

SHOPPING REB UNLIMITED

Welcome to Shopping REB Unlimited! I started this site to promote affordable, yet on-trend fashion for women. Last year, my world changed forever when my husband died unexpectedly. For months after as I grieved, my mind was constantly thinking of something I could do for my future but would honor Bob's memory. With a love for fashion and an independent spirit, Shopping REB Unlimited was started. REB are his initials.

And, there's more to come! As I launch into uncertain, yet exciting territory, my plan is to grow my assortment to other areas, such as accessories, home and apparel for all genders and ages.
