mimiGstyle

Hello! I'm Mimi G. creator of the wildly popular DIY blog MimiGStyle.com. I have been designing my own clothing for years and now I get to share my designs with so many of you through my pattern collections. My designs are a direct reflection of my own personal style and what I think all women want, style and comfort. I pride myself on my step-by-step video tutorials to guide you through every step of constructing my patterns and provide you with inspiration and motivation via my blog.
