“So many hats, so little time.”

I like to wear hats. They add to an outfit, accessorizing your head, like a piece of jewelry or pair of great shoes. A hat can cover up a bad hair day when you're running late or keep you warm when outside on a cold day. I think anyone can wear a hat and should have multiple ones to choose from in their wardrobe... hence, my slogan, so many hats, so little time. I want to sell hats that are fun yet practical, affordable yet fashionable.
