate of 276. To add to these exciting projects are the impressive demographics that make Mauldin a standout opportunity. Best median household income in the county, highest disposable income available, highest on time graduation rate in the county boasted at Mauldin High School and a recent boost in its financial rating to 2-AA gives one a sense that this city’s time has come. North and south, there is a redevelopment palate waiting for visionary investors willing to take on the challenge of an ever changing dynamic.

If that wasn’t enough excitement and enthusiasm to keep the city hopping for a while, the city garnered some very impressive accolades through social media:

- Top 10 Most Successful Cities in South Carolina | zippia.com
- Top 5 Best Places to Live in South Carolina | movoto.com
- Top 13 Happiest Cities in South Carolina | onlyinyourstate.com
- Top 10 Best Cities in South Carolina to Start a Business | nerdwallet.com
- Top 10 Best Cities for Home Ownership in South Carolina | nerdwallet.com
- No. 1 Safest City in South Carolina | onlyinyourstate.com
- Top 10 Safest Cities in South Carolina | safewise.com

The city continues to work hard at recruiting developing partners to help enhance the corridors and entryways of the city and expects that over the next year or two citizens will begin to see some really exciting opportunities come to fruition. Even with all the enthusiasm that seems to be growing, there is a great group of businesses who have paved the way to make Mauldin a great place for all.

“It’s really good to be part of the dynamic changes and growth our city is experiencing,” said Mauldin Mayor Dennis Raines, who is serving his second term. “It takes a team to make it all happen and with a great council, staff and input from citizens, Mauldin’s time has really come!”

The Ryan Nicholas Inn is a beautiful, 11,000-square-foot southern mansion set on seven wooded acres that has the feel of times past. The Inn, named after the two sons of proprietor Kim Becherer, was designed and built to accommodate wedding ceremonies and receptions. It is filled with ornate wood and plaster moldings, Brazilian cherry hardwood floors, crystal chandeliers, fluted columns and period furnishings, wall coverings and draperies. In the center of the mansion is a 2,000-square-foot Gathering Room. This room features a 24-foot ceiling, wrap-around balcony and grand “Gone With the Wind”-style staircase. Experience the most romantic ceremony on the staircase, followed by dancing the night away under the crystal chandeliers at your reception. End your dream evening in the Crystal Swan Honeymoon Suite.

Fairy tales do come true at the Ryan Nicholas Inn, from an intimate 50-guest reception up to 350-guest gala. The Inn is an all-inclusive venue, taking care of every detail, including its own catering prepared by the executive chef, and a full beer, wine and liquor license.

Kim Becherer and her father, a retired chemical engineer, designed and built the inn, which opened in 2000. The inn has earned seven four-diamond awards from AAA and has hosted 795 weddings. “When you love your job, it never seems like work, Kim said. “It is just a great life!”

Mauldin prides itself on its quality of life and nothing exemplifies that more than the recreation opportunities and facilities made available to the community. The Mauldin Recreation Department provides various opportunities to join a team, enjoy the outdoors, stay healthy and interact with others. We offer programs and activities for all ages and skill levels. Another staple of the Mauldin community is its strong youth athletic programs. We offer baseball, softball, tackle football, cheerleading, lacrosse and basketball. Below is an overview of each youth sports program.

Baseball/softball – Ages 4-16

EVENTS

The Mauldin Recreation Department also participates and helps organize other family events and activities to benefit the community. The Mauldin Miracle League calls Sunset Park its home and provides baseball for children with disabilities. Sunset Park is also the home of the Mauldin Maulers, which is a wheelchair softball team for adults. The Maulers host an annual tournament that brings teams from around the country into the city of Mauldin. Mauldin has also hosted games and tournaments for the growing international sports of Rugby and Cricket.

The recreation department assists in the organization of the Veterans Day and Memorial Day services at the Mauldin Veterans Memorial each year. The most popular event each year in the City of Mauldin is the annual Easter Egg Drop. This event takes place at Sunset Park and brings thousands of participants each year to Mauldin.

PARKS

The City of Mauldin offers five parks for everyone's enjoyment. These parks offer playing fields, walking paths, playgrounds and shelters. MAULDIN CULTURAL CENTER

The City of Mauldin welcomes Keira Kitchings as the new Mauldin Cultural Center director. She brings a wealth of experience and ability with her in the role of director. Having served the Arts Council of York County, the American Culinary Federation in planning and several non-profits, Kitchings is continuously working to add new events and programming for the citizens of Mauldin through the center.

“I plan for this center to be the hub of culture and the arts within the community,” said Kitchings, who hit the ground running. This summer, she expedited the renovation of two classrooms for The Art Haven School of the Arts, which had been operating in the Golden Strip for 19 years. Looking to relocate, they found their new home in Mauldin. Throughout the week, The Art Haven offers classes in pottery, watercolor, sketching, ink and pencil drawing, and other multimedia arts to youth and adults alike. In addition to visual arts, the Cultural Center continues to offer lessons in vocal arts, guitar, wood working, and ballroom dance. The most recent addition to the roster is youth cooking, classes where kids ages 4 to 14 try their hand at culinary arts.

With the summer season came two new series — Every Friday evening in June, Beachin’ Fridays presents live performances by local beach bands. Saturday mornings from June through August are reserved for the Mauldin Downtown Market, which hosts more than 30 local produce vendors, local restaurant vendors, local artisans and a kids zone.

For the past six years, the Cultural Center has partnered with the SC Barbecue Association, the parks, recreation, public works, police and fire departments to host Sooie., Mauldin’s Annual BBQ Cook-off. Twenty-five cooks come from all over South Carolina to show off their barbecue skills. Friday evening kicks off the event with live music and an “Anything But” competition, where cooks can cook anything but pulled pork. The event continues Saturday afternoon with another live band, a kids zone and a sanctioned pulled pork competition. Visitors can purchase tasting passes for the event, allowing them to taste samples from each cooker and vote on their favorite; they can also purchase pints to take some ‘cue home for later.

This year, Kitchings expanded the Cultural Center’s performance series with the inaugural Broadway Under the Stars, an event that showcases the talents of local theater professionals performing Broadway favorites live in the center’s outdoor amphitheater. Spring will also yield a series of comedians, the first being James Gregory, “America’s funniest comedian.”

But don’t worry; Mauldin hasn’t forgotten about winter festivities. Partnering with the Greater Mauldin Chamber of Commerce, Mauldin’s holiday efforts have tripled resulting in Mauldin’s 12 Days of Christmas. The program runs Dec. 1 through Dec. 12 and will be jam-packed with events including Santa’s workshop, pictures with Santa, a tree lighting, a parade, an outdoor movie, a spirits tasting, musical performances and more.

Kitchings plans to expand current programming and create new events for the Mauldin Cultural Center. For a schedule of events and classes, visit www.mauldinculturalcenter.org or call (864) 335-4862.

EDUCATION

MAULDIN MIDDLE SCHOOL: A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

When you arrive on Mauldin Middle School's campus and walk through the hallways it quickly becomes evident why the school is considered to be one of the best middle schools in Greenville County.

The Principal of Mauldin Middle School is Christopher Kilian, and he is in his second year as principal of the school. He expressed his feeling about the school in this way: "Mauldin Middle School is a very special place because of the remarkable people we have here. Our students, faculty, staff and parent community care greatly about helping our students reach their full potential. It is this strong partnership with the community that makes our school so exceptional. It is our goal to create a collaborative learning community and to prepare all students to become life-long learners who are responsible and productive citizens."

The motto for the faculty and staff at Mauldin Middle School is Professional Excellence. Every Minute. Every Day. The faculty and staff understand the great responsibility they have when working with the students. "We are not making a product or selling an item," Kilian said, "We are working with great kids every day and recognize the impact we have on them will last a lifetime. Our faculty and staff understand this wonderful responsibility. The students are our future and we believe that the future is very bright."

Mauldin Middle School opened in the fall of 1999 and has almost 1,000 students. The faculty and staff consists of 66 certified teachers, four administrators, and 30 staff members. In addition to helping students develop world class

skills and life and career characteristics by their course offerings, they also are continuing to integrate technology into their curriculum to improve student learning. During the 2016-2017 school year, all students at Mauldin Middle School received a Chromebook which is used for instructional purposes. These Chromebooks are utilized by the teachers and the students to enhance the degree of learning.

The academic program at Mauldin Middle School is extremely competitive and they pride themselves in providing students with the opportunity to take seven courses for high school credit. Students may embark in a more rigorous course load by advancing to Algebra I, Geometry, English 1, Spanish, Virtual PE, Google Basics and Keyboarding for high school credit. This in turn allows the student to take more AP courses once they enter high school.

A scheduling committee was formed last school year to identify a new bell schedule which would best meet the evolving needs of students and teachers. The new bell schedule, which was adopted for the 2016-2017 school year, provides students with an additional related arts period. Students now have two periods of related arts each school day. This additional related arts period is extremely valuable for the future success of our students as they explore areas in which they are passionate. The new bell schedule also provides students with "flex time," a period of additional instructional time during the school day set aside specifically for teachers to meet students where they are academically. Students receive either assistance in a content area in which they are struggling, enrichment in a content area in which they are excelling, or individualized guidance in completing their assigned academic tasks from teachers.

Mauldin Middle School has made a concerted effort to recognize the wonderful achievements attained by their students. A five part student recognition plan has been implemented to celebrate students' successes. This five part recognition program includes the Principal's Honor Roll, A/B Honor Roll, B.U.G. (Bringing Up Grades) Honor Roll, Premium Outdoor Lunch Passes, and the monthly Mustang Excellence Award. These recognitions are earned by students who demonstrate academic excellence, model exceptional citizenship, and exude strong leadership skills.

The students at Mauldin Middle School have the opportunity to participate in many extra-curricular activities. Some of these activities include basketball, softball, baseball, soccer, volleyball, National Junior Beta Club, Sandlapper Club, Girl's Science Club, Battle of the Brains, Student Council, Be A Fan Club, STEP Team, yearbook, school music and drama performances, band, strings, choral competitions and concerts and many more.

It is clear that Mauldin Middle School is committed to creating an environment which helps students reach their full potential. "It is an honor to be the principal at such a wonderful school with amazing students and staff," Kilian said. "I welcome all potential parents and students to check out the many exciting opportunities taking place at our school."

Bon Secours St. Francis Cancer Center at Millennium

104 Innovation Dr.
Greenville, SC 29607
(864) 603-6200

Located at St. Francis Millennium the 65,000-square foot cancer treatment center is a high-touch, high-tech healing environment. Every aspect of the building is informed by evidence-based design and the latest research on what improves treatment outcomes. The design encourages a sense of control and optimism among patients and their families, while supporting a multidisciplinary, team-based approach to care. By centralizing outpatient cancer treatment in one location, the center eliminates stress-inducing travel for patients in treatment, incorporating the latest advances in cancer treatment all under one roof.

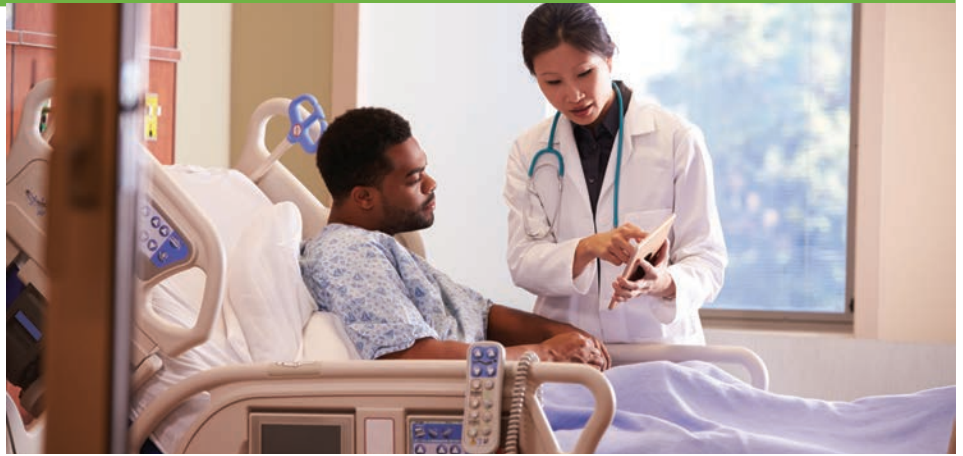

SPARTANBURG REGIONAL HEALTHCARE SYSTEM

Gibbs Cancer Center & Research Institute

2759 S. Highway 14
Greer, South Carolina 29651
(864) 530-6400

Gibbs Cancer Center & Research Institute at Pelham Medical Center is expanding with a new facility, which will be complete in 2018. Ground was broken in May 2016 for the $65 million cancer center, which will be 198,000 square feet and seven stories. With cancer treatment and support services under one roof, the new facility will also house research, education and a healing environment for patients. Numerous physicians will collaborate to incorporate technology across the fields of research and treatment to ensure that every patient receives the best personalized cancer care possible.

The facility also includes a Medical Office Building and the Pelham Ambulatory Surgery Center, Greer's first freestanding outpatient surgery center. The facility is a joint venture between local physicians and Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System.

Pelham Medical Center

25 Westmoreland Rd
Greer, SC 29651
(864) 530-6000

Nearly anyone who comes to an emergency room feels anxious or fearful. Thankfully, patients find compassion, quality care and low wait times when they walk through the doors of Pelham Medical Center's (PMC) emergency room.

Located at the intersection of Westmoreland Road and Highway 14 in Greer, Pelham Medical Center is one of Greer's most sought after medical facilities when it comes to convenience, access and prompt care.

As part of Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System, skilled physicians, clinical teams and support staff contribute to PMC's national certification in care, such as receiving accreditation as a primary stroke center in 2015, making PMC Greer's only primary stroke center. The hospital consistently earns high patient satisfaction scores and is nationally recognized for these efforts.

PMC is a 48-bed facility that provides services for a wide range of medical needs, including surgery, intensive care, emergency services, world-class cancer treatment and primary care. The center has a full array of outpatient and diagnostic services, and operating suites. All emergency room physicians are board-certified in emergency medicine and are prepared to handle all emergencies.

In 2015, Pelham Medical Center was certified with Primary Stroke Certification from the Healthcare Facilities Accreditation Program and is Greer's only primary stroke center.

Pelham Medical Center was recently recognized as one of 100 companies and organizations named The Best Places to Work in Healthcare for 2016 by Modern Healthcare. One of PMC's achievements is the teamwork embedded in the workplace, starting with hiring committed and passionate personnel, followed by careful training.

Adjacent to Pelham Medical Center is Gibbs Cancer Center & Research Institute at Pelham. Gibbs delivers comprehensive, personalized cancer care to patients in one convenient location. Gibbs specializes in medical oncology and radiation oncology. Along with prevention, diagnosis and treatment, Gibbs also offers genetic counseling, a center for health and healing and a cancer survivor program. The cancer center also offers patient navigators, who support cancer patients and make their experience easier by coordinating appointments, communicating with families and health care providers, arranging transportation, providing financial support paperwork, and arranging language interpreters.

Have you ever noticed that computer problems tend to happen when you least expect them - and always at the worst possible times?

If you have ever experienced a computer glitch (even something as simple as your Internet connection being slow) you know firsthand that it can bring your entire business to a screeching halt.

In today's business, technology is fast becoming the most important internal and external engine for revolutionizing how we bring products, operations, and services to their clients. As a result, organizations of all sizes are examining their strategies on how to best design, utilize and secure technology within their business.

This Chamber Member Only Offer Can Get You Out Of That Computer Bind - For FREE!

My name is Ashley Harris and I am the CEO of Tech Works. You may not have heard of us before but we are a local Managed Service Provider and IT Consulting Company. We've made it our mission to eliminate ongoing computer problems and frustrations for small and medium business owners like you in the Upstate.

I understand that there are a lot of options out there when it comes to finding the right partner for your business technology needs and that is why we have created a custom offer for Chamber Members Only. As a prospective client, we feel like you should have a chance to meet us and put us to the test before you entrust such a critical part of your business into our hands. For that reason, I'm giving out the first 2 hours of computer support for FREE to all New Clients.

Here are some of the things you can use your free support for:

- Network crashes constantly or constantly runs slow
- Printers not working right
- Error messages, hanging up, or suddenly crashing
- Internet issues
- Can't send or receive e-mail
- Can't setup that "cool new gadget"
- Possible virus infection
- Constant pop-up ads and spam
- Backups not running correctly
- Everything is all screwed up

Don't Have An Immediate Support Need? No Problem!
Activate Your Voucher Now And It Will Be Good For 1 Full Year!

To secure your 2 free hours of technical support, simply activate your voucher by calling me at 864-501-0415 or go to our website at www.techworksus.com/chamber and complete the activation form. This will allow me to open a support file for you in preparation for your call.
