Oh, poets sing of steins of ale
And mugs of old Jamaicer,
But the only vessel for a sail
Is the good old cocktail shaker!

A Foreword

---

---

WHEN I was a mere stripling no taller than a bar I can remember my father speaking of certain friends as being "good mixers" and I was always curious as to just what it meant. . . . Well, as Moran and Mack say, "We found that out!"

Since that time I have mixed with all kinds of people . . . taxicab drivers, waiters, bartenders, policemen, flappers, college boys and, yes, even ladies and gentlemen, and it is surprising what a fund of knowledge one can pick up if one keeps one's ears open!

In this way I have collected data, and when I say data I mean data, which I have enclosed in this little volume. It represents thirsty years, I mean thirty years, of hard work, and I gincerely hope it will help just a little to brighten the coroner, I mean the corner, where you are!

So, as the radio boys say, "Here's to you, my unseen audience! Shake!"

Judge Jr.

Glossary

(Whatever that means)

---

---

GORDON WATER: A liquid formerly manufactured by a Mr. Gordon. It is watery in color but not in effect!

MC CARTY: An amber-colored liquid that comes from Havana, usually in pockets, etc.!

SCOTCH: This is also a liquid and comes from Scotland and sometimes from Hoboken!

HOOKER: A small glass about two inches high, formerly used by bartenders.

JIGGER: See Hooker.

THREE FINGERS: See Jigger.

DASH: A Dash is—I'm sorry I ever brought the matter up!

ICE: A watery-colored solid substance used for chilling drinks.

---

---

The Apple Jack Rabbit

---

---

THIS could really be called the Rabbit punch because it has the same effect!

1 hooker of Applejack;
juice of a lemon;
juice of an orange;
1 hooker of maple syrup.

TOAST: Here's to the National Bird—the swallow.

---

---

Everything but—

---

---

THIS little drink is christened thusly because it contains everything but the kitchen stove!

$\frac{1}{4}$  Scotch;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  lemon juice;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  orange juice;
1 egg;
1 teaspoonful of Apricot brandy;
powdered sugar.

HAPPY THOUGHT

*The world is so full of this bootlegger's gin
I am sure we shall soon be all blistered within.*

---

---

White Lily

---

---

ALL that is needed for this experiment is a white lily for the chest!

$\frac{1}{3}$  part Cointreau;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  part McCarty;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  part Gordon water;
dash of absinthe.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS

Before spanking youngsters it is advisable to reach inside the left hip pocket and extract the flask.

---

The Dodge Special

---

ALL I can say for this baby is
"Dodge, Brothers, dodge!"

$\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Cointreau or mint;
dash of grape juice.

T O A S T : Here's to the U. S. No matter how much the population increases there's always rum for one more.

---

---

Little Willie

---

---

G. E. T. of Cornell invented this and claims it will make you throw stones at your grandmother.

1 hooker of rye;
dash of Apricot brandy;
add ginger ale.

EVOLUTION

Mother—Now, Willie: I'll give you a nickel if you take your castor oil like a little man.

Willie (20 years later)—Blup—Gr-r-r-r-rk—uh—Pretty smooth stuff, Joe.

---

---

The Mamie Taylor

---

---

WHO, in the audience, doesn't remember good old Mamie Taylor? Well, here she is!

1 hooker of Scotch;
juice of two limes;
fill tall glass with ginger ale.

T O A S T : Here's to the bootleggers. They are meeting Prohibition half way. They always add water to their hooch!

---

---

The White Cargo

---

---

HERE'S a concoction that's endorsed by all the ice cream manufacturers. And, take it from me, it's a rare beverage!

$\frac{1}{2}$  vanilla ice cream;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
no ice is necessary; just shake until thoroughly mixed, and add water or white wine if the concoction is too thick.

TOAST: Here's to your car and my car—may they never meet.

---

The Royal Smile

---

WHICH, after two or three,
brings a royal flush!

$\frac{1}{3}$  part Gordon water;
 $\frac{2}{3}$  parts Applejack;
juice of one lime;
2 dashes of grenadine.

STATISTICS: The things a man says when he is drunk with liquor are never as foolish as those he says when intoxicated with love.

---

---

The Rose Dive

---

---

CONTRIBUTED by "Billy" from Wheeler field, Hawaii. This is the aviator's favorite—let's go!

Take a jigger of Gordon water, place in it an olive, then deposit the glass carefully in the bottom of an ordinary tumbler. Fill the said tumbler with water, ginger ale, or what have you, until almost to the top of the small glass, then down the whole thing quickly, that is, everything but the small glass.

POOR PAPA

Father (to youngster, just put to bed)—Now what are you crying for?

Son—I wanna drink.

"So do I—go to sleep."

---

---

The Magnolia Blossom

---

---

ORIGINATED by Finley White of Durham, N. C., where the bull comes from!

$\frac{1}{4}$  lemon juice;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cream;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
dash of grenadine.

TOAST: Here's to love! It is like getting drunk, marriage is the headache the next morning, and divorce is the aspirin tablet.

---

---

The Fudgette

---

---

SISTER invented this herself so I disclaim all responsibility as to results!

$\frac{1}{3}$  peach brandy;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  French vermouth;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  Gordon water;
dash of lime.

ACROSS THE BAR

*First Bartender—*I dreamed the cops raided the place last night.

*Second Ditto—*Ain't it funny the crazy things a guy will dream!

---

---

The Grape Vine

---

---

THIS little recipe speaks for itself—vine not?

$\frac{1}{4}$  grape juice;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  lemon juice;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
dash of grenadine.

1927 MODEL

Gentleman (inviting lady to dance)—What do you say, Miss Mince—shall we shake up another cocktail?

---

---

Mint Fizz

---

---

I DON'T like to talk about myself, but this is good and I don't mean pre-war!

Put some nice fresh mint in a bowl, also some powdered sugar and crush the mint thoroughly. Take the juice of a lime, the mint, and a hooker of Gordon water and pour into a tall glass filled with ice. Fill up the rest with White Rock.

STATISTICS: It's a heck of a lot more fun viewing the Niagara Falls from the Canadian side!

---

The Golden Gate

---

AFTER a few of these you begin singing "California, here we come!"—hence the title.

$\frac{3}{4}$  orange ice;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  Gordon water;
put in shaker and shake—no ice.

JOKER: "My dear, I tell you I was setting up with a sick friend!"

"How many did you set up before he got sick?"

---

---

Oh, Henry!

---

---

ORIGINATED by Henry Oretel and believe us Henry knows his liquids!

- 1 jigger of benedictine;
- 1 jigger of Scotch;
- 2 jiggers of ginger ale.

ADD THIS: Then there is the bootlegger who walked all the way to the drug-store to get some poison to kill the cat.

---

The Judge, Jr.

---

THIS drink, I discovered later, was invented by someone else, but it's good just the same!

1 part Gordon water;
1 part McCarty;
1 part lemon juice;
powdered sugar;
a dash of grenadine.

TOAST: Here's to our sons in college; you have to make allowances for them.

---

---

Silver Fizz

---

---

THIS is a very old drink but is printed especially for the younger generation.

white of an egg;
juice of a lime;
1 jigger of Gordon water;
powdered sugar;
fill with White Rock.

HEY, HEY! Who said that prohibition isn't a success? Just look at the enormous amount of ginger ale that is sold!

---

---

Silver Stallion

---

---

No, James Branch Cabell didn't invent this one but he should have!

$\frac{1}{2}$  vanilla ice cream;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
fill with Silver King Fizz.

NOTE: She's only a bootlegger's daughter, but she has her good p'int!

---

---

The Los Angeles

---

---

AFTER trying this you will understand why they talk about the climate out there!

juice of a lemon;
4 hookers of Scotch;
4 teaspoonfuls of sugar;
1 egg;
dash of Italian vermouth.
This is enough for four people.

HOT TIP: You can tell a college boy by the brand on his hip.

---

---

Polo Cocktail

---

---

INVENTED by Yours truly after a polo match—in the living room!

$\frac{1}{2}$  grape juice;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gordon water;
add a dash of white or green mint.

NOTE: A great many night club guests don't wait for a raid to go under the table.

---

---

The Corn Popper

---

---

DON'T get near a fire after drinking one of these!

1 pint of corn (Georgia or Maryland);
½ pint of cream;
the whites of two eggs;
1 tablespoonful of grenadine;
fill highball glasses half full of this mixture and fill up with vichy or seltzer.

TOAST: Here's to the blonde—we love her henna-way.

---

---

The Mule's Hind Leg

---

---

THIS title is not an exaggeration—we know—we tried it!

$\frac{1}{5}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{5}$  benedictine;
 $\frac{1}{5}$  Applejack;
 $\frac{1}{5}$  Apricot brandy;
 $\frac{1}{5}$  maple syrup.

WHEEZE: "Did you have a lot of fun at the convention, darling?"

"Barrels of it, dear."

---

---

The Nevada

---

---

CAN'T vouch for this beverage
as I Nevada one!

1 hooker of McCarty;
juice of half a grape fruit;
juice of a lime;
powdered sugar;
dash of bitters.

NOTE: *Country people used to have old-fashioned boiled dinners;
now it's the diners that get boiled.*

---

---

The Cornell Special

---

---

LITTLE, of Cornell, claims that this beverage is as smooth as the hair on a silkworm:

$\frac{1}{4}$  part of benedictine;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  part of Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  part lemon;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  part lithia water.

TOAST: Here's to a red nose; it indicates a horn of plenty these days!

---

---

Philadelphia Scotchman

---

---

WE can't understand why this drink is called thusly unless it's because it gets you tight!

1 hooker of Applejack;
1 hooker of port;
juice of an orange;
add ginger ale.

TOAST: Here's to the people who are so dumb they think Prohibition is a law.

---

The French "75"

---

THIS drink is really what won the War for the Allies:

2 jiggers Gordon water;
1 part lemon juice;
a spoonful of powdered sugar;
cracked ice.

Fill up the rest of a tall glass with champagne!

[If you use club soda instead of champagne, you have a Tom Collins.]

TOAST: Here's to present day culture—which doesn't care about your English if your Scotch is all right!

---

The Cubano

---

CONTRIBUTED by Owen Hutchinson and it explains why Cuba is a free country!

½ Gordon water;
½ vermouth;
4 drops of Kummel;
4 drops of Charbreux;
2 drops of pineapple syrup.

J O K E : Cain—Why did the insurance people turn down Felix?

Abel—Too much of a risk—he wears a celluloid collar and drinks bootleg liquor.

---

---

De Riquer

---

---

HARK, ye lads! Here's the very latest drink! Three of these will knock you for a row of aspirins:

$\frac{1}{2}$  scotch;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  grapefruit juice;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  honey;
cracked ice.

T O A S T : You don't have to look at a clothes line these days to see what the women are wearing!

---

---

Alexander's Sister

---

---

LIKE the Alexander, this little drink will give you the ambition to conquer more worlds.

$\frac{1}{3}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  cream;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  crème de menthe.

TOAST: *Here's to Prohibition!
It isn't so bad if it just doesn't get any worse.*

---

---

Bacardi Punch

---

---

THIS drink was graciously contributed by Mr. Cadman, to whom we give thanks:

1 jigger of McCarty;
1 glass of hot milk;
1 tablespoonful of sugar;
a pinch of grated nutmeg;
the yolk of an egg.
Serve in a highball glass.

TOAST: Here's looking at you—double!

---

---

Bacardi Cocktail

---

---

THIS recipe is printed in response to 9,865 people who asked how to make it:

2 parts McCarty;
juice of a lime;
a dash of grenadine;
cracked ice.

TOAST: Here's to the tightwad who hides a pair of socks in the pocket of his pajamas in order to cut down his laundry bill!

---

The Wop

---

AFTER a few of these you go "wop!"—hence the title.

$\frac{2}{3}$  Italian vermouth;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  sherry;
dash of orange bitters.

TOAST: Here's to bootleg whiskey. It makes even the most casual user come in like a lion and go out like a lamp!

---

---

The Barbary Coast

---

---

THIS drink was originated on the Pacific Coast to get people used to earthquakes:

$\frac{1}{4}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  scotch;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  crème de cocoa;
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cream;
cracked ice.
Serve in a highball glass.

TOAST: To pedestrians; here's honking at you!

---

---

Brandy, Gump

---

---

CONTRIBUTED by E. L. A. of Yale collich. No wonder they can "hold 'em!"

1 hooker of brandy;
juice of a lemon;
2 dashes of grenadine.

TOAST:

*Here's to the flapper, good and kind;
Let's drink her health in toddy.
She's nothing much upon her mind
And less upon her body.*

---

---

The Hurricane

---

---

THIS concoction is all that the name implies and should be mixed in a cyclone cellar:

$\frac{1}{3}$  pint of Johnny Walker;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  pint of Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  pint of crème de menthe;
the juice of two lemons.

TOAST: Here's to "Block & Tackle" whiskey—take a drink, walk a block and tackle anything!

---

The Earthquake

---

THE title of this libation certainly explains itself!

$\frac{1}{3}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  Scotch;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  absinthe.

CHRISTENING

The mother assisted at the baby's christening by breaking a bottle of Scotch over its father's head.

---

---

The Frankenjack

---

---

INVENTED by the two proprietors of a very, very well-known Speakeasy in New York City.

- $\frac{1}{3}$  Gordon water;
- $\frac{1}{3}$  French vermouth;
- $\frac{1}{6}$  apricot brandy;
- $\frac{1}{6}$  Cointreau.

NOTE: In these days of bootleg liquor a night cap is apt to put a fellow to sleep for good.

---

The Swiss Itch

---

INVENTED by one James Norton of Princeton and guaranteed to go down with the ease of an elevator:

Place a pinch of salt on the back of the right hand and with the same north paw hold half a lemon between thumb and forefinger. Hold a small glass of Gordon water in the left hand and follow this sequence: lick the salt, drink the Gordon water and suck the lemon!

T O A S T : Here's to the pedestrian; every year is leap year with him!

---

---

Old Reliables

---

---

FOR the benefit of our young readers who never drank before Prohibition we will give a list of the cocktails of the good old days:

DRY MARTINI:

$\frac{1}{2}$  part Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  part Italian vermouth;
cracked ice;
dash of orange bitters.

MANHATTAN:

$\frac{1}{2}$  part rye;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  part Italian vermouth;
a dash of Peychaud bitters;
cracked ice.

---

---

Old Reliables

---

---

CLOVER CLUB:

1 jigger of Gordon water;
the white of an egg;
the juice of a lemon;
a dash of grenadine.

BRONX:

$\frac{1}{2}$  part Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{2}$  part orange juice;
1 part French vermouth;
cracked ice.

TOAST: Here's to our wives; they are like cider—the longer you leave them standing around, the more of a kick you get!

---

---

The Crow

---

---

THIS drink is guaranteed to make you fly; like the crow, if you fly too far you will get shot!

$\frac{2}{3}$  Scotch;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  lemon juice;
a dash of grenadine.

TOAST: Here's to woman—a flood of loveliness—dam her!

---

---

Louisiana Fizz

---

---

HERE'S another drink that comes out of the South and makes you believe in Evolution:

1 cup of white of an egg;
1 cup of powdered sugar;
1 cup of lemon juice;
2 cups of Gordon water;
1 teaspoonful of cream;
cracked ice.

TOAST: Here's to Chicago—have a shot!

---

---

Champagne Cocktail

---

---

THIS was originated at the Ritz in Paris, and is supposed to be very high hat:

Saturate a lump of sugar in bitters (Boker's preferred), add a piece of lemon peel and fill the cocktail glass with champagne.

T O A S T : Here's to prohibition—drink her down!

---

---

The Lion

---

---

So called because it will make you climb a tree!

$\frac{1}{3}$  rye;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  port;
white of an egg;
juice of a lemon;
teaspoonful of sugar;
add slice of pineapple.

NOTE: It isn't only the bootlegger who is cashing in on Prohibition, but a lot of his customers as well.

---

---

Whiskey Sour

---

---

THIS is really very mid-Victorian, but it ought to be included:

1 jigger of rye;
the juice of half a lemon;
a piece of lemon peel;
a dash of sweet syrup.

TOAST: *Here's to our bootlegger
—he's never low in spirits!*

---

---

A Hot Toddy

---

---

THIS is included for Grandma and Grandpa:

1 jigger of rye, brandy or rum;
the juice of half a lemon;
1 lump of sugar;
fill up the highball glass with hot water.

TOAST: Here's to the modern grandmother; may she never pass out.

---

---

The Cowboy

---

---

AFTER two of these you won't even need a horse. Ride 'em, cowboy!

2 parts scotch;
1 part cream;
cracked ice.

TOAST: Here's to the liquor that makes a man see double and feel single!

---

---

An Egg Nog

---

---

THIS is only to be imbibed on holiday occasions:

Thoroughly beat an egg with one-half of a teaspoonful of sugar; add 1 jigger of brandy or whiskey; shake in a shaker and add milk to taste; pour into a glass and twist a lemon peel over it.

TOAST: Here's to the optimist who takes his crank off the Ford!

---

---

The Dacqueri Cocktail

---

---

THIS is a famous drink and has been reprinted for auld time's sake.

$\frac{2}{3}$  McCarty;
 $\frac{1}{3}$  grenadine;
juice of a lime.

THE MORNING AFTER

"Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"

"That's what's been puzzling me too!"

---

---

Jack Rose Cocktail

---

---

THIS is another old timer which has stood up under the years.

$\frac{1}{3}$  Applejack;
 $\frac{1}{6}$  Gordon water;
 $\frac{1}{12}$  French vermouth;
 $\frac{1}{12}$  Italian vermouth;
 $\frac{1}{6}$  orange juice;
 $\frac{1}{6}$  lime juice;
dash of grenadine.

NOTE: The bootlegger who boasts that he is a self-made man is not giving due credit to the Anti-Saloon League.

---

---

Attaboy Cocktail

---

---

THIS recipe has had several names but this one seems to be the most popular.

- $\frac{1}{3}$  Gordon water;
- $\frac{1}{3}$  Bacardi;
- $\frac{1}{6}$  Cointreau;
- $\frac{1}{6}$  lemon juice.

STATISTICS: If all the college students in this country were laid end to end, it would take a lot of hooch.

---

---

The Mint Julep

---

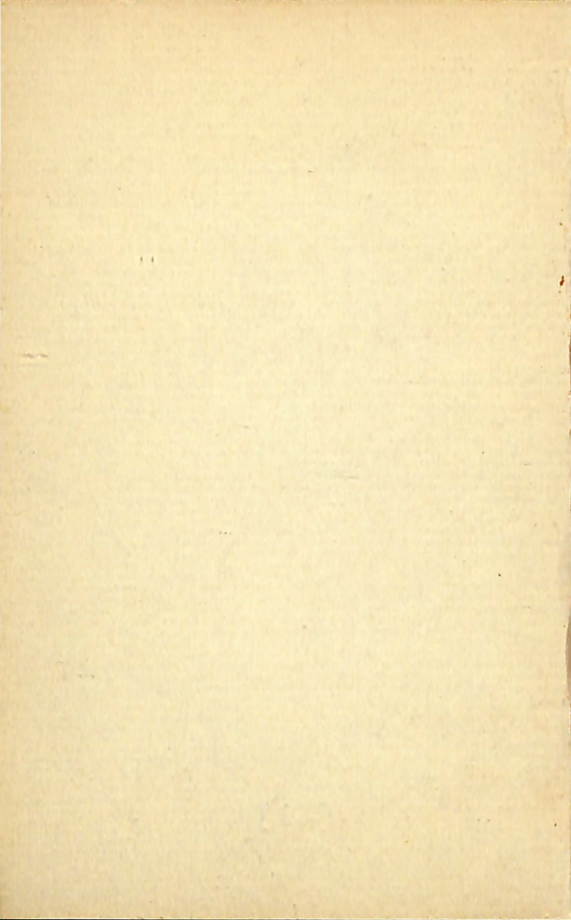

---

THIS drink proves conclusively that the South isn't so solid!

Dampen a small bunch of mint, dust with powdered sugar, bruise and pour over it a little boiling water;
strain into a tall, thin glass;
fill the glass with finely cracked ice;
fill with brandy;
add sprigs of mint and serve with straws.

TOAST: Here's to our bills—and may we some day meet 'em.

---

---

HERE'S HOW!

By Judge, Jr.

---

TO all good mixers everywhere this hip-pocket size volume will come as a guide and an inspiration. Here's how to enlarge the horizon, escape dark moods, increase affability. Whenever two or three are gathered together the toasts and tips contained in Here's How may be pored over to advantage.

Concerned, in a sense, with uplift and social welfare, it runs along, nevertheless, in so insouciant a manner that the reader cannot fail to find the path to knowledge easy and beguiling.
