Guide

2015

Creating premium chocolate is an art that requires great skill, passion and dedication. And nobody knows that better than the owners of Suzi's Sweet Shoppe, Susan and Stan Hordych. Since opening their doors in 1998, they've developed and refined their unique hand-dipped chocolates and candy with absolute devotion. It's evident in every tongue-tingling sweet they produce.

Equally important is their commitment to customer service. With a mission of giving customers more than what they ask for and making sure what they're serving is the best it can be, Stan and Susan see themselves as being in the business of making people happy. Synonymous with excellence, Suzi's Sweet Shoppe is sure to satisfy with a product line that includes over 100 varieties of handmade confections.
