Survey on Suspensions and Expulsions of PK-3 Students

Earlier this week, BASA sent a survey to all members regarding the authority to suspend or expel students in pre-kindergarten through grade 3 for non-violent offenses. We strongly encourage you to respond to this survey since your input will inform legislation to be introduced later this fall. The deadline for responses is Friday, August 18. The link to the survey is available here: Administrator Survey.

Home Education and a Superintendent's Responsibilities

Home education (sometimes referred to as home schooling) is governed in this state by Ohio Revised Code 3321.14 and by Ohio Administrative Code 3301-34-03. In order for a child to be excused from compulsory attendance, a superintendent must fulfill certain responsibilities, which can be found at this link:

<http://education.ohio.gov/getattachment/Topics/Quality-School-Choice/Home-Schooling/Superintendent-Responsibilities-for-Home-educated-Students.pdf.aspx>

Home education should not be confused with home instruction, which is provided in a child's home by a licensed teacher when the child has an IEP and is unable to attend school due to a temporary or permanent disability.

The John G. Hauck Scholarship

A Tribute to the Education Profession

BASA Welcomes Applications and Contributions

2017 Awards

Purpose: The John G. Hauck Scholarship Award was established to honor BASA Executive Director Emeritus John Hauck and to provide support to a BASA member's dependent who is pursuing a career in education. Media coverage and national educational reports constantly emphasize that young people are not choosing education as a profession as they once did. The brightest and most talented are finding other vocations. This is happening at a time when their skills and talents are needed most. The John G. Hauck Scholarship Fund is an attempt to not only honor John and the education profession but also help students who have chosen education as a career.

Qualifications: To be eligible, a student must be the dependent of an active or retired BASA member and enrolled in the college of education at an accredited college or university. Preference will be given to upcoming college juniors and seniors. The candidate's potential for success in the field of education will be a primary factor. A recipient can accept the scholarship one time only.

Procedures: Applicants are requested to provide recommendations and support documentation from college professors and/or supervising teachers.

The scholarship award will be given in an amount equal to the earnings of the fund (at least $1,000). The award will be paid directly to the recipient to be used to help defray the cost of pursuing a career in education.

Selection of the recipient will be made by the BASA Scholarship Committee. This committee consists of three members of the executive committee appointed by the BASA President.

The recipient will be awarded the scholarship money at a ceremony during the BASA Fall Conference. Deadline to submit the application is September 8, 2017. Fax: 614-846-4081, email: hall@basa-ohio.org.

University of Dayton Department of Educational Administration

Principles of academic practice form the structure of all EDA programs aligned with these professional standards. First, the pedagogical goals for you and all students in EDA include planned growth in your knowledge, performance, and dispositions, the constructs of our professional affiliation with ELCC.

Second, a “knowledge” base of effective school leadership exists and is the foundation of what you as a potential school leader need to master to be effective in producing improved student learning outcomes. “Performance” is defined by ELCC as those proficiencies in subject, professional and pedagogical knowledge, skills, and dispositions that benefit student learning. “Performance” is also described as related to the quality of institutional practice, in addition to individual practice. “Dispositions” are defined as those values, commitments, and professional ethics that influence your behaviors toward students, families, colleagues, and communities and affect student learning.

These principles include a heavy emphasis on pedagogy that is practice-related, problem-based, i.e., “field” related. In EDA courses you will be continually engaged in building your knowledge - knowledge that is based in research and applied to practice in real schools. Throughout each EDA program, you will apply sound leadership knowledge to problems of contemporary PK-12 public, Catholic and other non-public schools.

- Earn your license in one year
- Convenient and expedient weekend classes
- Instructors are professors with practice in the field
- Students will have access to major “players” in Ohio education
- Network within your cohort of educators from all over Ohio
