KILNER[®]
EST 1842

The original Kilner® jar, first invented by John Kilner and Co in the 1842 in England, is as much-loved and successful now as it was over 170 years ago. Its long-lasting popularity is owed to the unique pressure seal, iconic design and overall quality. Put simply, households, chefs and restaurateurs all over the world trust Kilner® to successfully “serve, display and preserve” their produce. Whether it’s granolas, fine terrines, desserts, jam or pickles, Kilner offers a real point of difference. In the 1900s, Kilner® presented its innovation as ‘the original and the best, all other brands are substitutes’, a claim which remains as relevant today, and is a testament to its impressive heritage. From New York to Tokyo, Paris to Oslo, catering establishment all over the world are crying out for Kilner®, and as a result, Kilner® jars can be found in world-famous restaurants in which the brand is trusted by the most discerning caterers.

A surge in popularity for preserving home-grown fruit and vegetables, and storing food in glass rather than plastic for its health benefits, has catapulted the Kilner® jar into the limelight in recent times. Now not only is the Kilner® jar an essential for the kitchen, but has become a statement of style in the hospitality and homewares industry.

Our dedicated Kilner website is jam-packed with recipes, how to’s and an ‘inspire section, designed to help you get the best out of your purchase. Visit: www.kilnerjar.co.uk for more information.

First established in 1908, Viners have a long and illustrious history, made famous upon receiving the Royal Warrant as Cutlers and Silversmiths to King George V. Revolutionary for it’s time, Viners cutlery continues to build and develop fashion led, futuristic designs to become a market leader in it’s sector.

Now entering the catering and hospitality market, the brand has it’s own team of creative practitioners, from in-house designers, CRM researchers, trend forecasters to product developers. The Rayware Group’s re-development of the brand ensures that their customers will have a premium edge, making them a cut above the rest in the catering industry.

Mason Cash has been the choice of bakers for centuries. It’s origins can be traced as far back as 1800, to a pottery operating at Church Gresley in the heart of the English ceramic industry. Located close to all the raw material and fuel sources required to make ceramics, It had fantastic transport links to take finished goods all over the UK and the world.

The pottery produced kitchen items made from ‘white and cane’ glazed earthenware, which is sometimes referred to as ‘yellow ware’ due to the colour of the local clay. ‘bargeware’ is also a phrase that is used, as it was packed onto barges and sent to market.

A series of Master Potters, of whom the most colourful was ‘Bossy’ Mason, is where the ‘Mason’ name came from in the 1800’s. Tom Cash acquired the pottery in 1901 and renamed the company Mason Cash & Co.

The heritage brand had been producing mixing bowls during the 1800’s, but in 1901 they designed and manufactured the very first iconic Mason Cash mixing bowl. The design of the bowl has endured the test of time, becoming an icon in the British homewares industry. In fact, the design has barely altered since then. With the introduction of many more colours in the range, the demand for bowls, pudding basins as well as the oven to tableware remains extremely popular in the catering industry.

Typhoon started their journey as a small company with a simple philosophy, to bring high end, Asian inspired products to a British market.

Design led kitchenware at competitive prices. Simple. Our travels have taken us far and wide, from developing nations to the fashion capitals of the world. In every corner of the globe there is a gem of an idea that needs a bit of Typhoon love and attention.

The Typhoon brand continues to be a major player in the Rayware family. Ranges include many options of tea, coffee and sugar storage solution, chopping boards, bread bins, Asian cooking tools, scales, cast iron ware, woks and seasoning product.

We have cherry picked those products that are of a commercial quality and bring them forward to our hospitality brochure.

The story started back in 1896 when the innovative Price Brothers founded their earthenware manufacturing company in Crown Works, Burslem, specialising in tabletop accessories and teapots. The brothers quickly became renowned for their distinctive designs. Through their hard work and dedication the Price Brothers brand saw rapid success and in 1934 they moved to the Top Bridge Works in Longport, where they became known as Price Bros Ltd. During their time at the Top Bridge Works the brothers developed a strong working bond with Kensington Potteries, who specialised in novelty teapots. This bond grew so strong that two companies eventually merged in 1962 to become known as Price and Kensington. Rich in heritage and passionate about table top accessories and teapots, the Price & Kensington brand continues to flourish in the Rayware family. Whilst teapots remain the heart of the product range and continue to be in great demand in our diverse and contemporary catering market, mugs, cups, and high end tea accessories are all here to complete the package

The Ravenhead glass factory was founded in 1842 St Helens, England by Frances Dixon. The family run business expanded rapidly and was passed down from father to son for three generations.

Primarily producing bottles, Ravenhead branched out into domestic tableware such as bowls, jugs and drinking glasses in the 1930s. Between 1960 and 1990, it designed many iconic glasses for the bar and catering industry.

Single-handedly changing the perception of glass from a functional item, to a fashionable statement for the kitchen and home, Ravenhead continues to pioneer solutions within the glasswares industry. High profile designers such as Alexander Hardy Richardson shaped the Ravenhead range, producing iconic designs which are still well recognised today.

We offer diverse and contemporary glassware, with smaller inners than our competitor to allow flexibility when fulfilling orders in a competitive market.
