Rosencrans Book Talks

Wednesday, January 13

FLORENCE GORDON

BY BRIAN MORTON

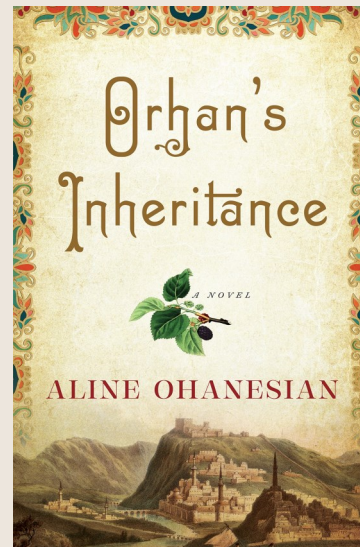

A feisty, cantankerous 75-year-old writer and former feminist activist must deal with new-found fame and a long-absent family.

Wednesday, February 10

ORHAN'S INHERITANCE

BY ALINE OHANESIAN

100 years after the Armenian genocide, this debut novel exhibits an impressive grasp of history through the painful odyssey of one family's experiences.

Wednesday, March 9

DEAR COMMITTEE MEMBERS

BY JULIE SCHUMACHER

A hilarious academic novel that is short on pages and long on insights into what our society "values" today. Written entirely in letters of recommendation!

Join us for a series of lectures with Q & A on the best in contemporary fiction. Each session will include literary background, extensive material on the author's life and creative development as well as intensive analysis of the book. For more information, please visit www.bookswithsandra.com.

Let's meet for coffee at 9:30 am.
The Book Talks will start promptly at 10:00 am.
