

PRIME

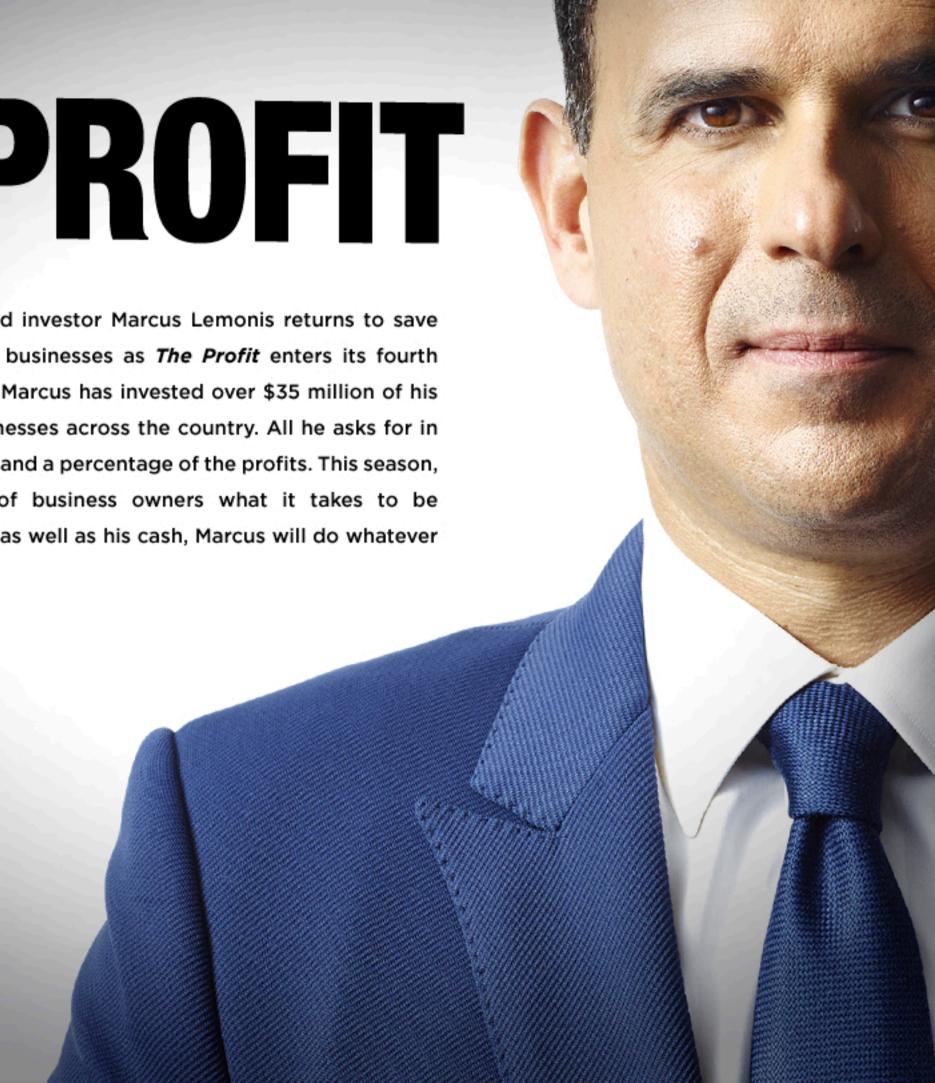

Multi-millionaire entrepreneur and investor Marcus Lemonis returns to save and grow even more struggling businesses as The Profit enters its fourth season. Since the show's launch, Marcus has invested over $35 million of his own money to rescue small businesses across the country. All he asks for in return is a portion of the business and a percentage of the profits. This season, Marcus teaches a new group of business owners what it takes to be successful. Lending his expertise as well as his cash, Marcus will do whatever is necessary to turn a profit.

Season 3: 22 x 60

Season 4 COMING IN 2018

In this new primetime series, legendary comedian and "Tonight Show" host Jay Leno explores our obsession with all things automotive. From classic cars to supercars and everything in between, Jay's hitting the road to discover the most exciting, weird and wonderful vehicles ever made and meet the passionate people behind their wheels. Each one-hour themed episode features a mix of stunts, challenges, reviews, and celebrity interviews that showcases the colorful history of the automobile. Whether he's exploring the history of an iconic brand, road-testing the newest supercar, or investigating the latest automotive innovations, there's no wheel Jay won't get behind to tell the story of our love affair with the car.

Season 2: 12 x 60 Season 3 COMING IN 2018

BLUE COLLAR MILLIONAIRES

The docu-series profiles big personalities who've gotten rich by getting their hands dirty. These men and women have made millions rolling up their sleeves...but at the end of the work day, they drive home to their palatial mansions and park their pickup next to their collection of high-end sports cars. No doubt about it - these are not your typical millionaires. Learn how guts, grit, and a can-do mindset made them rich beyond their wildest dreams...and find out how they spend their hard-earned millions when they're off the clock and having fun.

Season 1: 8 x 30

WATCH NOW

THE DE D

The Deed delves into the ruthless world of real estate flipping and development, where one deal can make or break a property investor. Sidney Torres, multimillionaire real estate entrepreneur, lends his money and prowess to beleaguered property developers in desperate need of assistance. In each one-hour episode, Torres offers his help to desperate investors in exchange for a share of the property and the proceeds. When an agreement is reached, he will do whatever it takes to salvage the struggling projects and transform them into successes.

Season 1: 4 x 60

FULL EPISODES
PROMO

THE PARTNER

As host of CNBC's The Profit, serial entrepreneur Marcus Lemonis has invested more than $35 million of his own money to help save struggling businesses, all in exchange for ownership stake in each company. Now, Lemonis needs the perfect partner to help him oversee his many business ventures. In The Partner, candidates with diverse resumes compete for the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity of working alongside Lemonis. One fortunate winner will receive an equity stake in a multimillion dollar company.

SEASON 1: 5 x 60

FULL EPISODES

PROMO

West Texas Investors Club premieres with plucky entrepreneurs pitching their business ideas to self-made multimillionaires Rooster McConaughey and Butch Gilliam. Joined by their close friend and confidante Gil Prather, Rooster and Butch invite hopeful entrepreneurs to Midland, Texas, for the chance to secure a life-changing investment. But brilliant ideas and impressive numbers are not the only things Rooster and Butch demand. These investors seek to gauge the true character of a person before they consider investing their hard-earned fortunes.

Season 1: 8 x 60

WATCH NOW

PROMO

CNBC

Adventure Capitalists is the first investment show that gives hopeful entrepreneurs the chance to demonstrate their game-changing products outside of the studio in an outdoor expedition. In each episode, aspiring entrepreneurs pitch their new recreation products to investors in hopes of snagging a major investment. The investors then put the products through rigorous testing in rugged terrain to determine how well they hold up in the great outdoors. Will the gadgets perform as intended or will nature get the best of them?

SEASON 1: 4 X 60 SEASON 2 COMING IN 2018

PROMO WATCH NOW

THE DE LO CHICAGO

The Deed: Chicago explores a side of real estate that other property shows ignore - an unfliching look at how fortunes are really made in the cutthroat world of estate flipping and development. Sean Conlon, real estate mogul, lends his money and prowess to beleaguered property developers in desperate need of assistance, for a share of the property and the profits.

Season 1: 4 x 60'

FULL EPISODES

