The Misses Horneck,
by Sir Joshua Reynolds, P.R.A.

Miss Catherine Horneck (known as "Little Comeday") was born in 1754; married Henry William Bunbury in 1771; died in 1799.

Miss Mary Horneck (known as "The Jossamy Bride") married in 1779 General Francis Gwyn; she was bed-chamber lady to Queen Charlotte; died in 1840.

The two sisters were daughters of Captain Kane William Horneck, and besides sitting to Sir Joshua separately, sat to him together in 1766, and Reynolds records it as "two in one picture".

The picture was exhibited at the British Institution in 1852 by Sir Henry Bunbury, Bart.

The picture was engraved by Samuel Cousins in 1825, and Tom Taylor says "The original of these charming sisters is at Barton."

It is exquisitely refined in drawing, and delicate, and peculiarly gray in tone. The picture, which is of the highest quality, remained in the possession of Sir Henry Pembury, Bart. until 1907.

The size is  $26\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{1}{2}$

Portrait of Colonel Donald Macleod, of St. Kilda.

By J. Opie, R. A.,

---

This picture is an unusually fine specimen of Opie's work, and, in common with most of his pictures, was never exhibited.

Colonel Macleod married a daughter of Sir John Macpherson, and saw much service in the army. He was made a General in 1837, and was created G.C.B. at the time of Queen Victoria's Coronation in 1838: he died in 1842. He was the father of Sir John Macpherson Macleod, of St. Kilda, whose portrait by Sir John Watson Gordon was exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1860, and again in 1862 at the International Exhibition. This picture by Watson Gordon, together with the Opie portrait above-mentioned, went into the family of the Revd. Hugh Alexander Macpherson, from whose Trustees ~~it~~ the latter was purchased some two years ago.

BERLIN

UNTER DEN LINDEN 31

2 - MAY 1912
3883

This photograph reproduces a splendid work of Rembrandt, which is in excellent condition.

Up to now the picture was practically unknown.

Representing a man seated with a knife in his hand, it was probably intended for the Apostle St. Bartholomew.

As is shown by the genuine signature and date (1654) the picture belongs to the Master's later and most important period.

MONYPENNY, David, of Pitmilly, was born in May 1769, and passed Advocate on the 2nd of July 1791. He was appointed Sheriff-Depute of the County of Fife on the 7th February 1807, and married Maria-Sophia, daughter of Sir George Abercrombie, fourth Baronet of Birken:bog, by whom he left no issue. He was constituted Solicitor General for Scotland on 22nd February 1811, and advanced to the Bench on the 23rd February 1813, in room of Lord Woodhouselee, whom he also succeeded as a Lord of Justiciary. His Lordship was nominated one of the Lords Commissioners of the Jury Court on the 13th June 1815, at the original constitution of that Court. He resigned his offices in October 1830, and died in 1850 (24th December) 82 years.

Dear Sir,

10 APR 1912

The following facts relative to the history of our Rembrandt picture
no 3888, may be of interest to you.

The picture can be traced back to the collection of a certain Graf Laval (sometimes written Lavalle) who himself frequently assisted the

Empress Catherine II of Russia
in the acquisition of masterpieces (largely Rembrandts of about the same period as our picture) for the Hermitage

Graf Laval's collection was inherited by his daughter, who married a certain Prince Trubetskoy.

On the death of Prince Trubetskoy
the collection was divided among her three daughters

Our Rembrandt together with some other pictures fell to the share of Louise Trubetskoj, who married
Peter van Wawzdoff. Their grandson, Wassilji van Wawzdoff inherited the picture, and it is from him that we have bought it.

Yours faithfully

Colin Arneson
