GROUP3 WELCOMES OUR NEWEST REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

For many years Chris has had a passion for helping home buyers – especially first-time home buyers – to obtain financing and find the home of their dreams. Chris has deep roots in the Mt. Airy community, tracing his history back several generations to his parents, grandparents and great grandparents. His late mother was Leona France Cox (Lonie), daughter of the Granville and Luvenia Hill France, and his late father was Joe Bill Cox, son of Pastor Roy G. Cox and Della Hickman Cox. Prior to joining Group 3 Real Estate, Chris launched a real estate website – www.realesavvy.com – to help accomplish this goal. In addition to the website, he writes a monthly newspaper column, which circulates both locally in the Winston-Salem Chronicle and nationally in about 200 newspapers that subscribe to www.blackpressusa.com. This is the public website of the National Newspaper Publishers Association. He also hosts a monthly radio program that deals with a variety of real estate issues and airs on WTOB (980 AM and 96.3 FM). In addition to his extensive experience developing and launching his website, Chris has more than 20 years of experience in the fields of real estate and mortgage banking. Please contact Chris if you are looking for a knowledgeable, hard-working agent to help you find the ideal home for your family.
