Escapes the Ordinary

In an increasingly busy world, we understand that holidays are one of life's most precious commodities, and appreciate the trust you put in us when it comes to planning them. We don't take this vote of confidence lightly.

Allow us to present you with the portfolio of our long haul escorted tours for 2016. We have named them "Signature Journeys" because we know these guided tours are the best available on the market due to the superior level of services offered.

These long haul journeys are what we do best, this is actually what ROCS Travel is all about and what it has been known for in the past 18 years.

Personally hand-picked, such trips enable you to explore the world's most intriguing destinations with like-minded travellers. On each journey you will be accompanied by a ROCS Tour Manager and local guides who are recognised by many as being the best in the business.

Supported also by leading international partners we provide on-the-ground assistance, so that you will explore the most important aspects of the country you are visiting, enjoy privileged access and discovering its culture and history to really get under the skin; returning not only refreshed but also enlightened.

As many know ROCS Travel has been at the forefront of long haul journeys, building an impressive amount of discerning travellers through a network of 3 offices around Malta. We strive to keep you intrigued by our fabulous range of the new destinations displayed in this brochure. We commit to looking after you and are more than willing to continue to service you as best as possible.

The world doesn't stand still and neither should you.

Our team is available to help you plan your journey. Call us for a chat, or visit our offices in Floriana, Mosta and Mellieha where you can explore ideas with a consultant face to face whilst discovering more about our intriguing destinations.

More than ever when it comes to long haul travel, there is really no other choice but ROCS Travel
