GROUP3 WELCOMES OUR NEWEST REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

For many years Chris has had a passion for helping home buyers – especially first-time home buyers – to obtain financing and find the home of their dreams. Chris has deep roots in the Mt. Airy community, tracing his history back several generations to his parents, grandparents and great grandparents. His late mother was Leona France Cox (Lonie), daughter of the Granville and Luvenia Hill France, and his late father was Joe Bill Cox, son of Pastor Roy G. Cox and Della Hickman Cox. Prior to joining Group 3 Real Estate, Chris launched a real estate website – www.realesavvy.com – to help accomplish this goal. In addition to the website, he writes a monthly newspaper column, which circulates both locally in the Winston-Salem Chronicle and nationally in about 200 newspapers that subscribe to www.blackpressusa.com. This is the public website of the National Newspaper Publishers Association. He also hosts a monthly radio program that deals with a variety of real estate issues and airs on WTOB (980 AM and 96.3

FM). In addition to his extensive experience developing and launching his website, Chris has more than 20 years of experience in the fields of real estate and mortgage banking. Please contact Chris if you are looking for a knowledgeable, hard-working agent to help you find the ideal home for your family.

Rogers Realty & Auction Co is excited to announce the addition of Samuel Holder & Katie Myers to our professional team of Real Estate Brokers. Katie is licensed in NC & VA & Samuel is licensed in NC. Both are available & ready to help with all of your real estate needs. The professional team at Rogers Realty welcomes their enthusiasm & professionalism to our team!

Real Estate & Auctions have been in Samuel's blood since the time he was born. At just 2 months old, he traveled across country to California for his first ever National Auctioneers Association convention. Samuel is a recent graduate of NC State University where he graduated as a valedictorian with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, with a concentration in Supply Chain & Operations Management. He is excited to be back in Mount Airy & to continue his real estate career; he has had his license for 2 years now & looks forward to showing you what professional service looks like. Samuel prides himself on timeliness, integrity & honesty. He has a fresh perspective with years of background experience from growing up in the family business. During Samuel's free time, he enjoys spending time with his friends, traveling & playing with his 2 labs, Carter & Finley. If you are looking to buy or sell anywhere in North Carolina, do not hesitate to contact Samuel today!

Katie is licensed in both North Carolina & Virginia. Growing up on a ranch in Western Montana, she learned to importance of hard work & honesty. She & her husband Ray have traveled the U.S. extensively & in their words found "the best place to call home" near the North Carolina/Virginia state line among the Blue Ridge Mountains. Professionalism, dedication & persistence are 3 words that Katie uses to help her clients reach their real estate goals. Whether you are buying or selling she is ready to assist you with your real estate needs.

Deidre, I want to thank God and everyone who led me to you and Rogers Realty. You helped me accomplish a wonderful opportunity. May God bless you for all you do!!!
 -Robin McKinney

Super special thanks to Chad & Kim for allowing me to be your listing agent on the home you sold & the selling agent on the home you bought! Appreciate you two greatly!

Thanks so much Sally for working with me on the sale of your home! You are a sweetheart!

Rogers Realty & Auction Co., Inc. participated in the Surry Community College Foundation Golf Tournament in June placing 1st in their flight. They are pictured here with Abbi Freeman - an amazing young lady & the recipient at the college of the scholarship sponsored by Rogers Realty.
