make the right

Get the products you need in 48 hours or less.

Greater availability to keep you up and running.

With Lapp Group's QuickShip Program, you can count on the off-the-shelf delivery of our most popular connectors and strain relief cable glands in 48 hours or less; our extensive inventory ensures that you can get the items you need when you need them. Most of these products are direct replacements for those offered by other manufacturers. So when you need it fast, visit our website (www.lappusa.com) to use the convenient cross reference and selection tools, or call our Inside Sales department for help in selecting a product at 800-774-3539 or email sales@lappusa.com.

At Lapp Group, we understand the critical role our products play in a wide array of industries and manufacturing applications. Our business partners depend on the quality, performance, durability, and availability of our products to keep their facilities and lines up and running. When you choose Lapp Group to fulfill your connector and strain relief requirements, you connect with a company that combines international resources with extensive warehousing and distribution capabilities.

Program Details

- The QuickShip Program includes the components listed in this brochure.
- Order quantity is limited to on-hand inventory. Higher quantities will result in longer lead times.
- Orders must be received by 2:00 pm EST.
- Temporary stock-outs beyond our control may occur. Lapp Group North America will expedite out of stock items to the best of our ability but will not be responsible for any delays incurred.
