THE “PARKS” PIECE

Windham’s Parks & Preserves Winter Trails

Please...
CARRY OUT
WHAT YOU
CARRIED IN

Once we lose the beauty of the fall foliage, the Windham Parks and Recreation will groom trails at our bigger parks and preserves. Whether you like X-country skiing, taking the family on snowshoe hikes, or just getting outside to enjoy nature, you’ll find plenty of places to play. Sledding and ice skating are also on the menu of things Windham Parks and Recreation has to offer, so there will be plenty of fun things your family can find to do this winter. You don’t have to stay indoors just because there is snow on the ground—and since we can’t beat Mother Nature, we might as well join her!

SENIOR OFFERINGS

Joining forces with our neighbors

Bethel Historical Museum

Tuesday October 17

Join us for a trip to the charming town of Bethel, Maine, nestled in the foothills of the White Mountains. We will visit the Bethel Historical Museum which features eight exhibit galleries and nine period rooms spread between two of the town's earliest homes —the 1821 O'Neil Robinson House and the 1813 Dr. Moses Mason House. The Museum offers changing exhibits, maintains an extensive library and archival collection of books, manuscripts and photographs, plus thousands of historic objects that tell the story of the town of Bethel and surrounding region.

After our museum tour and a stop at the museum gift shop, we will head to a turn-of-the-century resort, The Bethel Inn, for a delicious lunch buffet. The Bethel Inn opened in July of 1913. The guests were mainly patients of Inn owner Dr. John George Gehring and were lawyers, executives, writers and doctors seeking rest and recuperation in the clean mountain air. Because of the frequency of wealthy visitors (including the New York Vanderbilts) Bethel became known as the "Harvard of the North."

The buffet offers a choice of either Lemon Pepper Chicken or Baked Stuffed Filet of Sole for your entrée and also includes soup du jour, salad, freshly baked bread, seasonal vegetables, potatoes or rice and coffee or tea.

Depart: 10:00 am Return: 3:30 pm Fee: $46.00 includes lunch and museum admission
