The holder of this certificate has successfully completed a two-week United Nations course at an advanced level of English.

Through thirty hours of classroom instruction and a guided visit to the United Nations headquarters in New York, the student:

- Developed a solid overview of the United Nations, learning about the history and mission of the United Nations, vocabulary pertinent to international relations, and professional etiquette in communication, including public speaking.
- Developed techniques in brainstorming, techniques for mediation and conflict resolution, and prepared for and participated in debates to learn practical applications of the work the United Nations performs.
- Furthered his/her ability to pursue a career in international relations by developing the skillsets outlined above. The student also explored possible career paths to and within the United Nations.
