INVITED LEGISLATORS

Representative Mike Jones was elected to the Alabama House of Representatives on November 2, 2010.

Prior to that, he served on the Andalusia City Council from 2000 to 2008, and served as mayor pro-tem from 2004 to 2008.

Representative Jones holds a B.S. Degree with Honors from Birmingham Southern University and a Law Degree from the University of Alabama.

He is a member of the Alabama State Bar Association and Andalusia Chamber of Commerce and is a member of a number of community and civic organizations including Andalusia Downtown Redevelopment Authority, Alabama Easter Seals, and the National Rifle Association.

Representative Jones is married to Kathy Harper Jones and they are the parents of two daughters; Olivia and Sophia. He is a deacon at First Baptist Church of Andalusia.

Representative David Sessions was elected to the Alabama House of Representatives in a special election held on May 10, 2011.

He graduated from Mobile County High School in 1978 and is a farmer and co-owner of Sessions Farms, a diversified family farming operation in South Mobile County.

Representative Sessions currently serves as president of Grand Bay Water Works, and Producers Gin Co. LLC. Additionally, he serves as a supervisor on the board of the Mobile County Soil and Water Conservation District.

He is past president of the Alabama Pecan Growers Association.

Representative Sessions is married to Lisa Driskell Sessions and they have three children. He and his family attend First Baptist Church in Grand Bay.

TUESDAY BUSINESS SESSION

Mr. Steve Kottak

Senior Dir, External Relations - Trade Marketing RAI Trade Marketing Services Company

Steve Kottak joined Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation in 1988 as a sales representative in Virginia. He held various trade marketing management positions, including director of military sales, division sales manager and key accounts manager, prior to his promotion in 1996 to the government relations department at the company's Louisville, Kentucky corporate headquarters.

Following positions of increasing responsibility, Kottak was promoted to the position of corporate and regulatory affairs director for British American Tobacco in Sydney, Australia, where he led a team to engage the retail and wholesale trade on legislative industry issues.

Following the merger between Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation and R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company in 2004, Kottak returned to the company's headquarters in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

In his current position, Kottak leads the Company's local government relations team.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Kottak earned an MBA degree from the University of Louisville in 1998 and a bachelor's degree in Marketing from the University of Dayton in 1988.

Mr. Steve Stomel
CEO

ProCat Distribution Technologies

Steve Stomel has worked in the distribution industry since 1973. He founded ProCat in 2001 with the goal of helping distribution companies improve the accuracy and productivity of their operations.

Over the past 17 years he has helped over 150 distribution companies to implement ProCat's technology. During this time, he broadened ProCat's product offering so that today every function that take place in a warehouse is supported by a ProCat solution. Prior to ProCat, Stomel spent 27 years in the convenience distribution industry. He was responsible for an operation with three distribution centers and 400 employees. Today, Steve lives in Cherry Hill, New Jersey with Andrea, his wife of 32 years, their three children, Jeff, Julie, Brian, and Colby, the family dog.

One, two - Its good for you
Three, four - They all want more
Five, six - It comes in sticks
Seven, eight - The flavor's great
