Elect No Strangers!

Every year since 1990 David Bailey Associates has published Elect No Strangers to help interested Virginians become acquainted with candidates for the General Assembly. Twenty-eight years ago (1989) in an attempt to write a haiku, I penned the words that became the title for this directory of candidates.

*Elect No Strangers!
If possible, elect friends.
If not, make friends of those elected.*
David Bailey

This directory includes candidates listed in the order that they will appear on the ballot for the statewide candidates and the House of Delegates. However prior to 60 days before the November 7th election, party nominees that withdraw may be replaced by new candidates. Our staff sought to reach every candidate, and in most instances this occurred. However when this was not possible, we chose to include the information from the Virginia Department of Elections and or the Virginia Public Access Project. We thank the Democratic and Republican Caucus staff in the House for their assistance.

Note that asterisks(*) indicate incumbents.

Official information regarding the November election is available from local registrars and from the State Department of Elections web site, elections.virginia.gov.

Another excellent source for campaign information is the Virginia Public Access Project, www.vpap.org.

As we often say, this directory includes all of the 'winners'—all of those who will serve. This will be correct until there's another successful candidate who duplicates Jackie Stump's 1989 winning write-in campaign for the House of Delegates.

While David Bailey's name is connected with this publication, it would not be possible without the professional assistance of Hayley Allison, Doug Weimer, Kristen Bailey-Hardy & John Sours. We thank Wordsprint and all other advertisers who enabled us to distribute complimentary copies.

HELPING YOUR BUSINESS SUCCEED

www.sbsd.virginia.gov | (804) 786-6585

For most small businesses, opportunities and capital funding are difficult to access. The Virginia Department of Small Business and Supplier Diversity assists small, women- and minority-owned business in navigating Virginia's procurement process. Our Commonwealth wants to help you succeed. Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe's Executive Order No. 20 calls for increased participation by small businesses in the state procurement process.

7,031 APPROVED MICRO BUSINESSES IN VIRGINIA

A Micro Business is categorized by its SWaM certification, 25 or fewer employees and earnings of no more than $3 million in average annual revenue over the most recent three-year period.

7 AGENCY OFFICES AROUND THE COMMONWEALTH

serve Virginians including locations in:
Abingdon, Fairfax, Hampton, Lynchburg,
Richmond, Virginia Beach and Petersburg.

IN RICHMOND

*Tune in for the latest
Richmond News
from host
David Bailey
and Virginia Elected officials.*

This Week in Richmond, hosted by Virginia Capitol veteran David Bailey, features discussions with Virginia newsmakers, including elected officials and top administrators. Most episodes originate from the Capitol in Richmond.

In addition to the presenting station, WCVE (Richmond), This Week in Richmond is seen on WVPT (Harrisonburg), WBRA (Roanoke), WHTJ (Charlottesville), WHRO (Norfolk), TV-48 Norfolk's Neighborhood Network, and other cable systems providing statewide coverage.

Program schedules are available on the Facebook page for This Week in Richmond and shows are available on YouTube.

If you are interested in sponsoring This Week in Richmond, please call David Bailey at 804-643-5554 or send an email to TWIR@CapitolSquare.com.

Through a variety of programs—for high school and college leaders to first-time political candidates and influential business and community leaders—the Sorensen Institute has established itself as a powerful and effective force for restoring public confidence in our political system.

At the heart of every Sorensen program are three central themes: ethics in public service, the power of bipartisanship, and a concentrated study of public policy issues. Each program provides an opportunity for leaders to develop meaningful relationships with Virginians of differing political viewpoints who hail from every region of the Commonwealth.

Apply or learn more at www.sorenseninstitute.org. Financial aid and scholarships are available.

“Sorensen has been a very important part of my political life. One of the greatest things I brought out of the program was the ability to compromise. Compromise is not losing. Compromise is coming out with the best that you can where everybody wins something. I think the Sorensen Institute ingrains that in their graduates. And for those who go on to elected office, that is a very valuable asset.”

State Senator John Cosgrove

“The Sorensen Institute is an invaluable investment in yourself for any person who has what it takes to be a public servant. What I expected to be just another leadership program instead became a foundation of principles that will continue to guide me as I strive to be the best leader for the people I serve. As a graduate of the Political Leaders Program, I still benefit from the strong relationships with my classmates, the meaningful experiences I had during the program, and memories that will last a lifetime.”

Delegate Lashrecse Aird

Mark "Alive!" Twain

"The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated."

—Mark Twain

"Mark Twain breathes life into history and will leave a smile on your face. From Missouri in the 19th century to Virginia in the 21st, Mark Twain's insights and humor are timeless."

Experience the wit of one of America's greatest humorists when Richmond's David Bailey presents Mark Twain.

David Bailey, president of David Bailey Associates, is a former college history professor and a veteran of more than 500 performances of Mark Twain Alive, in 13 states.

For more information visit www.vccqm.org or Mark Twain Alive on Facebook.
