MINIBUS BREAKDOWN

Just as a commercial vehicle could break down unexpectedly, so too could a minibus. The difference, however, is that it can be up to 16 people affected. And in many cases, the inconvenience could be not reaching an important event on time or missing out on a special occasion all-together.

So it's important to choose a recovery service that includes both roadside and at home recovery and appropriate replacement hire vehicles for all passengers, onward travel via the right public transport or the option to stay in a hotel without extra cost to the company.
