WARDEN'S INTRODUCTION

Teddies is a very special place in the Summer Term. The School expands into our outdoor space, particularly at weekends, bringing the fields to life with sport, impromptu gatherings and laughter. With doors and windows thrown open, we all enjoy the fevered preparations for Gaudy as we catch fleeting moments of music, dance and drama.

As ever, there is a great deal going on this term – for our pupils and for families. Check the weekend schedule in the coming pages and enjoy what you can.

I look forward to seeing many of you during Gaudy Week.

Stephen Jones

Notes on the Weekend Programme

Headliner: Low Island

7.30pm, The North Wall

We are delighted to welcome this term's headline act, the alt-rock band Low Island, who are rapidly making a name for themselves. With a line-up featuring recent OSE Carlos Posada, Felix Higginbottom and Jamie Jay, along with Jacob Lively, the band's music resonates with the themes of early adulthood: 'A lot of our lyrics are about quite simple experiences we and our friends have gone through in recent years. We're all in our mid-twenties, which seems like quite a formative moment in life'. Wonderland Magazine said, 'Low Island fuse together electronic and acoustic waves, creating chilled-out, road-trip-worthy tunes. Named after a small rock in the Atlantic, Low Island look to their local Oxford music scene and typical 20s angst to create sounds made of shuffling melodies and emotive lyricism'.

Free of charge, no booking required.

At The North Wall

Geoff Dunlop and Dean Byass

Time After Time

12.00 – 4.00pm

Two artists present work on the theme of time, 'perhaps the most slippery of the essential concepts'. Through prints and photographs, the artists highlight their sense of the fragmented, illusory nature of time.

Free of charge, no booking required.

WEEKENDS IN OXFORD AND SUMMERTOWN

Lady Macbeth

With two cinemas in Oxford, pupils will have every opportunity to catch up with Lady Macbeth, the latest film by Florence Pugh. Flossie, who left Teddies in 2014, stars in this award-winning adaptation of Nikolai Leskov's novella Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk, on release from April 28th, rated 15.

G&D's Ice Cream Parlour

G&D's is an Oxford institution like no other and a great option for a sunny Sunday afternoon. The brainchild of an Oxford student who felt the city was crying out for a café offering high-quality ice cream with the chance of a hot drink and some top-notch food, G&D's has been delighting students and residents for over 20 years.

Randolph Hotel

The location for the Tilly's House Dinner in April, this landmark hotel in the heart of the city is as well-known for its elegant, eye-catching architecture as it is for its exceptional service and charm. Colin Dexter's world-famous detective, Inspector Morse, was regularly to be seen at The Randolph, and it is a popular haunt for actors and politicians.

Culture Vultures

Being located at the heart of a culturally sophisticated city has many benefits. In addition to the impressive shows at our very own North Wall Gallery, top exhibitions in Oxford this summer include: Degas to Picasso: Creating Modernism in France at the Ashmolean until 7th May; Photographs of Central Asia and the Middle East at the Pitt Rivers until 30th April; and a quirky show, Portraits from a Chip Shop, at Modern Art Oxford and The Old Fire Station from 2nd May – 2nd July.

Holywell Music Room

Coffee Concerts take place at the Holywell Music Room from 11.15am – 12.15pm every Sunday (a quick dash after Chapel ... with HM's permission!). The spring season includes the Vertavo, Tippett, Heath and Piatti String Quartets, the Aquinas Piano Trio and the Adderbury Ensemble. More details at: www.coffeeconcerts.com. Tickets: £6 for 17 and under; £12 for adults.
