Tailor-Made Care: #Transformation to Transformation

Georgia Association of Community Service Boards 20th Annual Educational Exchange

Welcome GACSB Members and Guests!

Tailor Made Care: #Transaction to Transformation, the theme for this year's Educational Exchange, speaks to the mission of the GACSB and its member organizations! It is what we strive to do, every day, in each of our organizations and in each of our communities!

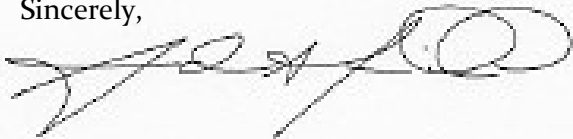

The 2017 Educational Exchange is designed to challenge CSBs to learn more about new directions in health care delivery and to acquire the knowledge, skills, and resources needed to be a successful behavioral health and developmental disabilities services provider in the emerging health care market place. Of course, keeping in mind that recovery and independence is what we promote for the individuals we serve. Kicking things off on Sunday, we hope you will feel ignited by Bill Carruthers' bringing us his Recovery on Fire message. This year we are pleased to announce that Dr. Joe Parks will be joining us to provide an update on the national healthcare landscape in addition to moderating a panel discussion with leadership from DBHDD and DCH, along with the Chairs of our five standing committees of the GACSB, focusing on the Georgia landscape. During our plenary luncheon on Monday, we will be honored by three graduates of The Respect Institute who are also part of our CSB family. Their stories of recovery will surely inspire us! We are also appreciative of our new legislative team and look forward to learning about grassroots advocacy during two sessions presented by Travis Lindley, Cathalene Teahan and Devin Krecl. Representative Sharon Cooper and Representative Spencer Frye will be joining us, as well, to reinforce the importance of our voices under The Gold Dome. We thank them for their support as Champions of behavioral health.

We are proud to continue our full-day Intellectual/Developmental Disability Track focusing on supported employment, college program enrollment and Individual Service Planning. Our combined Mental Health/Addictive Disease Track will focus on digital behavioral health products and evaluation, PCOMS which is a behavioral health outcomes management system and a new initiative entitled Brass Tacks Toolkit. Be sure and review the complete agenda for other plenary sessions and workshops that I am sure you will find beneficial in serving your communities.

Special thanks are due to the Educational and Individual Advocacy Committee for their efforts in creating an exciting and informative agenda. In addition to Dr. Kay Brooks who chairs the committee, the members include Dr. Glyn Thomas, Dr. Mark Johnson, June DiPolito, O.J. Booker, Dana Glass, Bill Carruthers, Melvin Harris, Lyly Trinh and Robyn Garrett.

Please enjoy your time at Chateau Élan and absorb all that you learn! We extend our appreciation to our generous sponsors and exhibitors for their support and we appreciate our member organizations for attending this annual learning exchange!

Sincerely,

David Kidd
GACSB President

Greetings from the Conference Committee Chair

Welcome to the 20th Annual GACSB Educational Exchange!

This year's theme, Tailor-Made Care: #Transaction to Transformation certainly reflects our journey as comprehensive community providers of Recovery Oriented Behavioral Health and Developmental Disability services. FY 2017 has been filled with new initiatives to enhance access to services and strengthen our public safety net for behavioral health and intellectual/developmental disabilities. The challenge of change within our agencies on this journey to excellence has been exhilarating as well as exhausting!

Embracing Recovery Focused Transformation provided the foundation to change our agencies from the Board, CEO, Leadership and staff. Our agencies embraced RFT not just because we embrace RECOVERY for individuals we serve; but, because each agency/each unit began a recovery journey! As our safety net became transformed, recovery focused services reached a new dimension of tailor-made care for the individuals and families we serve.

Please take time to review the display of amazing entries for our third Educational Exchange Logo Contest. An invitation was extended to individuals receiving service across CSBs. We would like to give special recognition to our first, second, and third place winners: Montheletha Dixon, Annie Gail Eaford, and Anthony Sheppard.

Please plan on visiting and conferring with our large number of vendors and sponsors, many of whom have generously supported this event. The knowledge and expertise they bring on products that assist our operations is valuable to all leadership and board members of CSBs.

We are excited to kick off this year's event with a Recovery on Fire message from Bill Carruthers, CPS, and Program Manager of Gateway Behavioral Health Services! Recovery is real...is that not why we are committed to behavioral health and intellectual/developmental disabilities services? Recovery is what we believe in! Recovery is what we support!

The plenary sessions and workshops will provide CMEs/CEUs to maintain professional designations for Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists, Professional Counselors, Addiction Counselors, and Nurses.

Our goal is for each to gain knowledge, energy, as well as, feeding your spirit so that we may return home to accept the on-going challenge of providing healthy foundations for building communities, building lives for individuals and families we serve!

Chateau Elan is a beautiful place to rest, relax and renew! Enjoy!!! God Bless!

Warmest Regards!

Kay N. Brooks, EdD, LPC

David Stayner, Ph.D. is a clinical and community psychologist who has worked for almost 20 years to assist underserved individuals and communities as a clinician and clinical supervisor; as a recovery/resilience focused program innovator; and as a consultant and teacher. In all of these capacities, his work emphasizes the creative power of facilitating authentic dialogue between people who receive health assistance and professionals who provide services to help re-focus community-based health systems on resilience and recovering.

Currently, he is a lead consultant in the Georgia DBHDD "Recovery-Focused Transformation Initiative." In this and other consultations over the past 10 years, he assists community (and hospital) based behavioral health providers to transition from a narrow focus on deficit, disability and disorder toward a broader emphasis on recovering, resilience building and community inclusion. These consultations have reached from the states of Georgia, Texas and Connecticut to the Province of New Brunswick, Canada, to the cities of Philadelphia and Oakland, CA, and the VA's in greater New York City, northeast New Jersey and Salt Lake City. In all cases,

SHOWCASE SPONSOR

The Georgia Collaborative ASO

Beacon Health Options contracts with the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD) to provide administrative services in support of Georgia's public, integrated behavioral health and intellectual and developmental disability (IDD) services system. The covered population includes adults and children who are eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid and those who are uninsured, as well as adults with disabilities.

Operating together as the Georgia Collaborative ASO, Beacon Health Options partners with long-time Georgia healthcare contractors Behavioral Health Link (BHL) and Delmarva Foundation. BHL provides telephonic and mobile crisis single-point-of-entry services for the Georgia Crisis and Access Line (GCAL), as well as all other ongoing operational elements of the GCAL program. Delmarva Foundation conducts Person-Centered Reviews, Quality Enhancement Provider Reviews and other quality oversight and reporting services relevant to the IDD quality management system.
