Welcome to your 2017 Employee Benefits Guide

We recognize the important role employee benefits play as a critical component of overall compensation. We continue to make every effort to target the best quality benefit plans for our staff and their families. Our program offers a range of plan options to meet the needs of our diverse workforce. We know that your benefits are important to you and your family. This program is designed to assist in providing for the health, well being and financial security of you and your covered dependents.

Benefits Guide Overview

Capco is proud to be able to offer a high quality menu of benefit choices, and the freedom to select coverage that will fit your insurance needs and your budget. This Benefit Guide, along with your benefit plan summaries provide an outline of the Capco benefits that are available to you and your family.

Please elect your benefits carefully since, in most cases, changes in your enrollment can only be made during the annual open enrollment period. The benefit elections you select during open enrollment remain in effect for the entire calendar year, unless you have an IRS qualified change in status. Qualifying events include a change in marital status, dependent status, employment status and other IRS defined events. You must make your new election within 30 days of the date of the qualifying event.

We are constantly striving to provide you and your families with a superior enrollment process and benefit packages. Please keep this book as an employee benefits reference guide. It contains general information regarding your benefits and important carrier information.

Eligibility

If you are a regular, full-time employee scheduled to work at least 30 hours a week, you are eligible for benefits on the first day of the month following your date of hire. This includes you, your legally dependent children, spouse and /or domestic partner.

Employees have the ability to enroll their domestic partners and children of domestic partners in the Capco benefit plans. The tax implications, however, for domestic partners and dependents of domestic partners are different from those of legally married spouses and dependent children.

When an employer provides health care benefits for the spouse or dependents of an employee, the IRS allows the money paid by the employer for these benefits to be excluded from the employee's gross income. No such exclusion exists, however, for benefits of an employee's domestic partner or dependents of a domestic partner. The money paid by an employer for the health care benefits for an employee's domestic partner and dependents of a domestic partner is taxable income.

Neither a domestic partner, nor the children of a domestic partner (who are not dependents of the employee), are eligible to receive tax-favored benefits through a cafeteria plan.

7 UNDERSTANDING YOUR HSA

If you enroll in the QHDHP plan, you are eligible to set-up an individual Health Savings Account (HSA) at the bank or investment company of your choice. You can deposit money into your HSA and lower your taxable income at time of filing.

An HSA is an employee-owned account that allows you to set aside money for eligible medical expenses (including vision and dental expenses) incurred this year or in future years. Your contributions to the account are tax-exempt, so you can save on taxes when you participate. Unlike a Flexible Spending Account, any unused balance in your HSA rolls over from year to year—there is no “use it or lose it” rule. We recommend that you see your tax advisor for additional information on the tax advantages this account may offer you.

You must be enrolled in the Qualified High Deductible Health Plan in order to contribute to an HSA. In future years, if you decide to dis-enroll from the QHDHP, you can continue to use any money in your HSA for qualified medical expenses, but you are ineligible to contribute any additional funds to the account.

If you ever withdraw funds from the account for non-medical expenses, you will be subject to a penalty. At age 65, however, any unused funds in your HSA can be withdrawn without penalty for non-medical purposes. If you withdraw the funds from your HSA after age 65, you would be subject to normal income tax on the money in the account, but you would not be limited to using the money for just medical expenses.

There are limits to how much you can contribute to your HSA each calendar year. For 2017, the contribution limits are:

		Age 55+ ($1,000 Catch up)
Individual	$3,400	$4,400
Family	$6,750	$7,750

If you enroll in the QHDHP and open an HSA, you will not be eligible to enroll in the medical portion of the Flexible Savings Account (FSA). You will be able to participate in other portions of the plan such as parking and transit and dependent care reimbursement.

* Women's Health and Cancer Rights Act of 1998

Your medical plan, as required by the Women's Health and Cancer Rights Act of 1998, provides benefits for mastectomy – related services, including reconstruction and surgery to achieve symmetry between the breasts, prosthesis, and complications resulting from a mastectomy (including lymphedema).

Please call your plan administrator for more information. These benefits may be subject to annual deductibles, co-insurance provisions or copays that are appropriate and consistent with other benefits under your plan.

* The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA)

The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008, also referred to as GINA, is a federal law that protects Americans from being treated unfairly because of differences in their DNA that may affect their health. The law prevents discrimination from health insurers and employers.

Who needs protection from genetic discrimination?

Everyone should care about the potential for genetic discrimination. Every person has dozens of DNA differences that could increase or decrease his or her chance of getting a disease such as diabetes, heart disease, cancer or Alzheimer's. It's important to remember that these DNA differences don't always mean someone will develop a disease, just that the risk to get the disease may be greater.

More and more tests are being developed to find DNA differences that affect our health. These tests (called genetic tests) will become a routine part of health care in the future. Health care providers will use information about each person's DNA to develop more individualized ways of detecting, treating and preventing disease. But unless this DNA information is protected, it could be used to discriminate against people.

Why was the law needed?

The law was needed to help ease concerns about discrimination that might keep some people from getting genetic tests that could benefit their health. The law also enables people to take part in research studies without fear that their DNA information might be used against them in health insurance or the workplace.

* Notice of Special Enrollment Rights

If you are an active employee declining enrollment for yourself or your dependents (including your spouse) because of other health insurance coverage, you may in the future be able to enroll yourself or your dependents in this plan, provided that you request enrollment within 30 days after your other coverage ends and you fulfill other special enrollment requirements. (These requirements are set out in your Certificate of Coverage)

In addition, if active employees have a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents, provided that you request enrollment within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.

There is an additional enrollment period if an active employee or dependent loses eligibility for Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), Medicaid or becomes eligible for CHIP for Medicaid premium assistance. The special enrollment allows children or their parents to have 60 days, rather than 30, to request enrollment.

Also, your health plan may not establish rules for eligibility (including continued eligibility) of an individual to enroll under the terms of the plan based on a health status-related factor.

Premium Assistance Under Medicaid and the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP)

If you or your children are eligible for Medicaid or CHIP and you’re eligible for health coverage from your employer, your state may have a premium assistance program that can help pay for coverage, using funds from their Medicaid or CHIP programs. If you or your children aren’t eligible for Medicaid or CHIP, you won’t be eligible for these premium assistance programs but you may be able to buy individual insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. For more information, visit www.healthcare.gov.

If you or your dependents are already enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP and you live in a State listed below, contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office to find out if premium assistance is available.

If you or your dependents are NOT currently enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP, and you think you or any of your dependents might be eligible for either of these programs, contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office or dial 1-877-KIDS NOW or www.insurekidsnow.gov to find out how to apply. If you qualify, ask your state if it has a program that might help you pay the premiums for an employer-sponsored plan.

If you or your dependents are eligible for premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP, as well as eligible under your employer plan, your employer must allow you to enroll in your employer plan if you aren’t already enrolled. This is called a “special enrollment” opportunity, and you must request coverage within 60 days of being determined eligible for premium assistance. If you have questions about enrolling in your employer plan, contact the Department of Labor at www.askebsa.dol.gov or call 1-866-444-EBSA (3272).

If you live in one of the following states, you may be eligible for assistance paying your employer health plan premiums. The following list of states is current as of January 31, 2016. Contact your State for more information on eligibility –

Important Notice from Capco About Your Prescription Drug Coverage and Medicare

26

Please read this notice carefully and keep it where you can find it. This notice has information about your current prescription drug coverage with Capco and about your options under Medicare's prescription drug coverage. This information can help you decide whether or not you want to join a Medicare drug plan. If you are considering joining, you should compare your current coverage, including which drugs are covered at what cost, with the coverage and costs of the plans offering Medicare prescription drug coverage in your area. Information about where you can get help to make decisions about your prescription drug coverage is at the end of this notice.

There are two important things you need to know about your current coverage and Medicare's prescription drug coverage:

1. Medicare prescription drug coverage became available in 2006 to everyone with Medicare. You can get this coverage if you join a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan or join a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO) that offers prescription drug coverage. All Medicare drug plans provide at least a standard level of coverage set by Medicare. Some plans may also offer more coverage for a higher monthly premium.
2. Capco has determined that the prescription drug coverage offered by United Healthcare is, on average for all plan participants, expected to pay out as much as standard Medicare prescription drug coverage pays and is therefore considered Creditable Coverage. Because your existing coverage is Creditable Coverage, you can keep this coverage and not pay a higher premium (a penalty) if you later decide to join a Medicare drug plan.

When Can You Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You can join a Medicare drug plan when you first become eligible for Medicare and each year from October 15th through December 7th.

However, if you lose your current creditable prescription drug coverage, through no fault of your own, you will also be eligible for a two (2) month Special Enrollment Period (SEP) to join a Medicare drug plan.

What Happens To Your Current Coverage If You Decide to Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

If you decide to join a Medicare drug plan, your current Capco coverage may be affected.

If you do decide to join a Medicare drug plan and drop your current Capco coverage, be aware that you and your dependents may not be able to get this coverage back.

When Will You Pay A Higher Premium (Penalty) To Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You should also know that if you drop or lose your current coverage with Capco and don't join a Medicare drug plan within 63 continuous days after your current coverage ends, you may pay a higher premium (a penalty) to join a Medicare drug plan later.

If you go 63 continuous days or longer without creditable prescription drug coverage, your monthly premium may go up by at least 1% of the Medicare base beneficiary premium per month for every month that you did not have that coverage. For example, if you go nineteen months without creditable coverage, your premium may consistently be at least 19% higher than the Medicare base beneficiary premium. You may have to pay this higher premium (a penalty) as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage. In addition, you may have to wait until the following November to join.

For More Information About This Notice Or Your Current Prescription Drug Coverage...

Contact the person listed below for further information. NOTE: You will get this notice each year. You will also get it before the next period you can join a Medicare drug plan, and if this coverage changes through Capco. You also may request a copy of this notice at any time.

For More Information About Your Options Under Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage...

More detailed information about Medicare plans that offer prescription drug coverage is in the "Medicare & You" handbook. You will get a copy of the handbook in the mail every year from Medicare. You may also be contacted directly by Medicare drug plans.

For more information about Medicare prescription drug coverage:

- Visit www.medicare.gov
- Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see the inside back cover of your copy of the "Medicare & You" handbook for their telephone number) for personalized help
- Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

If you have limited income and resources, extra help paying for Medicare prescription drug coverage is available. For information about this extra help, visit Social Security on the web at www.socialsecurity.gov, or call them at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778).

Remember: Keep this Creditable Coverage notice. If you decide to join one of the Medicare drug plans, you may be required to provide a copy of this notice when you join to show whether or not you have maintained creditable coverage and, therefore, whether or not you are required to pay a higher premium (a penalty).
